FOREWORD

The Year Book of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) is published by the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) under authority granted by the convention's 1958 assembly.

A profile of the brotherhood of Christian Churches is presented in the Year Book. Statistical data about congregations, reports from agencies, resolutions brought before the International Convention's annual assembly, a directory of ministers and summaries that reflect the corporate health of the brotherhood—these are the contents that make the Year Book the most complete single source for facts about the Disciples of Christ.

The 1962 edition contains new reports and incorporates changes that are expected to improve its usefulness. Among the additions to the Statistical Reports are lists of contributions by Christian Churches to local and state councils of churches and to many of the city organizations of the brotherhood. Another addition is a directory of students from Christian Churches preparing for church vocations. An important change in the Ministers' Directory is the application of a comprehensive set of classification symbols to designate the field of service of each person listed.

Production of the Year Book actually is a cooperative enterprise of congregations, brotherhood organizations and schools and the International Convention office. The International Convention is particularly indebted to the state, area and provincial organizations that assist in the compiling of data for various directories as well as the Statistical Reports. Significant credit, therefore, is given to many who participate in this production task.

Resolution No. 40 of the International Convention's 1962 Assembly specifies that the policy guiding the Year Book must "protect the usefulness of the Year Book and the integrity of the brotherhood as well as adhere faithfully to an assembly-approved policy enabling responsible congregations and ministers to enter its pages and difficult for their places to be vacated." The resolution also stresses that "congregations listed in the Year Book should demonstrate a sense of responsibility for and commitment to the International Convention of Christian Churches and its reporting agencies."

The agencies and organizations that report through the Year Book participate in underwriting the cost of its publication. The price of the volume is kept low to encourage its use.

Reports and data in this edition are, for the most part, based on the fiscal year, July 1, 1961 to June 30, 1962. Information available on November 1, 1962, was used in bringing the Ministers' Directory up-to-date.

Year Book Publication Committee

The Year Book Publication Committee is a 15-member committee representative of the interests of congregations, state and national agencies and other groups reporting to the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) through the Year Book. Elected by the Board of Directors of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), the committee formulates and recommends policies to the Board of Directors and gives guidance to the editor of the Year Book.

Resolution No. 31 of the 1958 assembly of the International Convention, which makes the convention responsible for publication of the Year Book, stipulates the size, composition and duties of the Year Book Publication Committee. It also specifies that major policy changes will be subject to the action of the annual assembly.

Committee members and their alternates, one-third elected annually, serve three-year terms.

The following persons served during the year in which the 1962 edition of the Year Book was compiled:

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) is the outgrowth of our first General Convention held in Cincinnati, Ohio, October, 1849. The present organization of the International Convention (serving churches in United States and Canada) dates to 1917. The Convention office with a full-time staff was opened on October 1, 1946. The incorporation of the Convention was approved at the Cincinnati Assembly in October, 1949.

The Convention office coordinates the commissions and committees appointed each year at the International Convention Assembly and compiles the annual Year Book of Disciples of Christ. Its major task is to efficiently organize and present the annual International Convention Assembly. The office regularly contacts all railroads, airlines and bus companies concerning the transportation problems of our Brotherhood.

The Convention, through its Office of Interpretation, attempts to provide a united front for the Disciples of Christ to the secular news services. Regular news releases regarding the activities of our various national agencies go out to the major newspapers, radio and television stations. The Department is also developing a training program in public relations for our churches. Press service is provided at each Annual Assembly to report the program and business actions taken.

The Preamble to the present Constitution states clearly the purposes of the International Convention and its relationship to the local churches and to member service agencies.

“Whereas, There is a widespread feeling among Disciples of Christ that a closer cooperation among their various missionary, educational, benevolent and other agencies, and a more general fellowship in their common efforts for the extension of the Kingdom of God in the world would result in greater efficiency;

“Therefore, We, members of Churches of Disciples of Christ in convention assembled, reaffirming our steadfast adherence to the independence and autonomy of the local churches and disavowing any control over our congregations or missionary, educational, and benevolent agencies other than that which is advisory, and inviting the fellowship of all brethren in the accomplishment of these ends, do hereby adopt the following: . . .”

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

July 1, 1961 to June 30, 1962

The Board of Directors held its Annual Meeting in Indianapolis, February 13-14, 1962, with President Leslie R. Smith presiding. The Board gave attention to the continuing program of the Convention, reviewed the service and financial activities of the staff; confirmed committee appointments and received reports from Committees, both standing and special. The Personnel Committee has spent considerable time in an effort to secure an administrative secretary for Restructure, with success. The new secretary will probably begin his activities February 1, 1963. Upon recommendation by the Central Committee, the Board of Directors elected the total membership of the Commission of 125 (see Report No. 29). All members, including the Chairman, Granville T. Walker, were elected for a three year term beginning July 1, 1962. The first meeting of the total Commission is scheduled to be held in St. Louis, October 30—November 1, 1962.

An operating budget for the year 1962-63 of $113,255 was approved by the Finance Committee and submitted to the Board of Directors. This budget excludes the publication of the Year Book, which is now handled as an accommodation account, underwritten by agencies and the International Convention. It also excludes financial operations related to the Annual Assembly.

Financial Support

Receipts from Unified Promotion for the year closing June 30, 1962, totaled $107,662. Total receipts from all sources were $111,043. The Commission on Brotherhood Finance has allocated $123,075 for the year beginning July 1, 1962.

The Kansas City Assembly

The 112th Annual Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) was held in Kansas City, Missouri, September 29—October 4, 1961. Registrations totaled 10,784. Perry E. Gresham, who served as President, gave sacrificial leadership during the months preparatory to the Assembly at Kansas City. Significant actions taken in the Business Sessions are reported in the 1961 Year Book. Disciples of Christ in the Kansas City area are to be commended for their complete cooperation in the holding of this Assembly. Special recognition goes to Everett H. Kussmann, Chairman of Local Committees, and Harrell A. Rea, Secretary of the Kansas City Commission of Christian Churches, and the many committees who worked under their direction. W. A. Welsh served as Chairman of the Program Committee with efficiency and distinction. Kansas City will long be remembered because of its splendid Auditorium and the proximity to hotels.

Personal Services

The Executive Secretary serves as administrator for activities authorized by the Assembly and the Board of Directors. He is assisted by a competent staff. Your Secretary serves as secretary to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships, the Committee on Recommendations, the Program Committee of the Annual Assembly, and to other special and standing committees. He works closely with the various Board committees and commissions of the Brotherhood, including Unified Promotion, the Council of Agencies, the Home and State Missions Planning Council, and currently is chairman of the National Agency Promotional Coordinating Committee. He serves on the General Board of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. and the American Section of the World Council of Churches.

Your Secretary was one of 10 elected delegates from the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) to the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches in New Delhi, India, in 1961. He also served in a similar capacity at Evanston in 1954 and Amsterdam in 1948.

The Convention Office

The Convention Office is located at 221 Ohmer Avenue, using the address, P. O. Box 19136, Indianapolis 19, Indiana. The entire first floor of the new wing of Missions Building provides adequate space for the many activities carried on a year-round basis. These include preparation for the Annual Assembly, keeping the archives for Convention records, publication of the Year Book, an Office of Interpretation, transportation service, the holding of conferences and committees related to Convention activities.

The present staff consists of Gaines M. Cook, Executive Secretary; Howard E. Dentler, Assistant to the Executive Secretary and Editor of the Year Book; James C. Suggs, Director, Office of Interpretation; Gertrude Dimke, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Clara Keltner, Supervisor of Year Book; Secretarial Assistants, Barbara Rahn, Virginia Keithley, Aleitha Hedge, Linda Black; Stella Brown, Director of Radio and Television.

Convention Relationships

The total life of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) comes to focus in the International Convention. 8,000 congregations with 1,805,449 members are free to express themselves through fellowship, deliberation and action. The Convention is larger and more inclusive than any individual or theological point of view. The Convention seeks to demonstrate both fellowship and responsibility. The Constitution and By-Laws disavows any control over congregations, missionary, educational and benevolent agencies other than that which is advisory. The fellowship of all of our brethren in the accomplishment of greater efficiency and more general fellowship is invited.

The Assembly is composed of those members of the Christian Churches who register and attend. The members of the Committee on Recommendations are elected by State Conventions and organized by the officers of the International Convention. Reports from 15 national member agencies are received and resolutions thereon are adopted.

CERTIFICATE OF AUDITOR

Board of Directors,
International Convention of Christian Churches
(Disciples of Christ),
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Gentlemen:

We have examined the cash records of International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) for the year ended June 30, 1962. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the assets and liabilities of International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) at June 30, 1962, arising from cash transactions, and income collected and expenses disbursed by it for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

The deficit in the year book fund represents only a temporary deficit which will be included as part of the costs of the 1962 year book when its net cost is assessed to the participating organizations after issuance.

Yours very truly,

GEO. S. OLIVE & Co.
Certified Public Accountants

ACTIONS TAKEN DURING BUSINESS SESSIONS OF THE ASSEMBLY OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION OF
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, SEPTEMBER 30-OCTOBER 4, 1962

The 113th Annual Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) was called to order Sunday evening, September 30, 1962, Hollywood Bowl, Los Angeles, California, by President Leslie R. Smith.

Executive Secretary Gaines M. Cook presented reports and resolutions for consideration by the Convention Assembly which had been filed prior to August 30, 1962.

President, Dr. Leslie R. Smith delivered the Convention sermon using the subject, "The Power of God—Or Else!"

Later in the Assembly Mr. and Mrs. Will Aiton from Birkenhead, England, were presented as Fraternal Delegates from Great Britain.

Six military Chaplains were recognized upon the occasion of their retirement: Capt. (Chaplain) Roy H. Marken, Chaplain (CDR) James Alley, U. S. Navy; Chaplain (Col.) Floyd S. Smith, Chaplain (Col.) Jesse Coburn, Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Ellis R. Veatch, U. S. Air Force; Chaplain (Col.) Thomas V. Sigler, U. S. Army. Presentation of Certificates was given by T. J. Mattingly, Chairman of the Committee on Military and Veterans Services.

The first copy of the three volume Index for The Christian-Evangelist, prepared jointly by the Christian Board of Publication and the Disciples of Christ Historical Society, was presented to Gaines M. Cook for the archives of the Convention office. The presentation was made by Wilbur H. Cramblet of the Christian Board of Publication and Claude E. Spencer of the Historical Society.

A Citation was presented by President Leslie R. Smith to George Stevens for outstanding production of films which have maintained high moral standards through the years.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

A gift from individual members of Christian Churches totaling $6,965.87 was presented by Tom Underwood to the United Nations. The gift was received by Dr. J. Eugene Harley.

Samuel F. Pugh, Editor of WORLD CALL recognized the First Christian Church, Eldora, Iowa; First Christian Church, Raytown, Missouri, and Gordon Street Christian Church, Kinston, North Carolina, for outstanding achievements in WORLD CALL subscriptions.

The Hon. Ernest E. Debs brought greetings from the County of Los Angeles and churches of the area.

Prominent personalities appearing on the program were Leslie E. Cooke from the World Council of Churches, David Colwell representing the United Church of Christ, D. Elton Trueblood feature speaker at the Oreon E. Scott Ministers' Breakfast, T. J. Liggett of Puerto Rico.

Report No. 29

CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE COMMISSION ON BROTHERHOOD RESTRUCTURE

To the Los Angeles Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), September 30–October 4, 1962.

Dr. Granville T. Walker, chairman

Dr. George Earle Owen, administrative secretary pro tem

The Central Committee of the Commission on Brotherhood Restructure was authorized by the Board of Directors of the International Convention as a result of the action of the Assembly of the International Convention taken in Louisville, October, 1960, creating the Commission. Both the Central Committee and the Commission on Brotherhood Restructure came into existence as a result of meetings held in Indianapolis in February and May of 1959 and at McCormicks Creek (Indiana State Park) in January, 1960, by a Committee to Study Brotherhood Structure. The Central Committee has held three meetings: In June, 1961 and in January and July of 1962. It has been engaged in the following tasks:

1. To define more completely the task of the Commission.

Restructure is a dynamic process that has been going on in the Brotherhood for a number of years. It is the continuous process of reorganization to meet new needs and new responsibilities. One aspect of the Commission's assignment is to assess the restructure that has already taken place and to evaluate that which is now going on. Another aspect of the assignment is to guide the process whereby the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) through proper study and decision-making processes can discover and implement the best possible organizations and structures which will enable the Brotherhood to fulfill its mission and responsibility in today's world in keeping with the mission, purpose, and function of the whole church of Christ.

It is assumed that the Commission on Brotherhood Restructure will make studies, hold consultations, and serve as a medium to secure the widest possible participation of the Brotherhood in the total process of restructure. In order to secure the widest possible judgment in any steps taken the Commission itself will seek guidance through listening conferences, forums in District and State Conventions, and many other special meetings.

The first meeting of the Commission will be held in St. Louis, Missouri, October 30–November 1, 1962, at which time the Commission will face its task.

2. To arrange for an adequate budget to carry on the kind of responsibility assigned to the Commission.

One of the concerns of the Board of Directors and the Central Committee has been the securing of an adequate budget to underwrite the expenses of an administrative secretary, his office, and the expense of convening the Commission. A budget of $52,000 has been adopted for the year 1962-1963, for which underwriting has been secured through Unified Promotion, the International Convention, non-Unified Promotion agencies and foundations.

3. To fulfill its assignment in the nomination of personnel for the 120-130 member Commission to be elected by the Board of Directors.

The Central Committee has served as a nominating committee to the Board of Directors for the selection of a representative and responsible Commission.

Among the criteria of qualifications to serve on the Commission were the following: 1) ability to give the necessary time; 2) depth of interest and constructive attitude toward the Brotherhood; 3) capacity to approach problems of objectivity, e.g., with an open mind, an irenic spirit; 4) a person who has the respect of other people in the state; 5) ability to work with others; 6) competence in one or more of the following areas—churchmanship, biblical thought, theology, church history, organization and administration, current problems and issues of the social order, the church in modern culture, legal experience, ability to interpret.

The following categories were kept in mind as all selections were made: geography—state and area, laymen, laywomen, ministers, theological professors, administrators, agency representatives and members-at-large with exceptional experience. The present 125-member Commission represents 34 lay people and 91 ministers; 17 women and 108 men; 30 churches that may be classified as small (500 or less) and 95 that are large.

Report No. 30

COMMISSION ON COOPERATIVE POLICY AND PRACTICE

Resolution No. 52, URGING COOPERATIVE STRATEGY, was approved by the Denver Assembly in 1959. In 1960 a standing commission titled A COMMISSION ON COOPERATIVE POLICY AND PRACTICE was appointed by the Board of Directors. This Commission has held regular meetings and has attempted to keep abreast with current developments in the field of cooperation, seeking to deal with the problem in depth. The Commission began with a careful survey of the problem and has sought to lift up the major issues. Certain problems are beginning to emerge, but these are being assessed in the light of historical developments and present trends. The Commission is attempting to create a climate of understanding. Its purpose is unitive and not divisive. All members have a grave concern for the major problems and are not accepting tensions within the Brotherhood lightly or as inevitable. The Commission recognizes that there is a real division in our Brotherhood life and is seeking to handle the matter constructively.

The Commission has now reached the place where it can do more than make a progress report. Certain specific things have been done or are in process.

1—The creation of literature. In the effort to understand the problems we face, three statements are in the process of preparation: "The Why and What of the Present Brotherhood Division;" "Indications of Parallel Structures of So-Called Independents and Cooperatives;" "Theological Assumptions of Cooperation." Under preparation is a history of the independent movement; studies are also being made as to why some ministers have turned from the independent fellowship to the cooperative fellowship; a rather complete bibliography of studies in this field is being prepared by the Historical Society.

Papers have been reviewed on the following subjects: "One View of Disciples Origin" by George G. Beazley, Jr.; "The Nature of a United Brotherhood" by A. T. DeGroot; "Sociological and Psychological Factors in Brotherhood Problems" by Wayne Reinhardt.

2—The Commission is seeking to express a concern for persons who are interested in understanding the controversy—persons who are disturbed. The Commission stands ready with a ministry of understanding and concern.

3—The Commission is endeavoring to provide channels through which all interested persons can become informed and have a better understanding of the philosophy, practice and policy of the International Convention and its various reporting agencies. It is believed that facts should speak for themselves and that information can be provided with accuracy and integrity.

4—The Commission believes that its function, techniques and policies, will broaden the base of our cooperation consistent with the theology on which we stand as Disciples. It is not content to deal with superficialities but believes that our cooperative life has a deep theological base and will seek to explore that theology.

5—One of the responsibilities of the Commission on Policy and Practice is to define "cooperation." We are committed to the cooperative position and we are willing to define, explain and demonstrate it in order that we may be one Brotherhood. This allows for differences of opinion but still requires the imperative of honest confrontation.

6—Sub-committees are engaged in the following studies: theology, structure and history.

7—Another purpose of the Commission is to evaluate the efforts that are being made by various groups facing the common problem of cooperation and independency. This is largely a task of coordination with the Missionary Policy and Strategy Committee of the Home and State Missions Planning Council; with the Year Book Committee; with agencies that are related to the problem.

The Commission seeks to be entirely objective in dealing with the issues before it. Furthermore, it recognizes that confrontation of ideas and opinions may be a constructive process. The primary concern is neither compromise nor rigid adherence to any particular point of view. We believe that cooperation is necessary and desirable and that we need to discover both the nature of the church and the best ways and means of working together. We believe that such cooperation can be accomplished by creative processes which humbly recognize that we are a growing Brotherhood.

Resolution No. 31

APPLICATION ON THE DISCIPLES PEACE FELLOWSHIP FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES (DISCIPLES OF CHRIST)

(Resolution No. 31 International Convention Assembly, 1957)

The Executive Committee of the Disciples Peace Fellowship has carefully reviewed your helpful letter of March 10, 1956, Article VI—"Admission of Cooperating Organizations" of the International Convention Constitution, and Resolution No. 37—amendment to Article VI, approved by the International Convention at its Chicago Assembly in 1952.

In compliance with action of the Executive Committee of DPF in its meeting of June 13, 1956, we are now writing to request that the application of the Disciples Peace Fellowship, to become a reporting organization to the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, be filed with the Convention at its Des Moines, Iowa, Assembly, September 28-October 3, 1956.

It is our understanding that this will allow time for the usual study of such applications made by the Convention's Board of Directors with presentation brought to the Convention for action at the time of its 1957 Cleveland Assembly.

With the privileges and responsibilities involved well in mind, we believe that this kind of relationship between our International Convention of the Disciples of Christ and the Disciples Peace Fellowship, an active brotherhood organization and fellowship, can be mutually beneficial.

Note: The above application was presented to the 1957 Assembly of the International Convention as Business Docket No. 31 and approved for future consideration in accordance with the By-Laws of the Convention with the understanding that studies regarding categories of membership be established before action on this application would be taken.

In 1958 the Assembly at St. Louis received a report from the Committee to Study Eligibility of Member Agencies and Propose Categories of Membership. At that time it was stated:

"Further consideration of the application of the Disciples Peace Fellowship was postponed until categories of membership had been established."

By action of the Board of Directors of the International Convention February 14, 1962, it is recommended that the application of the Disciples Peace Fellowship be approved under "Category No. 2," i.e., "Institutional, fellowship, or affiliated members."

This application is, therefore, submitted to the 1962 Assembly for membership as an affiliated fellowship.

Original Application signed by the Disciples Peace Fellowship

The Committee on Recommendations recommended that the application of the Disciples Peace Fellowship for membership in the International Convention of Christian Churches (Resolution No. 31) be approved.

Action—VOTED approval by the Convention Assembly of the affirmative report of the Committee on Recommendations.

Note: The required two-thirds vote indicated by Article VI of the By-Laws of the Convention was received. Membership is in the category of "affiliate" member, as provided by previous action of the Convention Assembly.

Resolution No. 32

CHRISTIAN RESPONSIBILITY AND POPULATION PROBLEMS

WHEREAS, Christians should respect the dignity and potential worth of every human being and are called upon by their faith to work for a society that seeks for every man the fullest opportunity to achieve his God-given potentialities by living his life in a responsible community that recognizes his need for freedom, material well-being, and wholesome family life; and

WHEREAS, U. N. demographic experts are agreed that the present rapid increase in the rate of population growth will result in a total of 6½ billion human beings (more than double the present population) by the year 2,000 A.D.—just 38 years away—thereby intensifying present political, social and economic crises in the world; and

WHEREAS, such uncontrolled population growth promises, at best, to restrict and impoverish personal and family development in large areas of the world, and, at worst, to end in disaster and premature death for whole peoples, because of such factors as: (1) increases in birth rates which outrun the ability of societies and individuals to provide even minimal requirements of food, education, housing and other essentials; (2) reductions in mortality rates through improved medical standards in geographic areas where economic growth is insufficient in care for the increased population that results; (3) religious principles that forbid the use of contraceptives in family planning; (4) cultural inertia that limits concern for family planning; (5) inadequate opportunities for migration from densely populated centers to less populated areas.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) assembled in Los Angeles, California, call upon the members of our congregations and appropriate persons in government to encourage wherever possible:

- 1—A sense of individual responsibility and initiative in family planning and support; and
- 2—Education and action programs that recognize the need for family planning through the use of contraceptive procedures; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT:

- 1—We commend in general those current programs of the nations of the world and of the United Nations that encourage the economic development of under-developed areas and the redistribution of surpluses of food and fibers; and call upon the responsible leaders of governments and of the United Nations to continue and to strengthen them; and
- 2—We recommend also the creation and support of a world food bank under the U. N. as proposed by the Food and Agriculture Organization to provide for effective distribution of food surpluses of the developed nations; and
- 3—We advocate an effective migration program that recognizes the opportunity and responsibility of less densely populated nations to welcome a fair and realistic share of immigrants from overpopulated areas, as fellow human beings, who can contribute to the culture, growth and vitality of their new homelands; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call upon churches, ecumenical agencies, medical groups, social welfare agencies and other civic associations to establish and develop programs supplementary to and in support of the actions outlined above.

Resolution No. 33

MAINTAINING A MINISTRY IN THE INNER CITY

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS American society has become characteristically urban, and it is inconceivable that this trend will be altered or reversed;

WHEREAS the Federal, State and City Governments are increasing their concern for "city planning" and public assistance to cities experiencing a population explosion and immigration;

WHEREAS the mobility of the population, the cultural and racial changes in communities present a real challenge to the urban church;

WHEREAS the complexity of the problems and challenges which confront the urban church requires such a change in type of program, a multiplicity of services, and added financial responsibilities;

WHEREAS many churches seek to solve some of their problems by leaving the city to relocate in suburbia;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED:

THAT we encourage the urban church to remain in the city to serve the people and to bear witness to the vitality of the Gospel and the true nature of the Church;

THAT the State/Area and National boards and agencies show as much concern about maintaining the urban churches as they do about establishing new churches in suburbia;

THAT a program be developed by the Area society to work in cooperation with the department of Christian Action and Community Service and the department of Church Development of the United Christian Missionary Society to give financial assistance to those urban churches which are willing to remain in the city and develop a program to serve all people in their respective areas;

THAT urban churches facing problems of adjustment of program to meet the needs of a community undergoing cultural, economic and racial change, be urged to seek the counsel and help of the Area department of Urban Church, and the Department of Church Development of the United Christian Missionary Society; and

THAT, should any urban church decide to sell out and/or relocate, that church be urged to maintain a sense of responsibility for the area it is leaving and make its financial and leadership resources available as far as possible for the continuation of a ministry in that area, and to give the state or area society, city union or district and the United Christian Missionary Society the option of purchasing the property to help insure an adequate program during the transitional period between the old congregation and the new one.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED; THAT the national agencies be urged to seek ways that interest-free loans and/or gifts might be made.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: THAT the agencies be encouraged to utilize the socio-economic and demographic research information and be encouraged to work very closely together in counseling with urban churches concerning the study of their respective communities and planning for future action.

Resolution No. 34

CONCERNING INVESTMENT OF AGENCY FUNDS IN NEW CHURCH PROJECTS

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS, the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) during its 1954 sessions in Miami, Florida, passed Resolution No. 64, making church expansion to be the promised major concern for the Brotherhood in the decade of the 1960's; and

WHEREAS, the forecast for the 1960's for the brotherhood as presented during the International Convention in Denver, Colorado was disturbingly weak on the subject of new church promotion; and

WHEREAS, the establishment of new congregations by the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) in this decade of the 1960's is badly lagging behind announced anticipations, which were minimal in view of needs created by population growth and opportunities; and

WHEREAS, the most significant reason assigned for this serious lag in new church expansion is lack of ready funds for the purchasing of opportune sites, employment of adequate pastors for new church establishment, and the erection of first building units; and

BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the International Convention meeting in Los Angeles, California, lift up and call for new effort in the new church program of the 1960's in the light of Resolution No. 64 passed in 1954 in the Miami, Florida, Assembly; and
2. That we recognize the great need for "gift money" (Grants-in-Aid) and that we need to seek and develop new sources; and
3. That we request agencies, churches and individuals to give prayerful consideration to making any unrestricted funds available for loan purposes through existing channels and within the organizational framework.

Resolution No. 35

CONCERNING CONSERVATION OF NON-RESIDENT MEMBERS

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS, we recognize the individual human need as well as the Kingdom-building potential that our non-resident membership rolls present; and

WHEREAS, we would like to see this need served and the potential developed;

BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the 1962 Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) ask our Brotherhood office of Church Development of the United Christian Missionary Society to consider the following procedures:

1. Receive from individual congregations and from state offices the names and addresses of all non-resident members of our individual congregations.
2. Make these names and addresses available to the proper state office, which then would report this information to the proper concerned church. In those cases mutually determined by state and national offices where the state is not able to handle or implement this resolution, the national offices may direct the information to the local pastor or city union.
3. Look at specific areas of large concentration of nonresidents with no Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) available to them, with the idea of establishing new congregations.

Resolution No. 36

CONCERNING OPPOSITION TO FEDERAL AID TO ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS

WHEREAS, the Christian Churches of Colorado (Disciples of Christ) are concerned with that secularization which attempts to separate our nation from God in our public schools; and

WHEREAS, we are concerned with the resulting acceleration of such secularization which would result from Federal control of educational policy; and

WHEREAS, Federal financial aid to elementary and secondary schools can only result in Federal control of educational policy;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Christian Churches of Colorado (Disciples of Christ) in convention assembled do hereby express their opposition to any federal aid to elementary and secondary schools.

Signed: The Christian Churches of Colorado

Adopted, Boulder Assembly, May 4-6, 1962, by the Christian Churches of Colorado.

The Committee on Recommendations recognized among the members of this Assembly a considerable concern over issues related to federal aid to education and related problems of federal control, secularization of education and support to education in areas of special need; the Committee on Recommendations recommended that Resolution No. 36 be referred to the Department of Christian Action and Community Service and the Department of Christian Education of the United Christian Missionary Society for careful joint study with the request that a new resolution based upon facts be submitted for consideration by the 1963 Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

CONCERNING PROHIBITION OF SALE, SERVICE, AND USE OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ON ALL AIRCRAFT IN FLIGHT

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS, a person under the influence of alcohol has repeatedly been shown to have lost his sense of restraint and control, necessary to the well-being of others; and

WHEREAS, the uncontrolled behavior of an individual can constitute a hazard to the operation of an aircraft while in flight,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) that the Congress of the United States be urged to enact legislation prohibiting the sale, service, or use of alcoholic beverages on all aircraft in flight.

Resolution No. 38

CONCERNING MENTAL ILLNESS

WHEREAS, the Christian Church to be true to its role as the Body of Christ must manifest Christ's concern and compassionate action wherever there is human need, and whereas therefore, the Church, both in its corporate life and in the individual acts of its members, should exhibit active concern for the totality of man's life in all its relationships as part of its basic witness; and

WHEREAS, the Church has long held the healing of the sick to be a vital part of its ministry, and its ordained ministers have always given pastoral care to patients within and beyond their own fellowships, and in more recent years have prepared themselves for counseling services as a necessary part of their ministry; and

WHEREAS, leading psychologists and psychiatrists agree that the sooner a person with mental illness receives professional attention the better are the chances for recovery, and since the facilities for institutional care and treatment are very limited and there is a shortage of qualified persons to treat mental patients;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) assembled in Los Angeles, California, calls upon our churches to express their concern in their local communities by (1) encouraging the formation of a commission of competent persons in the community to study and assess the mental health situation locally and in the state; (2) organizing a program within the local church through which church members can participate in a ministry to those who are or have been mentally ill (a church program might include group visits to hospitals, regular hospital service by individuals, finding homes for patients released from hospitals and integrating them into the church); (3) looking toward the development of a mental health clinic which will provide psychological counseling and therapy to members of the church and the community; (4) helping to develop a program of intermediate care or aftercare such as can be provided by foster homes, "half-way houses," day hospitals, and out-patient care for patients who are released from mental hospitals and need help to re-establish themselves in society; (5) urging ministers to take refresher courses in counseling; (6) cooperating with the constructive programs in the community such as the Santa Cruz Plan of Northern California (See Resolution No. 38, concerning Rehabilitation Centers, p. 30 Year Book of The Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), 1961; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the churches help to strengthen the mental health program at the local level by: (1) cooperating with the mental health agencies; (2) working for the establishment of "emergency clinics" in connection with general hospitals where a disturbed person may go at any time—day or night—for emergency counsel and therapy; (3) emphasizing the need for rehabilitative therapy wherever possible as over against custodial care even though it means increasing the number of trained persons to do this work; (4) seeking to establish or expand separate facilities available for elderly people suffering from the psychoses of old age; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the churches encourage the recruitment and training of persons who are and will be needed to minister to the mentally ill. (The need is great for well-trained psychiatrists, clinical psychologists, psychiatric social workers, psychiatric nurses and hospital chaplains. Scholarship funds will be needed in many instances to secure complete and adequate training); and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the churches seek to encourage a wholesome attitude toward, and a sympathetic understanding of, those who are mentally ill. (Programs of information and education for the church membership can be developed through the use of public forums, speakers, study groups and audio-visuals.)

IN SUPPORT OF THE STATEMENT ON WAR AND PEACE ENTITLED "AN APPEAL TO ALL GOVERNMENTS AND PEOPLES" ADOPTED AT NEW DELHI, INDIA, BY THE THIRD ASSEMBLY OF THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

WHEREAS, the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches, meeting at New Delhi, India, has addressed "An Appeal to All Governments and Peoples" urging them to recognize war as man's common enemy;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Christian Churches assembled at Los Angeles, California, September 30–October 4, 1962, does hereby endorse and accept as its own this "Appeal to All Governments and Peoples" printed below and urges its members as well as responsible governmental leaders to hear this "Appeal" as an urgent call for action by private citizens and public officials; and to further this aim, we urge the department of Christian Action and Community Service of The United Christian Missionary Society, to make the following document available to our churches for study and action:

"AN APPEAL TO ALL GOVERNMENTS AND PEOPLES"

"The Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches, at which are gathered Christians from all parts of the world, addresses this appeal to the government and people of every nation.

"Today, war itself is a common enemy. War is an offense to the nature of man. The future of many generations and the heritage of ages past hang in the balance. They are now easy to destroy, since the actions or miscalculations of a few can bring about a holocaust. They are harder to safeguard and advance, for that requires the dedicated action of all. Let there be restraint and self-denial in the things which make for war, patience and persistence in seeking to resolve the things which divide, and boldness and courage in grasping the things which make for peace.

"To turn back from the road towards war into the paths of peace, all must renounce the threat of force. This calls for an end to the war of nerves, to pressures on small countries, to the rattling of bombs. It is not possible to follow at the same time policies of menace and of mutual disarmament.

"To halt the race in arms is imperative. Complete and general disarmament is the accepted goal, and concrete steps must be taken to reach it. Meanwhile, the search for a decisive first step, such as the verified cessation of nuclear tests, should be pressed forward despite all obstacles and setbacks.

"To substitute reason for force and undergird the will to disarm, institutions of peace and orderly methods to effect change and to settle disputes are essential. This imposes a duty to strengthen the United Nations within the framework and spirit of the Charter. All countries share this duty, whether aligned with the major power blocs or independent of them. The nonaligned can contribute through their impartiality; with others they can be champions of the principles of the Charter.

"To build peace with justice, barriers of mutual distrust must be attacked at every level. Mutual confidence is the most precious resource in the world today: none should be wasted, more must be found. The fundamentals of an open society are essential that contacts may freely develop, person to person and people to people. Barriers to communication must go, not least where they divide peoples, churches, even families. Freedom of human contact, information, and cultural exchange is essential for the building of peace.

"To enhance mutual trust, nations should be willing to run reasonable risks for peace. For example, an equitable basis for disarmament involves, on the one hand, an acceptance of risks in an inspection and control program which cannot be fool-proof, and, on the other, the danger that inspection may exceed its stated duties. Those who would break through the vicious circle of suspicion must dare to pioneer.

"There is a great opportunity for constructive action in the struggle for world development. To share the benefits of civilization with the whole of humanity is a noble and attainable objective. To press the war against poverty, disease, exploitation, and ignorance calls for greater sacrifice and for a far greater commitment of scientific, educational, and material resources than hitherto. In this common task, let the peoples find a positive programme for peace, a moral equivalent for war.

"A creative strategy for peace with justice requires universal recognition of the claims of humanity—of all people, whatever their status, race, sex, or creed. Lest man's new powers be used to degrade his human freedom and dignity, governments must remember that they are the servants of their citizens and respect the worth of each individual human being. The supreme achievement for a government is to enhance the dignity of man, and free him for the creative exercise of his higher powers.

"In making this appeal to all governments and peoples, we are constrained by obedience to Jesus Christ, the Lord of history, who demands righteousness and mercy and is a light unto the nations and the hearts of men. For the achievement of peace with justice, we pledge our unrelenting efforts and call upon the Churches for their support in action and in prayer."

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, the Year Book Publication Committee of the International Convention has felt a need for a policy statement to guide the organizations and individuals who compile lists of congregations and ministers in behalf of the brotherhood; and

WHEREAS, International Convention assembly action is required on the formulation of major policies such as those affecting the inclusion of agencies, congregations and ministers; and

WHEREAS, the Year Book Publication Committee, in consultation with executives and Board Chairmen of the Christian Churches' state and area organizations, has developed proposed principles and procedures in regard to listing congregations and ministers; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the International Convention has reviewed and approved these proposed principles and procedures with the understanding that they will need to be refined regularly to reflect accurately the corporate mind of the brotherhood in regard to publication of the Year Book;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the International Convention assembly approves the following principles and procedures in regard to listing congregations and ministers in the Year Book;

Proposed Principles and Procedures Regarding the Listing of Congregations and Ministers in the Year Book of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)

Introduction

Resolution No. 31 of the 1958 assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) authorizes the convention to publish the Year Book of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). This resolution calls the Year Book, first published in 1897 by the American Christian Missionary Society and published by The United Christian Missionary Society from 1920 until the convention assumed this responsibility in 1947, "a symbol of the unity of the brotherhood."

Persons who use the Year Book assume it lists congregations, agencies and ministers who experience common fellowship and feel responsible to and for one another. As a matter of fact, however, the Christian Churches' annual has included congregations, agencies and ministers who have not desired full fellowship and who have rejected responsibility. Being listed in the Year Book has not necessarily been a symbol of participation in a mutual brotherhood program.

Principles and procedures in regard to listing must protect the usefulness of the Year Book and the integrity of the brotherhood as well as adhere faithfully to a policy "enabling responsible congregations and ministers to enter its pages and difficult for their places to be vacated."

Resolution No. 31 of the St. Louis assembly not only makes the International Convention responsible for publication of the Year Book but also specifies that assembly action will be required on "major policies such as the inclusion of agencies, churches and ministers."

In regard to the listing of congregations and ministers, Resolution No. 31 says:

"BE IT ALSO FURTHER RESOLVED, that a policy be maintained in the Year Book enabling responsible congregations and ministers to enter its pages and difficult for their places to be vacated. Such a policy should be open and inviting, to establish and maintain this link of common fellowship. This policy must, however, be matched by a sense of responsibility on the part of ministers and congregations."

The preamble to Resolution No. 31 also stresses that although the policy of the Year Book always should be "open and inviting" to both ministers and congregations, a reciprocal "sense of responsibility" should be expected from pastors and churches.

For the use of the Year Book Publication Committee, the editor and others who assist in compiling information for the annual, the following principles and procedures for listing congregations and ministers in the Statistical Reports and Ministers' Directory, respectively, are proposed:

Definitions of Terms

Year Book.—The Year Book of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) authorized by the 1958 assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) and published by the convention under policies approved by the assembly.

Year Book Publication Committee.—A 15-member committee representative of the interests of congregations, state and national agencies and other groups reporting to the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) through the Year Book. Elected by the Board of Directors of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), the committee formulates and recommends policies to the Board of Directors and gives guidance to the editor of the Year Book.

Responsible State or Area Organization.—A state or area board, committee on the ministry or other committees of that board entrusted with specific responsibilities by the Year Book Publication Committee.

Statistical Reports
(Church Listing)

Principles and procedures governing the inclusion of congregations in the Year Book should be open and inviting. Responsible congregations—those that recognize their interdependence and inter-support and act accordingly—should be encouraged to establish and maintain a listing in the Year Book as a symbol of common fellowship.

Congregations listed in the Year Book should demonstrate a sense of responsibility for and commitment to the International Convention of Christian Churches and its reporting agencies. Due concern will be given, however, to congregations that have been included in the Statistical Reports through the years but are not currently cooperating with the International Convention.

Before the congregation is included in the Year Book for the first time, this procedure will be followed:

1. The local church seeking listing will take congregational action expressing its desire and intention to be a part of the fellowship of the brotherhood of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).
2. Through the board of its state or area organization, the congregation then will make known to the International Convention its desire to be a part of the fellowship of the brotherhood and to have this affiliation recorded in the Year Book.
3. In ascertaining the congregation's desire, the state or area board will either take note that such a declaration is included in the church's charter, constitution, by laws, articles of incorporation or other indication of desire to fellowship with the brotherhood, or obtain a formal notarized statement from the congregation.
4. The state or area organization will endorse the request for listing and this endorsement will be attested by the chief executive.

This procedure for requesting to be listed also will be followed by a united church—a congregation composed of members related to more than one communion—and a congregation of another denomination seeking affiliation with the Christian Churches.

If the congregation has a history of cooperation with the International Convention, a reactivated church that has been listed previously can be returned to the Year Book's Statistical Reports on the written request of the responsible state or area organization.

But a continuous congregation previously listed in the Year Book must follow the procedure prescribed for a new congregation in seeking reentry.

Responsibility for seeing that a new or reactivated congregation is included in the Year Book rests with the state or area organization. The responsible organization, acting in behalf of all Christian Churches, will take the initiative in inviting a new congregation to make a formal request for listing and will furnish information and guidance on procedures. To assist the state and area organizations, the Year Book Office will send to them, periodically, supplies of forms congregations can use in asking to be included.

Once a congregation has been listed, it can be omitted from the Statistical Reports only after the Year Book office has received a notarized statement of congregational action requesting removal endorsed by the state or area office. The congregation's formal request not to be listed will be kept in the Year Book office and a copy will be provided for the state or area organization to which the congregation should be related.

An exception is a congregation that becomes affiliated with and gives its allegiance to an organization or group that is consistently antagonistic with the International Convention and its reporting agencies. A congregation that severs itself from cooperative brotherhood life in this way can be omitted from the Statistical Reports if the responsible state or area organization requests in writing that the church be removed and furnishes a full explanation of the circumstances. Coordinate with the principle that a congregation has a right to determine if it will belong to the body is the principle that the body has a right to decide if the congregation will be a part of the corporate life.

Another exception is the church that has been "closed" for years, which can be omitted from the Statistical Reports on the authority of the state or area organization of the Christian Churches. For possible legal reasons, congregations that no longer are active but still have property will be listed at the end of the Statistical Reports of each state or area.

Every congregation's right to appeal decisions it considers unjust will be recognized. Each state or area organization is expected to provide a committee or another responsible group to which a congregation can appeal. The Advisory Committee of the Year Book Publication Committee will constitute a higher panel for appeal in regard to listing in the Statistical Reports.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

A state or area organization that feels its rights have been violated can appeal first to the Year Book Publication Committee and finally to the Board of Directors of the International Convention.

Using report forms provided by the Year Book office, each state and area organization entrusted with the responsibility will endeavor to obtain accurate statistical reports from congregations it serves. Although every congregation included in the Statistical Reports annually assumes an obligation to submit reports for Year Book purposes, great patience will be used in dealing with congregations that are not currently reporting.

Any cooperative individual or group in a congregation unrelated to the organized life of the brotherhood can report through the Year Book. Reports from cooperative segments of unrelated congregations will be given at the end of the tables for their states under the heading, "Non-Congregational Statistics."

Because the Year Book is expected to provide the latest and most accurate information available, the names of ministers will be listed with the statistical reports of congregations they are serving at the deadline set by the Year Book Publication Committee. A minister's name is given with a congregation's report as a matter of fact about the church and the listing does not constitute an endorsement of the minister.

Ministers' Directory

Principles and procedures governing the listing of ministers in the Year Book also should be open and inviting to responsible persons.

The name of a minister will be listed for the first time when he is ordained to the ministry of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), licensed as a Disciples minister or called to a ministry in a congregation of the Christian Churches or in an agency or institution recognized by the International Convention.

Primary responsibility for listing ministers in all classifications is lodged with the state or area office or with the state or area body the Year Book Publication Committee has entrusted with this task.

The general rule is that the state or area organization serving the state in which a minister lives is responsible for his listing. In the case of a minister who lives in one state and serves in another, however, the state or area organization serving the state in which he works is responsible for his listing. The state or area organization serving the state in which he lives will be kept informed about the listing. Another exception is a student minister attending a school out of the state in which he was approved for the ministry. Regardless of where a person goes to school, the state or area organization that has approved him for the ministry is responsible for seeing that he is listed in the Year Book. The state or area organization responsible for the listing will share information with the office responsible for other listings in the state where the student is attending school.

A responsibility of each minister who considers himself eligible for listing is to request the appropriate state or area organization to submit his name for the Ministers' Directory. The state or area organization entrusted with this task is not to be blamed if a minister is unintentionally, through lack of information, left out of the list.

Only persons ordained or licensed as Christian ministers and those serving and supported by congregations and/or agencies of the Christian Churches in ministerial capacities will be included in the Ministers' Directory. A student can be listed only if he is serving in a pastoral capacity. Unless they are retired, persons not actively engaged in the ministry as a vocation will not be listed. Fully recognized ministers who are pursuing academic degrees or for other valid reasons are temporarily not performing ministerial functions can be included, but they are responsible for keeping the appropriate state or area organization informed about their activities and addresses.

Ordination and licensing are joint acts of a congregation and/or a state commission (or committee) on the ministry, undertaken in behalf of the entire brotherhood and the church universal; therefore both should feel responsible to the larger fellowship as they name persons to the Christian ministry. The Disciples' historic belief in the "priesthood of all believers" should be preserved. But promiscuous use of the title, "minister," in describing the functions of persons for whom the ministry is not a vocation should be discouraged.

Ministers listed in the Year Book should demonstrate a sense of responsibility for and commitment to the International Convention and its reporting agencies. The right of loyal criticism will be protected, however. Due concern will be given, for practical reasons, to ministers who have been listed through the years, considering the traditions that accompanied their listing.

It is assumed that the appropriate state and area organizations will keep in mind that ministers listed in the Year Book should possess business and moral integrity. Worthy ministers voluntarily adopt and follow high principles of personal ethics in order that through dedication and self-discipline they might set good examples for those they seek to lead and serve. The redemptive process will be kept in mind, however, by the boards, committees and individuals who compile and certify lists of ministers.

Every minister's right to appeal decisions he considers unjust will be recognized. Each state or area organization is expected to provide a committee to which a minister can appeal decisions he considers unjust. The Advisory Committee of the Year Book Publication Committee will constitute a higher panel for appeal in regard to listing in the Ministers' Directory.

Neither the Year Book Publication Committee nor the Year Book editor can add a name to the Ministers' Directory until this action has been approved by the responsible state or area body. When the Year Book office receives a written request from a minister that his name be added to the Ministers' Directory, it must notify the appropriate state or area organization and await authorization to take any action.

Except for three conditions—death, receipt of an individual's written request that his name be deleted or inability of the Year Book Office to find an address—a name can be removed from the Ministers' Directory only at the direction of the responsible state or area office.

When the Year Book office receives authentic notification of the death of a minister, that minister's name can be removed as a matter of routine. The year his name is deleted from the Ministers' Directory the name of a deceased minister should appear in the Year Book's "In Memoriam" section.

The Year Book office can delete the name of a minister who submits a written request that his name be omitted from the Ministers' Directory. Before the deletion is made, however, the Year Book office is obligated to inform the individual as to the significance of his request and invite him to reconsider his decision to have his name removed. If the individual does not reply asking that his name be retained in the Ministers' Directory, the Year Book office should comply with his original request and notify the proper state or area office as well as the congregation or church agency the person might be serving.

If the address of a minister is not known and if neither the Year Book office nor the state or area office can learn the minister's address before the deadline for releasing the Ministers' Directory to the printer, his name will be deleted. Each minister is responsible for keeping the state or area office informed about his current address. The state or area office, in turn, is responsible for supplying accurate addresses to the Year Book office.

At least once a month ministerial changes, including changes of address and changes in classification of service, will be reported to the Year Book office by the state or area office. The Year Book office will furnish forms for these reports and will specify the symbols to be used in indicating the category of service of each minister.

Annually, the Year Book office will request agencies and institutions recognized by the International Convention to furnish lists of ministers on their staffs to the state or area authorities responsible for listing these ministers. The Year Book office will encourage agencies and institutions to keep the responsible state and area organizations informed about staff changes that would affect the Ministers' Directory.

Homes for the aging operated by the Christian Churches will be requested by the Year Book office to supply names of ministers who are residents to the state or area organizations responsible for the states in which they are located.

Undergraduate schools and seminaries and the responsible state or area organizations will be expected to work out a mutually-acceptable plan for the reporting of names of student ministers. The Year Book office will secure from the office of ministerial services of the United Christian Missionary Society a list of the Christian Churches' student ministers attending non-Disciples schools. This list will be checked against those submitted by the various state and area offices and, when it is necessary, additional endorsement will be sought. Neither the Year Book Publication Committee nor the editor of the Year Book will add the name of a student to the Ministers' Directory without the endorsement of the responsible state or area organization.

Annually, the Year Book office will submit to each state or area office a tentative alphabetical directory of ministers in that state or area. When this list has been corrected and validated by the state or area organization by a deadline set by the Year Book Publication Committee, it will be considered the final list for the Ministers' Directory that year. Only a confirmed change of address can be made after the Year Book office has received the validated list of ministers. To secure last-minute changes of address that will make the directory more accurate, the Year Book office will make a late check with credible sources like the Pension Fund of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) and the Disciples' international weekly, The Christian.

Ministers will be listed in the directory with appropriate descriptive symbols ("a," associate minister; "c," armed services chaplain; "ce," Christian Education (ministers of education, DRE's, etc.); "em," campus minister; "d," Disciple minister serving a non-Disciple of Christ congregation; "e," evangelist; "em," ecumenical ministry in city, state, national and world church agencies, Disciple minister with multiple denominational status; "g," general ministry in brotherhood city, state, national and world church agencies; "he," higher education; "ic," institutional chaplain; "m," missionary; "mm," minister of music; "ne," non-Disciple minister serving a local congregation; "op," in business, but preaching; in other occupation but preaching; "p," pastor of local congregation; "r," retired, retired missionary, retired but preaching; "s," college or seminary student; "z," others) beside their names.

Both in the Ministers' Directory and in the Statistical Reports, where the minister is listed with his congregation, the address given for a minister will be the most nearly accurate one available at a press deadline set by the Year Book Publication Committee. If the Year Book office receives a change of address after lists have been validated for the year, the new address will be confirmed with the proper state or area office before a correction is made.

Basic Assumptions in Regard to the Nature of the Church and the Ministry

General Observations

In any statement of the principles and procedures in regard to the listing of congregations and ministers in the Year Book of Christian Churches, certain assumptions are implied in regard to the nature of the church and the nature of the ministry. These are made out of necessity and are tentative, until other assumptions or premises take their place. It is important to remember that the Disciples of Christ are going through a dynamic, creative, transitional period. A part of the philosophy and rationale behind these principles and procedures is a tradition, beginning with an unstructured fellowship and moving increasingly to a more structured organization of interdependent relationships and vested responsibilities. Both in the implicit assumptions and in the explicit assertions there is a heritage of the past to which one naturally clings. There are the challenges and expectations that grow out of a changing world and society that imply new assumptions and new procedures. They are a reflection of the new image and concept of the nature of the church and the nature of the ministry. It should be remembered that the vitality of religion lies in its continuous reinterpretations, restatement and restructure, a process in part of rediscovery, reformation and restoration.

A. The Nature of the Church

The church is dynamic. It is not only what was divinely given and what it is at any one moment, but what it has developed and what it is intended to be. The church grows, renews and revives itself by keeping a healthy tension between continuity and change. The church is never so right as when it is willing to adapt its program so as to carry out in a better way its mission, never so right as when it is willing to change its structure to carry out more effectively its functions. The church is never so wrong as when it is blind to change and refuses to renew, reform and restructure itself. This is because its essence lies in its purpose, fellowship and mission and not in its pattern, organization and structure. The former may be expressed in manifold ways.

The church is ecumenical. It is not primarily a local congregation but a universal fellowship. It is one. It is interdependent, "a great community of communities," to use the words of Alexander Campbell. The deeper reality and nature of the church are found in its catholicity and ecumenicity rather than in its fragmented, local nature. The nature of the local church, the universal church in a particular place, is seen in its congregational freedom and responsibility. The interdependent unity of the various congregations is found in district, state, area, national and international agencies and organizations, which are the outreaching arms and servants of the churches. The locus and symbol of the Disciples of Christ in North America is the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), which authorizes and directs the nature and content of the Year Book.

B. The Nature of the Ministry

The Disciples of Christ share in the Reformation heritage and Protestant concept of "the priesthood of all believers." They do not accept some interpretations of apostolic succession or the Roman Catholic double standard of ethics and the division of Christians into two distinct classes—laity and clergy. Clergy (kleros) and laity (laos) in the New Testament refer to the same people. The former do not belong to a special order, nor the latter to only a recipient part of the congregation. Every Christian is called to view his occupation in the light of the Christian concept of vocation. The calling of the ministry, its full-time vocation, ordination, preparation and service eventuate in a practical and valid distinction between clergy and laity. The difference is in choice, aptitude, training, experience and acceptance by the church.

The nature of the ministry is integrally related to the nature of the church. No minister is independent or unrelated to the church. It is in the nurture of the church that God calls his own; it is in the fellowship of the congregation that the minister feels the "inner light," hears the "call" or discovers with wonderful awareness God has tapped him on the shoulder. It is in the context of the church that the ministry finds its meaning, purpose and relevance. More than this, the church must be alert to its responsibilities for being an "adequate and intelligent voice for God" in his high calling. The calling and ordaining of a minister is a cooperative experience in which God, the minister, the congregation, the state commission on the ministry and many agencies of the church are involved. The church shares with the minister in determining the validity of his call. The church is one. The mission is one. The ministry is one.

The Christian ministry is multiple, with a diversity of functions and areas of service. It is ecumenical as well as denominational. The banner of Christ under which the minister serves flies over every Christian community and church.

No minister is neutral. Granted the right of loyal criticism, he either believes in and supports inter-agency and brotherhood cooperation or he does not. One basic criterion of this is reporting to and supporting the International Convention of Christian Churches, which cooperates with the National and World Councils of Churches in the mission of the church. No one rules a minister out of agency life and support; by his own choice he is either in or out.

The Christian ministry is a free and responsible calling. Each minister has the right to choose the type of ministry and the area of service in which he can serve best. But he is not free to claim the support of agencies he repudiates and will not support. He shares the fruits and privileges of cooperation in proportion to his acceptance of the responsibilities and self-disciplines of cooperation.

Resolution No. 41

CONCERNING DISARMAMENT

WHEREAS, modern weapons have developed a power which threatens humanity's very existence, thus causing the thoughtful leaders of all nations to acknowledge that war is outmoded as a method for the settlement of international disputes; and

WHEREAS, the U. S. A. and the U. S. S. R. have agreed on a series of negotiating principles for general and complete disarmament, which eventually look towards a treaty that would:

- 1—eliminate all military forces except those required for internal security;
- 2—eliminate means of delivery of weapons of mass destruction and all stockpiles of nuclear, chemical and bacteriological materials;
- 3—abolish the organizations and institutions designed to organize the military efforts of states;
- 4—eliminate military training and close all military training institutions; and

WHEREAS, the negotiating principles of the U. S. A. and U. S. S. R. while guaranteeing to each nation forces sufficient for internal security also requires that the states shall support and provide manpower for a U. N. peace force; and

WHEREAS, the Congress has established on a permanent basis the U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency which will seek to develop principles and programs leading toward our declared goal of general and complete disarmament; and

WHEREAS, despite the agreement between the U. S. A. and U. S. S. R. on principles and goals, the nuclear arms race still continues with both nations testing new weapons and developing the means by which they will be delivered;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) assembled at Los Angeles, California, September 30–October 4, 1962, commends the United States and Soviet Governments for their agreement on negotiating principles that look to the elimination of all external military establishments, the abolition of war as a means of settling international disputes, and the establishment of a U. N. Peace force; and furthermore it endorses these principles as an urgent and immediate necessity not merely as distant goals; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that it commends the President and Congress of the United States for the establishment of the U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency and urges that this agency be given the resources that are essential for the task of developing principles and programs leading to general and complete disarmament; and,

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we express to the leaders of the nuclear powers, particularly the U. S. A. and U. S. S. R., our disappointment that nuclear testing in the atmosphere has been resumed, thus perpetuating and accelerating the arms race at a time when mutual confidence is required to commence serious negotiations leading to general and complete disarmament; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call upon the leaders of the nuclear powers to resume a moratorium on testing. This would have a symbolic value and indicate our serious intentions about disarmament. It also would offer relief to uncounted human beings from death and disease, which will result from fallout due to testing in the atmosphere;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we urge our members to give serious study to the proposition stated in this resolution and then communicate their view to the leaders of government in the U. S. A. and the U. S. S. R. We further urge our members to put principles into practice by:

1. interviewing candidates for public office regarding their views on disarmament;
2. investigating and then compiling for public distribution the voting records of Congressmen on disarmament issues;
3. organizing grass roots campaigns at election time to support otherwise qualified men who champion disarmament;
4. communicating their views to newspapers and members of Congress.

CONCERNING CIVIL DEFENSE

WHEREAS, the churches have been among the first to respond to the needs of victims of disaster—natural or man made—and since local churches and national church agencies are being asked to cooperate in the Government's program of civil defense, it is therefore imperative that all Christians consider their attitude toward this program; and,

WHEREAS, Christians ministering to those in need have traditionally kept themselves free from international politics even during time of war, thus permitting themselves to perform a ministry of mercy in a spirit of love free from the implications that these acts constituted an endorsement of a particular military or political strategy; and

WHEREAS, certain aspects of civil defense are humanitarian in character and comparatively free from international political overtones such as relief and rehabilitation efforts providing medical aid, food, clothing, and housing; though however, these humanitarian aspects of civil defense appear to be secondary to its primary role of providing strategic support for the cold war; and,

WHEREAS, policy pronouncements by government leaders indicate that the civil defense program is designed both as a means to protect people (fallout shelters, etc.) and as an instrument of cold war strategy to deter aggression, and it therefore becomes the obligation of Christian citizens to evaluate this program and determine whether it does in fact protect people in any meaningful way or whether in fact it is more likely to frighten the enemy into building up his own weapons of war and civil defense system rather than to deter him from aggression; and

WHEREAS, the ability of civil defense through a fallout shelter program to protect is conceded by the Government to be limited to "fallout" areas and not to provide protection in areas of direct hit or against firestorm; and

WHEREAS, the possibilities of even "fallout" protection are hardly reassuring in an all-out nuclear war when the following facts are considered:

- (1) that technological breakthroughs in weapons development may make useless shelters built on earlier assumptions about the destructive potential of weapons;
- (2) that the intensity of the enemy attack and the magnitude of his weapons cannot be forecast with any degree of assurance, thus making fallout shelter planning protection largely guesswork; and,
- (3) that even the few who survive must face life in a post-attack world where food and fiber very likely have been exposed to lethal doses of radiation;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), assembled at Los Angeles, California, September 30—

October 4, 1962, reluctantly concludes that in spite of some commendable humanitarian aspects, the civil defense program as presently constituted is an adjunct of the cold war that:

1. gives the people a false sense of security when the facts of nuclear war proclaim that there is no defense against such weapons except peace—as Presidents Kennedy and Eisenhower have themselves asserted;
2. stimulates fear and a war psychology in our own population as well as in the U. S. S. R., which may well feel compelled to develop a similar program.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we here affirm that our highest Christian witness at this time requires us as individuals and churches not to participate in the Civil Defense Program as presently constituted but rather to devote our time and resources to working for general and complete disarmament under the United Nations, as the most hopeful way of averting the catastrophe which will surely be upon us if we continue the drift towards nuclear war.

Resolution No. 43

CONCERNING THE ABOLITION OF CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS, the Christian gospel is a redemptive gospel and many of Christ's teachings lift up the idea of forgiveness of individuals, and

WHEREAS, punishment, when meted out with justice and with concern for the welfare of the offender, as well as for the protection of society, should be a means of discipline, reform and rehabilitation, and

WHEREAS, the possibility of rehabilitation is eliminated by the death penalty, and

WHEREAS, there is evidence that shows the death penalty itself is unequally applied, falling mainly on the poor, the friendless, the mentally unstable, the ignorant, and minority groups, while many other criminals with means escape execution, and there is always the possibility (as has been the case) of executing the innocent, and

WHEREAS, there is evidence to show that it is doubtful whether capital punishment serves as a deterrent to capital crimes,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: that we as the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) go on record as favoring a program of rehabilitation for criminal offenders rather than capital punishment, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that this convention call upon local congregations and members of Christian Churches to give the practice of capital punishment intelligent study, and that we urge the Department of Christian Action and Community Service of the United Christian Missionary Society to give further study to this matter and make the findings of the study available to the churches, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that copies of this resolution be sent to the governors of each state where capital punishment is still practiced, and that we urge State Conventions of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) in such states to consider action on this issue.

Resolution No. 44

CONCERNING A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT MAKING POSSIBLE PUBLIC PRAYERS AND BIBLE READING IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND LIKE PLACES OF ASSEMBLY

WHEREAS, the Christians of America have been shocked by the decision of the United States Supreme Court that the use of public prayer in public schools of America is in violation of the Constitution of the United States, and

WHEREAS, it has been decided by certain of the state courts that even the non-sectarian reading of passages from the Holy Bible is in like manner a violation of the Constitution of the United States, and

WHEREAS, this nation was founded upon belief in Almighty God and the dependence of his children upon His continued love and care, and

WHEREAS, the construction placed upon the Constitution of the United States in this matter gives it an effect far different from that intended at the time of the formation of this nation, and the adoption of our Constitution therefore.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Disciples of Christ assembled in International Convention at Los Angeles, California, now call upon all of the churches in America, and particularly, the Christian churches to face the new order imposed by this decision of the United States Supreme Court, holding unconstitutional the use of prayer in public schools and take immediate steps to make known to the members of the United States Senate and of the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States, the urgency to pass the necessary legislation to place before the states of America an amendment to the Constitution to make possible the acknowledgment in our public schools and places of public assembly our dependence upon our God, our faith in Him, and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we, particularly, call upon our own churches and members of our brotherhood to urge such legislation by resolutions, and by individual letters forwarded to members of the United States Senate and the House of Representatives, so that the principles upon which our government was founded, and which mark us as a Christian nation, may be restored and preserved.

Resolution No. 45

CONCERNING ACTIVITIES OF OUTSIDE GROUPS

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS, the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) considers crucial issues of our times and makes known our understanding of the will of God through resolutions which we adopt; and

WHEREAS, these crucial issues often are concerned with intellectual, political, social, economic and recreational areas which have effects on various groups outside of our churches, brotherhood agencies, and organizations affiliated with the International Convention; and

WHEREAS, we believe that outside groups should in turn have an opportunity to present their viewpoints to us,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that interested groups outside of churches, Brotherhood agencies, and organizations affiliated with the International Convention, be permitted to present their viewpoints to this Convention in ways allowed and subject to controls to be recommended by the Board of Directors of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) and adopted by the International Convention.

Resolution No. 46

REPORT RE RESOLUTION NO. 47, KANSAS CITY, 1961, “CONCERNING CONVERSATIONS TOWARD UNION”

In accordance with the directive of the Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) at Kansas City, Missouri, in 1961, the Unity Commission makes this report to this Assembly in Los Angeles.

The Commission has met twice since it was instituted under the directive of the Assembly to the Council on Christian Unity. The first full meeting of the Commission was held last February in Cleveland, Ohio, along with the Commission on Christian Unity of the United Church of Christ.

This first meeting, lasting a day and a half, was devoted to becoming acquainted with the various backgrounds of the two churches. Papers were read giving the history and outlook of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the Congregational-Christian Church, the negotiations which had led to their merger into the United Church of Christ, and of our own church. Ample time was provided for questions and discussion.

Although it is impossible to relate a detailed account of all that was said, certain facts should be recorded and understood by all Disciples. First, we have no monopoly of interest in Christian unity. The United Church of Christ thinks of itself as a “uniting” church, and is zealous in the cause of Christian unity. It was evident to all at Cleveland that the United Church is a vital, dedicated, sister church in the Great Church of Jesus Christ. These fellow Christians mean business about the oneness of the Church at every level, and have the faith to go ahead, establishing their unity at whatever level is immediately possible, recognizing problems and differences, but trusting the good will of their brethren and the leading of the Spirit to increase and perfect that unity.

Secondly, we are impressed by the genuine commitment of the United Church to freedom within responsibility. Every effort has been made to preserve congregational freedom, as well as the freedom of the pulpit. No one at Cleveland seemed to feel that his former church has been made to give up anything which was held precious, or that anything germane to the Christian gospel had been sacrificed. Instead, we were impressed by the way in which the members of their Commission, whatever their earlier background and membership, felt that their merger had already brought fruits of enrichment and a kindling of spirit, which are foretastes of the larger harvest Christian unity may bring.

In our turn we sought to convince their Commission of the pledge and dedication of our people toward Christian unity, of our prayer for a larger obedience to Christ, and of our conviction that the unity of the Church is found in this centering of obedience in Him.

The Commission met again in May in St. Louis to explore our own thinking and to seek our own unanimity of mind. We sought to assess what the spirit of our own people is toward Christian unity, and to delineate areas where we all need greater understanding, to discuss ways in which correct information may be available and sensitivity to the leading of God be augmented. We are convinced that all of us need to return to a fresh, unprejudiced, and comprehensive study of the Scriptures, treating the Bible as a living word which can bring us into a relationship to God by which we may know His will and purpose for us and for His church today.

The two Commissions will meet again this Fall. We think of these meetings as being in the nature of conversations to find an answer to the question: "Should these churches unite?" If and when we reach the place where we are convinced that it is the will of God that such a uniting take place, we then shall report to this Convention, asking the authority to develop a plan of union.

In our meeting in St. Louis we were informed that an invitation would be received by our church to join with the Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopal churches, and the United Church of Christ in the conversation looking toward union of these bodies. This conversation is known as the Consultation on Church Union. Elsewhere there will be a recommendation from the Council on Christian Unity concerning this invitation. Our Commission believes that this participation will be worthwhile, and that it will not interfere with our conversation with the United Church of Christ. Indeed, it may make this conversation easier and produce quicker results since in the process of discussion with the other churches our own similarities and viewpoints will become all the more clear. We endorse the recommendation that this invitation be accepted.

Resolution No. 47

CONCERNING THE RELEVANCE OF THE GOSPEL TO ALL OF THE PROBLEMS OF MEN

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

Believing that the Incarnation means that God has revealed Himself in our flesh and in our history and has shown His concern for all aspects of the life of men;

Reading in the New Testament that Jesus Christ, in the days of His earthly ministry, concerned Himself for all of each man and for all of mankind, ministering to all of their needs, physical, mental, spiritual, and sought for them justice, forgiveness, and a more complete obedience to God;

And convinced that the Church, as the Body of Christ, is expected to manifest the same concern for man's obedience to God in all relationships with his fellowmen, parental, educational, political, economic, and religious;

THEREFORE: We reaffirm the right of each minister of the Gospel, each local congregation, the State Associations of Churches, this International Convention, the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America, the World Council of Churches, and all other responsible Christian bodies to speak their understanding of the relevance of the Gospel to all of the problems of men, in humility and under the judgment of God, but with confidence and power, remembering that loyalty to God's commands takes precedence over all human loyalties.

Action—VOTED approval by the Convention Assembly of the affirmative report of the Committee on Recommendations.

Resolution No. 48

CONCERNING THE ORGANIZATION AND SUPPORT OF LOCAL COUNCILS OF CHURCHES

INASMUCH AS the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) were born out of a true passion for the unity of Christ's Church;

INASMUCH AS most of our churches have been concerned to manifest this unity not only at the national and world levels of the church but also in the local situation where the problems are most concrete;

AND INASMUCH AS both the National Council of Churches in the United States of America and the World Council of Churches are manifesting an increasing concern for local ecumenicity and calling the various portions of the body of Christ to a new sense of responsibility for the showing forth of the given unity of all in each place;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that this International Convention Assembly urge each local congregation of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) to do all within its power to help organize a local council of churches where one does not exist and to support the local council of churches and its state council of churches by prayer, by regular and adequate gifts of money, and by the sharing of the time and abilities of its minister and its laity in the leadership of these councils.

The Committee on Recommendations recommended that Resolution No. 48 be approved.

CONCERNING SUPPORT OF NATIONAL AND WORLD COUNCILS OF CHURCHES

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

INASMUCH AS the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) were born out of a passion for the unity of Christ's body and have kept that passion alive throughout their history;

INASMUCH AS we were among the charter members of the Federal Council of Churches, the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America, and the World Council of Churches;

AND, INASMUCH AS our delegates have served and are serving faithfully on the boards, and members of our brotherhood have held and are holding responsible places of leadership in the employed staffs and in the voluntary officiates of the National and World Councils;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we urge every congregation of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) to include in its budget support of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America and the World Council of Churches, using that method recommended by its state organization to determine its fair share of support, and remembering that a 12½% increase over 1961-62 is needed for the National Council and a 47% increase over 1961-62 is needed by the World Council if they are to be able to discharge the duties that have been placed upon them by their member churches.

The Committee on Recommendations recommended that Resolution No. 49 be approved as amended.

Resolution No. 50

CONCERNING ACCEPTANCE OF THE INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE "CONSULTATION ON CHURCH UNION"

INASMUCH AS this Convention has gone on record many times in the past in favor of conversations and consultations looking toward the unity of Christ's church that has been divided by the schisms of men;

INASMUCH AS the International Convention meeting in Kansas City, Missouri, September 29–October 4, 1961, through Resolution No. 47 authorized the Council on Christian Unity to appoint a Commission (the personnel and size of which to be decided by the Council on Christian Unity) to carry on such conversations not only with the United Church of Christ but with any others putting forward a serious and responsible proposal for union which the Council felt should be considered;

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

INASMUCH AS the Council on Christian Unity has now received an invitation to send nine delegates to the Consultation on Church Union which grew out of the sermon preached by Dr. Eugene Carson Blake in Grace Cathedral, San Francisco, on December 4, 1960;

AND INASMUCH AS the United Church of Christ, with whom we are now in conversation looking toward possible union, has already appointed delegates to this consultation and attended its first meeting;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we reaffirm our action taken in Resolution No. 47 in Kansas City and urge the Council on Christian Unity to convey to the Consultation on Church Union our joy at the receiving of this invitation, our acceptance of it, and our deep, historic, and abiding concern for the unity of Christ's church.

Resolution No. 51

A CALL TO RESPONSIBLE STUDY OF THE ISSUES IN RELIGION AND PUBLIC EDUCATION

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS: There is now a serious public discussion concerning the proper place of religion in the public schools, and

WHEREAS: There is also a current discussion of the legality of the use of federal funds to aid parochial as well as public schools, and

WHEREAS, The place of religious ceremony such as prayer, Bible reading, and other religious observances within the public school is in process of re-examination by state and federal courts and legislative action, and

WHEREAS: A proposal called "Shared Time" is being given serious public discussion by public school administrators, and eminent Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish leaders, and

WHEREAS: The "Shared Time" proposal is essentially:

1. That church-organized and controlled schools be invited to plan with public school administrators for the education of all youth in a community,
2. That each church or group of churches decide which of the state-required school subjects it deems to be "religiously sensitive" and so is a subject to be taught in that church's school,
3. That the public school be a "storehouse," providing instruction in those subjects judged to be "religiously neutral" for those students attending a church sponsored school and all subjects for those students not attending church sponsored schools,
4. That public funds be used only for public schools and church funds provide budget for church schools.

WHEREAS: There are advantages and disadvantages in this and other proposals, and it behooves the Christian Churches and their leaders to make a careful study of the issues involved,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention Assembly meeting at Los Angeles, California, September 30 to October 4, 1962:

affirms that education of children and youth is a responsibility of the family, the church, the school, and the community; expresses its deep appreciation and continuing support for the high quality and democratic characteristics of the public education system; declares its belief in the principle of voluntary support for churches and church-sponsored programs;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call upon our churches and our agencies' leadership to give careful study to the basic philosophy of the relation of religion to public education and to scrutinize any proposal for community or parochial schools of religious education in the light of these affirmations; that serious study be made in order that we may clarify our own judgments as to the place of religious ceremony in public supported schools including the consideration of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America to make clear the meaning of the First Amendment to that Constitution.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Assembly call upon the Department of Christian Education of The United Christian Missionary Society to provide resource materials for the study of the current issues involved in religion and public education.

Resolution No. 52

CONCERNING RACIAL INTEGRATION

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS we believe that God hath made of one all people; that he shows no partiality and is no respecter of persons;

WHEREAS it is imperative in the Gospel that there be no segregation or discrimination on the basis of color, class or condition; for "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

WHEREAS we believe the Church is the body of Christ and all inclusive in its nature, and commissioned to ever bear living witness to the spirit of its Lord;

WHEREAS we believe that the Church is "essentially, intentionally and constitutionally one," and from our historic beginning have been strong exponents of Christian Unity;

WHEREAS the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) through its Assemblies has for more than twenty-five years spoken on the following matters related to racial discrimination:

1936—opposed segregation and discrimination on the basis of race as it related to the arrangement for future conventions:

1946—adopted as its own a statement entitled "The Church and Race Relations" explicitly renouncing the pattern of segregation in race relations as a violation of the Gospel of love and brotherhood, and renouncing segregation in membership, fellowship, worship, service, and employment:

1954—approved the United States Supreme Court decision relative to public school segregation; and adopted as its own the statement of the National Council of Churches that "we shall work for a non-segregated church in a non-segregated society," and approved the statement "That we call upon our churches, our agencies, and our institutions, to re-examine themselves in light of the implications of Christ's gospel and to initiate and encourage voluntary, racially inclusive, community groups to plan for full compliance with the gospel of Christ, as well as definite techniques for implementation within their own bodies."

1957—approved a resolution stating: "We agree upon the sinfulness of racial discrimination and forced segregation both within the church and in society as a whole. Churches, however, are now faced with the fact that their responsibility is one of moving from principle to practice within their own local situation. Local churches should make unmistakably clear the witness of their individual congregation as to the inclusive nature of their fellowships. The congregation should make clear that they can neither condone nor support any activities of individuals, groups or organizations that initiate or perpetuate racial discrimination or tend to incite communities to violence, hatred, and lawlessness. Administrative officials and boards of trustees of brotherhood organizations and agencies should review at the earliest possible time their own policies and practices with a view to bringing them in line with stated brotherhood conviction regarding racial integration."

1957—also approved a separate resolution which said in part, "That we discourage our churches in areas of racial change and transition from selling out and relocating—where the move has been based on the change in the racial or ethnic character of the population, and encourage our churches to remain on the field and bear fearless witness to the true nature of the Church. That we, as a brotherhood, provide counselling service, and, if needed, financial support to churches confronted with a population change in racial or ethnic character, in order to help the church remain on the field and weather the transition period."

WHEREAS, as a Convention we have consistently opposed discrimination and segregation in all aspects of community life as well as within the church for the past twenty-six years; and

WHEREAS, within this period of years some of our churches, colleges and benevolent homes, agencies and other institutions, corporations and organizations have made great strides in the removal of racial barriers, and many of our churches, colleges, benevolent homes, agencies and other institutions, corporations and organizations are still following patterns and policies that perpetuate racial discrimination and segregation;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

That we commend all in our brotherhood; our churches, our colleges, our benevolent homes, our agencies and other institutions, our corporations and organizations, who have adopted policies and practices of no discrimination on the basis of color, class or condition;

That we commend all persons in the above mentioned groups who have provided leadership for significant progress in the area of race relations.

That we ask all organizations and agencies affiliated with the International Convention of Christian Churches to eliminate any remaining policies or practices that support segregation in their structure, membership or service.

REGARDING PROCEDURES FOR SUBMITTING AND VOTING ON CONVENTION RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, the primary purpose of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) is to consider resolutions, which when adopted, carry great weight in church affairs

WHEREAS, resolutions should express, as nearly as possible, the majority view of the individual congregations of the Christian Church

WHEREAS, it is impossible for many churches to send delegates, particularly laymen, to International Conventions because of the cost and employment obligations

WHEREAS, many resolutions, submitted for adoption, are never presented to the Convention because of insufficient time

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that for all future International Conventions

- (1) All congregations be notified of the deadline for submission of resolutions two months prior to the deadline,
- (2) Resolutions be submitted to the permanent office of the International Convention five (5) months prior to Convention meeting time,
- (3) All resolutions, regardless of their content, along with ballots, be printed and distributed to all congregations of the Christian Church by a date not less than three (3) months prior to the Convention,
- (4) Voting be by individual congregations (majority vote) using mail ballots, with each congregation having one vote for each fifty (50) members or fraction thereof, to be submitted to the permanent Convention headquarters not later than two weeks prior to the Convention,

- (5) A resolution be officially adopted by the Convention when approved by fifty-one (51) or more per cent of the mail ballots submitted.

Resolution No. 56 CONCERNING SENIOR CITIZENS

WHEREAS, The meaningful living of our senior citizens is of Christian concern, and

WHEREAS, There is an attempt by Government and society to segregate our aged citizens with respect to employment, health, housing and recreation, and

WHEREAS, Freedom, individual liberty, and self responsibility must be preserved and should not terminate at age 65 or any other age, and

WHEREAS, A national compulsory health aid plan for the aged, without regard to the needs of the individual, will further segregate the aged and remove them from the main stream of society, and

WHEREAS, The Commandment to honor one's Father and Mother is basic to all religious teachings

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) in annual Convention assembled September 30–October 4, 1962, at Los Angeles, California:

That this Convention affirm the principle that our Senior Citizens remain a part of our society and not be segregated in employment, health, housing or recreation, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we affirm that the care of our needy aged is primarily the responsibility of family, church and community, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That, with concern for the preservation of individual liberty and freedom, any Federal Government plan which segregates the aged citizen from his community and provides medical aid without regard to his needs and circumstances is inconsistent with Christian principle.

Resolution No. 57

CONCERNING A CLARIFYING AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION SPECIFICALLY DEFINING THE FIRST AMENDMENT'S PROHIBITION TO AN "ESTABLISHMENT OF RELIGION" AS A PROHIBITION OF ANY ESTABLISHMENT OF A DENOMINATION, SECT, OR ASSOCIATION

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court decision of June 25, 1962, declared unconstitutional the circulation of any officially approved prayer for use in public schools, and

WHEREAS, this decision has thrown doubt on the legality of numerous other forms of recognition of deity by the governments of the nation; and

WHEREAS, this decision lends support to the secularization of the government, by implication, thinking and acting as if God does not exist; and

WHEREAS, we believe the recent decision contraverts the intent of the Founding Fathers, and of the majority of present day citizens, to wit that the prohibition was designed to prevent the establishment of any sect of religion, or any aid to any denomination; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court seems to have decided that aid to religion, non-sectarian, is unconstitutional; and

WHEREAS, the implications, and complications arising from the recent decision are far wider than the subject of religion and the public schools.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Disciples of Christ assembled in International Convention at Los Angeles, California, call upon all the churches in America, and particularly the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) to note this far-reaching, secularizing, decision; and that the Assembly request the U. S. Congress to initiate legislation to submit to the several States an amendment clarifying the First Amendment and clearly defining the First Amendment as prohibiting only the establishment of any denomination, church, sect, or organized religious association; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we urge the churches and our brotherhood to urge the Congress to adopt such legislation by writing as constituents to their respective Congressmen requesting their support of such legislation.

Resolution No. 59

FREQUENCY OF ASSEMBLIES OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

WHEREAS, One of the great values of an Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches held at annual intervals has been the maturing of our Brotherhood in its institutional life and procedures, in its self-consciousness as a Christian fellowship, and in its unity of purpose and action;

WHEREAS, Other structures, recently created by the Assembly and its reporting agencies, now carry on this maturation process so effectively that Assemblies could be held at less frequent intervals with no loss to this historical value;

WHEREAS, The permanent office of the International Convention and its departments now provide an excellent continuity for our corporate life and fellowship as well as our sense of unity;

WHEREAS, Other mature communions have demonstrated that national assemblies can be held at less than annual intervals without loss of efficiency in their corporate life and work;

WHEREAS, Assemblies of the International Convention held at less than annual intervals would effect, for both agencies and local congregations, great savings in money and leadership time, which are sorely needed and could be used for the mission of the church in caring for unmet needs which so trouble our consciences,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the International Convention of Christian Churches hold biennial Assemblies beginning in 1966 instead of annual Assemblies,

CONCERNING SUPPORT OF THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

WHEREAS, since 1816 the American Bible Society has been committed to one great task, that of providing the Scriptures at home and abroad, and

WHEREAS, this work has been done on behalf of America's churches, our own included, and

WHEREAS, the record of achievement is unsurpassed, with an unprecedented distribution of 24,183,024 copies in 1961, and

WHEREAS, supplying the Scriptures in proper forms and languages, for missionaries and churches overseas, for the blind, the impoverished and the institutionalized in this country, is a responsibility which no communion can meet adequately itself,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that once again we express our appreciation for this record of accomplishment, and hereby urge our churches to support the American Bible Society by setting aside a contribution each year, either as a special offering or by including this missionary cause in the regular church budget, that thereby our communion may provide its fair share of support that the Scriptures may speak the message of God's redemption through Jesus Christ our Lord.

COMMENDING THE SPEECH OF THE HON. SENATOR STEPHEN M. YOUNG

Subject: The speech of the Honorable Senator Stephen M. Young (Ohio), entitled, "They Don't Think Much of Schwarz Down Under," delivered to the United States Senate and recorded August 7, 1962 in the Congressional Record Vol. 108, No. 137, page 14732:

WHEREAS, Many members of the Christian Churches are concerned and disturbed by the rightwingers who are haranguing the American people under the guise of Christianity, and

WHEREAS, Many members of the Christian Churches are disturbed by the leadership of Fred Charles Schwarz, Billy James Hargis, Robert Welch and others of their kind engaged in the so-called Christian Anti-Communist Crusade, a detriment to true Christianity:

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that this Convention go on record commending the Honorable Senator Stephen M. Young for his diligent fight against those who would destroy our country by their mercenary profiting by preying on the fears of the unwary.

The Committee on Recommendations recommended that Resolution No. 61 be referred to the Department of Christian Action and Community Service of the United Christian Missionary Society for consideration and study of the basic concerns included in the resolution.

Action—VOTED that the recommendation of the Committee on Recommendations for referral be sustained.

Resolution No. 62

CONCERNING NON-DISCRIMINATION IN HOUSING

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS, racial discrimination and segregation are among the most glaring inconsistencies of our Christian and democratic affirmation of faith, heaping indignities and injustices upon some of our brethren without regard to their individual worth, character or potential contribution to the community, and

WHEREAS, the rapid ending of discrimination and segregation in this decade is not only a requirement of Christian conscience, but prerequisite to elemental justice and decency in this country and to brotherhood and peace in the world as well, and

WHEREAS, closed housing practices based on racial and religious prejudice compose one of the major obstacles to an integrated society where persons of minority and majority groups have equal rights; and

WHEREAS, closed housing practices still continue in many areas of our country.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) assembled at Los Angeles, California, September 30-October 4, 1962, ask the President of the United States to sign an Executive Order barring discrimination in all federally aided housing.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call on all local churches to:

- 1—Participate in and stimulate Open Housing Conferences on the local and state levels.
- 2—Study the housing needs of members of minority group persons within their communities.
- 3—Encourage their members to declare their position for non-discriminatory housing practices by the signing of Open Housing Covenants.
- 4—Encourage their members when selling or renting their property, to do so on a non-discriminatory basis.

Resolution No. 63

CONCERNING SUPPORT OF LEGISLATION IMPLEMENTING REHABILITATION OF FAMILIES ON RELIEF

WHEREAS, encouraging the strengthening and developing of services to families and their children on relief for the purpose of rehabilitation is desirable and has been demonstrated as effective in some communities, and

WHEREAS, enabling families to maintain themselves with dignity and self-respect as self-supporting units in society is a Christian concern,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) assembled in Los Angeles, California, September 30-October 4, 1962, goes on record as follows:

1. That we call on the Department of Christian Action and Community Service to encourage and give its full support to legislation designed to implement the rehabilitation of families on relief, and to work closely with private and public agencies now implementing this philosophy.
2. That we encourage local churches to study the welfare services in their communities in order to strengthen rehabilitation programs.

Resolution No. 64

CONCERNING APPROVAL OF THE SUPREME COURT ACTION REGARDING PRAYER IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS the Supreme Court of the United States ruled in its June 25, 1962 decision on Engel v. Vitale that "in this country it is no part of the business of government to compose official prayers for any group of the American people to recite as part of a religious program carried on by the government" and "It is neither sacrilegious nor antireligious to say that each separate government in this country should stay out of the business of writing or sanctioning official prayers and leave that purely religious function to the people themselves and to those the people choose to look to for religious guidance," and

WHEREAS this ruling is criticized by people who misunderstood it as an attack on religion, or by others who are not committed to the principle of separation of church and state, or who wish to discredit the court because of its stand on other issues, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that this Convention approve the action of the Supreme Court in Engel v. Vitale, that we commend the court's defense of the rightful role of the church from encroachment by the state and call upon our people to study this decision prayerfully and to defend the specific ruling vigorously.

Resolution No. 65

CONCERNING SEGREGATION IN BROTHERHOOD COLLEGES

(As amended by the Committee on Recommendations)

WHEREAS, the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) passed a resolution supporting a non-segregated church in a non-segregated society in its Portland Convention; and

WHEREAS, a number of states such as Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Texas, Georgia, and Tennessee have, to some degree, integrated their state institutions of higher learning; and

WHEREAS, member colleges of the Board of Higher Education of the Disciples of Christ are members of Unified Promotion and receive money from the agency which is supported by all churches of the Brotherhood; and

WHEREAS, the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) needs to put into practice its teachings on brotherhood to be a more powerful influence in World Missions;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) commend those Brotherhood colleges which have integrated and ask the board of trustees, faculties and student bodies of Christian colleges which have not integrated to take immediate steps to open their doors to all qualified students without regard to race, to include in their programs of recruitment the recruiting of Negro students; and to make available to all students, without regard to race, all the facilities of the colleges.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we ask the Board of Higher Education of the Disciples of Christ to use its influence to help its member institutions remove from their policies of admission any barrier due to race and to use the services of the Board in recruiting and employing qualified Negroes on the faculties and staffs of its member institutions.

Resolution No. 66

CELEBRATING THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, 1963 is the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation, this century of freedom should be celebrated by all church bodies in this country.

WHEREAS, the National Council of Churches is calling the attention of all of its members to this anniversary, we should set plans for our celebration in motion; seminars, presentations, dramas and addresses may be programmed.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Program Committee of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) plan a fitting program for the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation.

Resolution No. 67

CONCERN FOR MISSISSIPPI CRISIS

WHEREAS, Christian people everywhere believe in human rights, order and justice;

WHEREAS, Christians have a concern of love and redemption for every man regardless of position or circumstances;

WHEREAS, Our nation is undergirded by Christian principles and functions within a system of democracy where law and order are established facts;

WHEREAS, As a Christian Assembly of responsible people there is currently a need to express our concern for a way of life that may potentially be threatened by current actions of certain public leaders;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) express its concern to the officials of the state of Mississippi and appeal to their sense of decency and respect for law, order and principles of Christianity and fair play in the current crisis situation,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) deplores the defiance of Federal Court orders by the officials of the state of Mississippi and encourages the U.S. Department of Justice in its efforts to secure compliance to the federal laws in all states including Mississippi.

Chaplaincy Endorsement Commission of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)

William R. Vivrett, Chairman, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
Carl M. Boyd, Secretary
221 Ohmer Avenue, Indianapolis 19, Indiana. P. O. Box 19136

PURPOSE

For many years a requirement for the military chaplaincy; Army, Navy, and Air Force, together with the Veterans Administration, has been an endorsement by a recognized Communion.

In recent years, with the expansion of the chaplaincy into institutional fields, such as hospital, correctional and industrial, demands have been made by such national and state governments, and other bodies, for similar endorsement by a recognized endorsing body of a recognized Communion.

Standards are set by these organizations such as age, education, training, and general fitness. A quota system is used by the military to provide equitable representation of each communion, based on the communion's strength in the U. S. A., and their need for chaplains.

The Commission on Chaplaincy Endorsement is charged by Convention Action to endorse only such men as shall be representative of the highest quality of our ministers for these exacting tasks, and to retain such relations with our chaplains as will permit it to withdraw such endorsement should any prove unworthy, or to be found undesirable for such duty.

In the 1961 International Convention held at Kansas City, the function of the Commission was again enlarged to include the endorsement of qualified candidates of the Disciples of Christ who are considering service in the capacity of Directors of Religious Education, and other religious workers at a professional level, serving with the Armed Forces of our Nation.

ANNUAL REPORT

July 1, 1961, to June 30, 1962

The Commission is appointed annually by the president of the International Convention, with the concurrence of the Board of Directors, and operates under such general rules of procedure and policies as are set forth by the Board of Directors. It serves on a voluntary basis.

The Commission is charged with the responsibility of selecting chaplains for the Army, Air Force (including Civil Air Patrol), Navy, Veterans Administration, and other chaplaincies of whatever kind which require a Brotherhood endorsement, who are well qualified by training and experience, and are above reproach in their personal lives, for these exacting ministries.

The Commission considers the endorsement a privilege granted the chaplain through the Communion of which he is a part, and not a right. It therefore has the authority to withdraw such an Ecclesiastical Endorsement at any time should a chaplain prove unworthy of this trust, change his religious affiliations, or be found undesirable for such duty.

The Commission shares the responsibility with the branch of military service, or other organizations which require chaplains, to determine standards, such as age, education, special training, and general fitness, to provide the highest type leadership possible for a spiritual ministry to the men and women in their care. It seeks also to retain the closest of ties on behalf of the Brotherhood with the chaplains as they serve in their specialized ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
CARL M. BOYD,
Secretary

Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships

of the International Convention

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Colorado Springs Assembly of the International Convention, 1923, approved a resolution calling for "the appointment of a permanent Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships to which shall be submitted all the budgets of the cooperating agencies. When such budgets shall have been reviewed and approved by the Commission, they shall be recommended to the churches. Full report of the actions of this Commission shall be made to the succeeding International Convention for its review and approval. . . . We further recommend that this Commission shall consist of twelve members, none of whom shall be an employee of any of the cooperating agencies. . . ."

It was recommended "that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships, when appointed, shall ask the cooperating agencies to be governed in submitting their budget askings by the following principles:

"1. Budget askings should be based upon the needs of the field, and cooperating agencies may accompany all proposed budgets with statements and surveys to support their askings."

2. It was recommended "in the case of emergencies or crises arising within the fiscal year affecting any of the cooperating agencies, that a special session of the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships, in conjunction with a special session of the Administrative Committee of the International Convention, may be called at the expense of the agencies asking for such a meeting."

The Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships has functioned each year since 1923. The wisdom of constituting this Commission has been demonstrated through the universal acceptance of the guidance of the Commission by all agencies reporting directly or indirectly to the International Convention; also by the churches who recognize that appeals for funds for causes which have been approved by the Commission have been studied and carefully weighed as to their relative importance. Thus, good balance has been maintained in the solicitation and expenditure of funds contributed by local congregations for the total work of the Disciples of Christ.

- 3—The request from the Christian Churches of Kentucky for approval to publish a statement in their state paper and other circulars regarding the emergency need for the Ravenna, Kentucky, Church, which was destroyed by cyclone, along with parsonage, on June 9, 1961, asking churches and individuals in Kentucky to assist with contributions for the Ravenna Church emergency.

VOTED approval.

COMMISSION ON BUDGETS AND PROMOTIONAL
RELATIONSHIPS
ANNUAL REPORT

- 4—Recommended by the Commission on Brotherhood Finance that the following revision be made:

That 10 new colleges and seminaries in Unified Promotion in light of actual receipts for 1959-60, hold to the allocation of March, 1961, with the exception of Christian Theological Seminary and Jarvis Christian College. Christian Theological Seminary to be increased to $75,450 and Jarvis to $31,000 for 1961-62. Jarvis is recommended to be increased to $32,500 for 1962-63.

VOTED approval.

- 5—The following request supersedes action in No. 4 above regarding the allocation to Christian Theological Seminary. The Executive Committee of the Commission on Brotherhood Finance, later supported by the entire Commission, recommended that

“The 1961-62 allocation to Christian Theological Seminary be raised to $81,000 and 1962-63 to $89,000

“To make the 1961-62 allocation to Hiram College $26,000 and 1962-63, $28,000.”

VOTED approval.

- 6—Recommended by the Commission on Brotherhood Finance that the following revision be approved for allocations to the five colleges in Missouri:

VOTED approval.

- 7—Upon request to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships from the Disciples Divinity House, University of Chicago, the following increase in askings for operational funds was approved by mail:

1962-63 from $16,000 to $20,000

VOTED approval.

Joint Meeting with Commission on Brotherhood Finance for Hearing on Week of Compassion.

Spencer P. Austin of Unified Promotion, which promotes the Week of Compassion, reported. He stated that the Week of Compassion is in an anomalous position. It is not in Unified Promotion, but operates under the egis of the International Convention. State Secretaries are automatically promoters within their states and, therefore, Unified Promotion has a stake in promotion of the fund. He also reported that upon recommendation by the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships, the causes of the Committee on Military and Veterans Services and Pensions for Chaplains had been transferred to the United Society and the Pension Fund, respectively.

*This action supersedes amounts authorized in No. 2 above.

According to Resolution No. 33 of the Kansas City Convention, the Week of Compassion now operates in an entirely new relationship. The transfers do not add to funds to either the United Society or the Pension Fund, but are merely service projects assigned along with financial allocations to support them.

Note: Approval of Askings of Week of Compassion for 1963 appears later in these minutes.

Hearings

National Benevolent Association

President Orval D. Peterson, Hobart Fosher, Treasurer, John Norris, Auditor, and Leslie G. Heuston, Resource Director, of the National Benevolent Association appeared before the entire Commission regarding their report. Attention was called to the following highlights:

- 1—Askings from churches are, in some instances, related to new Homes and new facilities. The Kansas Christian Home is open now and is receiving gifts. Hospital facilities have been dedicated in California. This is one of the most expensive phases of new development in Homes. Both pressure for hospital facilities and new Homes create urgent problems for the NBA. The NBA is studying all of these pressures. The cottage center at Santa Cruz has outgrown its original plan; the churches of Southern California have established their own Board with NBA members serving on it. The NBA is not financially obligated.
- 2—The National Benevolent Association faces greatly increased costs which are uncontrollable, such as printing, increased services, and requirements caused by continually rising state standards, e.g., registered nurses must be on the staff; guaranteed amounts must be set aside to hospitalize guests; costs for world outreach in many states are allocated to the National Benevolent Association without noticeable compensating return.
- 3—The National Benevolent Association is moving into new offices with the Christian Board of Publication in the fall of 1962 on a cost basis. This may be more expensive than present office costs.
- 4—Estimated receipts for the current year are $1,020,000 instead of the $1,330,000 approved.
- 5—During the first year of operation under a centralized budget, the NBA faced some misunderstanding in that some churches thought that "centralized budget" meant participation in Unified Promotion.
- 6—The National Benevolent Association is negotiating with Unified Promotion looking to possible membership.
- 7—Some state Homes are in process of changing their constitution to apply for old age assistance.
- 8—The greatest need is handicapped children, distressed family situations, etc.
- 9—The present guests include 507 children, 711 aged persons, or a total of 1,218.

Christian College of Georgia

Barton A. Dowdy, Dean, appeared before the Commission. Problems of the Christian College of Georgia were discussed. The College is considering membership in Unified Promotion.

COMMISSION ON BUDGETS AND PROMOTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS ANNUAL REPORT

Students interested in Christian vocation live in the dormitory facilities.

The Christian College of Georgia still owes between $41,000 and $42,000 on three properties purchased since the original site and building were obtained.

Scholarships are offered.

About 87 churches from Georgia are supporting.

There is a small committee in Georgia that is responsible for promotion. The operational budget is $50,000. Churches are asked for all but about $10,000 of this, which is provided through fees and property.

Christmount Christian Assembly

Howard Kester, Executive Secretary, and Herman Strietmann, President, appeared before the Commission. They reported the acquisition of two new buildings at a total cost of approximately $20,000. At least one-half of this is being financed through a loan from the Board of Church Extension.

Income last year was nearly $9,000 with $6,500 coming from churches. For the current year, it is estimated that churches will contribute about $5,000 and individuals $8,000. Christmount is working toward a year-round program and each year shows an increasing number of conferences and group meetings.

Support comes from nine Southeastern states with approximately half of these providing the major gifts.

National Christian Missionary Convention

Emmett J. Dickson, Executive Secretary, appeared before the Commission. He reported that in accordance with terms of the merger of their work on church development, evangelism, and Christian education with the United Christian Missionary Society, that all moneys, special offerings and special day offerings are supposed to go directly to Unified Promotion.

The major work of the National Christian Missionary Convention is now the holding of an Annual Assembly attended by approximately 1,000.

Disciples Divinity House, University of Chicago

W. B. Blakemore, Dean, appeared in behalf of the Disciples Divinity House. This institution has been confronted with a sizable increase in tuition costs from the University of Chicago. The new amount of tuition will be \$1,100 for the B.D. student. The Disciples Divinity House pays about $\frac{2}{3}$ of the tuition cost.

All church income is received from Illinois.

The College of the Bible

Riley B. Montgomery, President, and Charles E. Dietze, Vice President, appeared in behalf of The College of the Bible. This institution is in Unified Promotion. However, a hearing was granted as a courtesy.

Indications are that there is a possibility of a student increase next year.

$2,748,137.90 has been committed on the Centennial Development program. $133,370 of this has come in since June 30.

Christian Board of Publication

Wilbur H. Cramblet, President, appeared in behalf of the Christian Board of Publication. He answered questions regarding the Bethany Press, indicating that the Bethany Press is operated as a part of the Christian Board as its wholesale division.

Dr. Cramblet gave a report on their new building, now under erection and announced that the National Benevolent Association would move its offices to quarters provided by the Christian Board.

Midway Junior College

David Cleveland appeared in behalf of Midway. He stated that enrollment is down but tuition receipts will be about the same. Church contributions are running $500.00 ahead of last year at the same time. Estimated receipts from churches will be about $9,000.

Individuals and foundations contribute for operating expense.

Drake University and Drake Divinity School

Dean John E. McCaw appeared before the Commission for a discussion of reports from Drake University and Drake Divinity School. He explained that the Divinity School is handled as one of the schools of the University and is not a separate institution.

The Divinity School is most closely related to the churches in the "Decade." The Divinity School is attempting to carry its own financial load even though it is subsidized by the University.

Phillips University and Graduate Seminary

President Hallie G. Gantz appeared before the Commission in behalf of Phillips University. President Gantz stated that the school is experiencing growth and that they have the largest enrollment in the history of the school this year. One of the major financial efforts is an appeal to individuals and the local community. The most urgent need now is for classroom, library and office facilities. They are asking for permission to approach the churches in the area for capital gifts of $500,000 for the academic quadrangle. This will be dedicated in honor of former President Dr. I. N. McCash.

European Evangelistic Society

W. L. Thompson, representative of the Society, appeared before the Commission. He reported that Earl Stuckenbruck has been in Tubingen for 14 years. He has gained rapport with the University and has placed several books in the library. Recently James Crouch has been added to the staff, which requires additional budget. The philosophy of the European Evangelistic Society was explained. Most of the support comes from churches which are not participating in the support of causes in Unified Promotion.

Northwest Christian College

President Ross J. Griffeth appeared before the Commission. He announced that Northwest Christian may be accredited this fall. This will be a distinct advantage because it has relationship to their admission to seminaries affiliated with the American Association of Theological Seminaries. The goal for individual gifts for the current year is $80,000. The school has found it necessary to raise tuition and to cut some expenses in order to balance its budget.

National Association of State Secretaries

RELATIONSHIPS
ANNUAL REPORT

tion of State Secretaries. The Commission was advised that this Association has no budget but is quite willing to submit its financial report annually. The Association is financed by dues from member states.

There was discussion regarding the disciplines involved in asking any organization supported by dues to submit its financial records for review and approval, e.g., the Home and State Missions Planning Council, the Council of Agencies.

VOTED that attention be called to the Board of Directors of the International Convention that some organizations within the Disciples of Christ are not having budget reviews and that we feel that all organizations should be subjected to the same disciplines; that some of these organizations receive their support from agencies who are having their budgets reviewed; but because the individual assessments against those agencies are relatively small, the matter does not come to the attention of either the Commission on Brotherhood Finance or the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships. Examples of these agencies are the following: National Association of State Secretaries, Home and State Missions Planning Council, Council of Agencies, and other such causes which may come into existence dependent upon dues for their support, e.g., city or district organizations and unions, church administrators, association of church musicians.

Action on Reports, Budgets and Capital Askings Non-Unified Promotion
National Agencies

Christian Board of Publication

VOTED that the annual report and operating statement of the Christian Board of Publication be received with commendation.

Note: The report includes a statement of Grants-In-Aid for 1961—$66,720.62; Contributed Services for 1961 totaling $80,798.

Christmount Christian Assembly

VOTED that the operational askings for Christmount Christian Assembly of $10,000 from churches and $6,000 from individuals be approved for 1962-63.

VOTED that the operational askings for Christmount Christian Assembly of $10,000 from churches and $6,000 from individuals be approved for 1963-64.

VOTED approval of capital askings for Christmount Christian Assembly of $4,600 for 1963-64 from individuals only, subject to promotion in those states where clearance has been made through state promotional committees or otherwise.

European Evangelistic Society

VOTED that the operational askings of the European Evangelistic Society of $11,522 from churches and $800.00 from individuals be reaffirmed for the year 1962-63.

VOTED that the operational askings of the European Evangelistic Society of $17,574 from churches and $1,000 from individuals be approved for 1963-64.

National Association of State Secretaries

VOTED that the Commission receive the report of the National Association of State Secretaries.

Note: This report included a statement of dues for 1961-62 of $1,085 with travel pool of $750.00; total, $1,835, with total expenditures of $1,695. No budget was submitted for either 1961-62 or 1962-63.

National Benevolent Association

VOTED approval of the 1963-64 askings from churches of $1,234,000, which is on the basis of 10 percent increase for each of the fiscal years, 1962-63, 1963-64, over the anticipated receipts of 1961-62; there was a previously approved allocation of $1,464,802 for 1962-63.

Note: This revision has been suggested because the Commission feels that the previously approved amount for 1962-63 is not realistic in view of past experience and that adjustments in expenditures should be made accordingly.

VOTED that capital askings from church sources for the National Benevolent Association be approved in the amount of $300,000 for the year 1963-64.

National Christian Missionary Convention

VOTED that the report of the National Christian Missionary Convention be received.

Note: The Commission has been advised that this organization does not expect to ask for funds from church sources, but anticipates $8,500 from national, state and area convention offerings, registrations, enrollments, The Christian Plea.

Colleges

Christian College of Georgia

VOTED that the operational askings of the Christian College of Georgia of $36,051 from church sources for 1962-63 be re-affirmed; and that we approve operational askings of $39,000 for 1963-64.

VOTED that we eliminate $10,000 from capital askings for 1963-64 as we conceive the $10,000 capital askings for 1963-64 to be included in the operational askings, i.e., the $3,600 additional is incorporated in the $39,000 operational askings.

Disciples Divinity House, University of Chicago

VOTED that the operational askings of the Disciples Divinity House of $20,000 from churches and $10,000 from individuals for 1962-63 be reaffirmed.

VOTED that the operational askings of the Disciples Divinity House for 1963-64 of $20,000 from churches and $12,000 from individuals be approved.

VOTED that the askings of $10,000 for capital for the Disciples Divinity House for 1963-64 be approved.

Drake University and Drake Divinity School

VOTED that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships re-affirm our approval for 1962-63 for Drake University of $111,900.

COMMISSION ON BUDGETS AND PROMOTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS ANNUAL REPORT

VOTED that we approve 1963-64 askings of $85,000 for Drake University, calling attention of Drake University to the fact that the 1962-63 allocation is unrealistic in light of experience, and that our reduced allocation for 1963-64 is based on what might be realistic for that year.

VOTED approval of the asking of $18,000 from individuals for Drake Divinity School.

VOTED that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships reaffirm the allocation of 1962-63 for capital of $55,000 for Drake Divinity School and ask them to report to us their anticipated receipts from the Iowa plan for 1963-64, which figure will be entered on the line for the Iowa proposal.

Midway Junior College

VOTED that the operational askings of Midway Junior College in the amount of $12,000 from church sources be reaffirmed for 1962-63.

VOTED that the operational askings for Midway Junior College in the amount of $14,000 be approved for 1963-64.

VOTED approval of the askings of $8,000 from individuals for 1962-63 and $9,000 from individuals for 1963-64 for operational budget at Midway Junior College.

VOTED approval of capital fund askings of $1,000 from churches and $3,000 from individuals for 1962-63 and $1,000 from churches and $3,000 from individuals for 1963-64 for Midway Junior College.

Northwest Christian College

VOTED that the 1962-63 askings of $100,000 from churches be reaffirmed and that the new figure of $80,000 from individuals be included for Northwest Christian College.

VOTED that askings of $100,000 from churches and $90,000 from individuals for 1963-64 operational expense be approved for Northwest Christian College.

VOTED that with respect to capital askings for Northwest Christian College the Commission recognizes and reaffirms approval for $100,000 in the year 1962-63; however, approval for capital askings beyond that date will not be considered until the request is attached to a calendar of activity.

Phillips University and Graduate Seminary

VOTED that the operational askings of Phillips University of $225,000 from churches and $25,000 from individuals for 1962-63; $250,000 from churches and $35,000 from individuals for 1963-64 be approved.

VOTED approval of a campaign for capital funds by Phillips University in the amount of $500,000 with the request that this campaign be distributed over five years beginning in 1963 with the further request that progress on the campaign be reported at each annual meeting of the Commission on Budgets.

Note: That Phillips University be encouraged to share with the Kansas Bible Chair for that portion of their campaign in Kansas inasmuch as the Commission approved the Kansas Bible Chair campaign in 1961, therefore, has prior claim in Kansas.

WEEK OF COMPASSION

VOTED that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships approve an asking goal for the Week of Compassion Committee for 1962-63 in the amount of $575,000.

Note: This is a revision of the amount approved in March, 1961, due to the removal of allocations to the Committee on Military and Veterans Services, and Pensions for Chaplains from the askings.

VOTED that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships approve an asking goal of the Week of Compassion Committee for 1963-64 in the amount of $600,000.

SPECIAL ACTIONS

Annual Budget Unified Promotion

The Board of Directors of Unified Promotion presented a proposed budget of $336,879 for 1962-63 for operational expenses for Unified Promotion, Inc.

VOTED approval of the budget of Unified Promotion totaling $336,879 as presented by the Board of Directors of Unified Promotion for 1962-63.

Resolution No. 37 from Kansas City re Support of Councils

In accordance with action by the Kansas City Convention Assembly, Resolution No. 37, "The Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships was authorized to study and to bring recommendation to our next Assembly concerning the possibility of our Brotherhood supporting the National Council of Churches of Christ, the World Council of Churches, and other ecumenical agencies, asking for support from local churches, through either the International Convention of Christian Churches or the Council on Christian Unity, from receipts given by our churches through Unified Promotion.”

After considerable discussion it was VOTED that the Council on Christian Unity be requested to initiate the study authorized by Resolution No. 37 from the Kansas City Convention suggesting to them that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships and Unified Promotion be represented and that the Commission, through its Executive Secretary, make a brief report of progress at the International Convention in Los Angeles, 1962.

Request for World Call Week

A communication was read from the Editor of World Call requesting that the third week in January be observed annually as World Call Week.

After thorough discussion it was VOTED that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships approve the request of World Call for the observance of the third week of January as World Call Week, but before they take final action we ask the World Call Committee to study the possibilities of incorporating the recognition of World Call into Christian Literature Week.

Committee on Agency Decade Program and Budget Evaluation

The Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships received the report of the Task Committee on Evaluation. It was the consensus of the Commission that we concur in the recommendations made by the Task Committee which are as follows:

- 1—That a stronger emphasis be placed on the budget disciplines each agency would be required to follow. To that end
 - a—That a report be made by each agency as to whether it lived within the actual receipts of the year before,
 - b—That, if it did not, a report be made as to how that agency met the situation and what plan it has for getting on a current basis in the future,
 - c—That, if it cannot do this, what decision needs to be made in terms of adjusted allocation,
 - d—That if disparity between askings and receipts is so great that reaching such receipt level seems impossible, delineations of priorities should be made.
- 2—That the 1963-64 allocations should be frozen at the 1962-63 level, except for emergency adjustments.

Nominations—Members of Unified Promotion

VOTED that the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships nominate

Mrs. H. I. Rudduck, Indiana
Mrs. Jack Forbes, N. Carolina

VOTED that the following Message to the Churches prepared by a committee composed of Kenneth B. Seeley, W. Goebel Sanders and D. Wayne Doolen, be approved:

Facing forward in our operation DECADE OF DECISION, for the sixties, we have entered the period for actively implementing our "decisions." Many local congregations have yet to grasp the full significance of this challenge. Attainment of brotherhood goals demands effective response.

It is conceivable that we need to review a framework for a DECADE OF DECISION. Leaders and associates of every church are invited to evaluate progress and press forward. Our response will certainly determine the quality of our "decision," for we need to be:

D ISCIPLES of Christ committed to His Cause,

E NGINEERING with potential resources in concerned

C OOPERATION—making valuable

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee recommended that the following be elected as officers of the Commission for 1963:

RELATIONSHIPS
ANNUAL REPORT

75

Chairman	Travis A. White
Vice Chairman	Kenneth E. Smith
Member of the Executive Committee	G. Gerald Sias
Secretary	Gaines M. Cook

VOTED adoption of the report and election of the Executive Committee as named.

Consideration of Future Responsibilities of the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships

The Commission spent considerable time discussing its future role in light of the growing number of agencies and institutions which participate in Unified Promotion, and whose budgets are cleared by the Commission on Brotherhood Finance. The Commission believes that for the time being it still has the function, but recognizes that if and when all agencies reporting to the International Convention might become members of Unified Promotion, its status and function should be studied.

VOTED that we invite the Executive Committee of the Commission on Brotherhood Finance to meet with the Executive Committee of the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships and that a mutually agreeable date be selected.

Note: The following items are suggested for possible consideration.

- 1—The question of a readjustment of calendar so the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships can do its work more adequately within a time span consistent with the amount of work to be done.
- 2—How are we to conceive of our responsibilities in light of the increasing number of agencies reporting to the Commission on Brotherhood Finance and a declining number reporting to the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships?
- 3—What is to be done to secure a comprehensive review of agencies now in existence but not now reporting to anybody for review.
- 4—Programing and promotion in the Brotherhood which is related so intimately to finance. How shall we establish central programing?

VOTED appreciation to Paul H. Woods for six years' faithful service as a member of the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships.

Gaines M. Cook, Executive Secretary, International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ); Secretary, Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships.

Committee on Selective Service Status of Ministerial Students

OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Harlie L. Smith, Chairman
Ralph T. Palmer
Beauford A. Norris
Lawrence H. Maines
A. C. Cuppy, Secretary

The Committee on Selective Service Status of Ministerial Students of the International Convention was created to give guidance and assistance to ministerial students who need deferment from military training in order to study for the ministry.

Although most Selective Service Boards are most liberal during peace time in deferring any college student, the Committee has had increased requests from young men seeking IV-D status of deferment. These requests have involved increased correspondence with local, state and national Selective Service Boards.

In order to facilitate knowledge of the requirements of the United States Selective Service, a new brochure has been prepared and distributed to all state and area offices of Christian Churches as well as our church related colleges and seminaries. Selective Service requirements make it necessary for the Committee to request:

- I. That a candidate for the ministry sign a Life Commitment Card designating his intention to devote his life to a church vocation.
- II. That he obtain three copies of the following statements:
 - (a) An affirmation from his local church that he is known to be a candidate for the ministry and that the church recommends him for deferment,
 - (b) A letter from the college he is now attending or will attend stating he is registered as a student,
 - (c) A statement from a recognized graduate school of religion stating he is pre-enrolled as a ministerial student.
 - (d) A statement of endorsement from his state or area committee on the ministry.

(NOTE: Some Selective Service Boards will be satisfied with one or more of these items.)

The candidate should give the first copy of each of the statements secured to his draft board. The second copy of each should be sent to the above named Committee. The third copy is for his own file. When all of the above requirements are met, the candidate may request that the Committee provide a Certificate of Recognition from the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) for himself and his Selective Service Board.

In emergency cases, the Committee stands ready to appeal to Selective Service for young men who have met the requirements and for some reason have not been granted IV-D status.

The leaflet entitled "Selective Service Requirements for Young Men Planning to Enter the Ministry" may be secured without charge from International Convention Office, 221 Ohmer Avenue, P. O. Box 19136, Indianapolis 19, Indiana.

All-Canada Committee of the Churches of Christ

O. W. McCully, General Secretary

695A St. Clair Ave., West, Toronto 10, Ontario, Canada

532-3957

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

A conference of Canadians in attendance at the International Convention of Disciples of Christ in 1921 expressed a desire for closer unification of the work of the Churches of Christ in Canada.

Later in 1921 a team of four including George H. Stewart of Winnipeg, visited many of the churches across Canada. The idea of an All Canada Conference was presented and discussed.

The Conference was held late in May, 1922, at Poplar Hill, Ontario. George H. Stewart was elected Chairman of "The All-Canada Continuation Committee."

Listed as purposes the following items were prominent.

1. Greater unity of the Church.
2. Secretarial leadership that would include all of Canada and all phases of the work.
3. A Headquarters office or clearing house for the many and varied activities of the Churches across Canada.
4. Literature—The first move in this way was "The Canadian Disciple" which was first published in January, 1923.
5. Stewardship of Life and Means.

The Committee sponsors an All-Canada Convention once in two years. The Convention appoints the Continuation Committee which carries on the work between Conventions.

ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1961 to June 30, 1962

Early in the year we held our regular All-Canada Biennial Convention at the Cross Roads Church in Prince Edward Island. The Convention also marked the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Cross Roads Congregation, the oldest in Canada.

Also early in the year we were pleased to have two new missionaries go to India in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Bicks.

The General Secretary was appointed a delegate to the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches which met in New Delhi, India, November 18 to December 5, 1961. Attendance at this meeting made possible visits to several mission fields in Asia and stops in the Near East.

Miss Joan Ledger, the Associate Secretary was appointed one of four youth participants from Canada at the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches. Since our return to Canada, one or more reports have been given to almost every congregation in Canada.

Late in June we held a series of meetings which included a conference for all our ministers in Canada, a conference for Spiritual Enrichment and our regular Biennial Planning Conference. These meetings were very well attended and will prove helpful in our work in the future.

We are pleased to report that Miss Joan Ledger was married to Paul DeNew at the close of the year, but we regret very much to receive her resignation as associate secretary and report that for various reasons we are not able to appoint a successor. Miss Ledger's work over the two year period she has been with us has been dynamic, creative, popular, stimulating and helpful, especially in the area of Christian Education.

In spite of our best efforts in Canada the total membership of our Canadian congregations tends to decrease rather than increase. During this year our financial receipts showed a decrease—both for current and capital. We have plans for some new congregations, but at present we do not have the finances required to get them under way.

Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ

110 South Downey Avenue, Indianapolis 7, Indiana

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Board of Church Extension, a non-profit corporate agency of the Christian Churches, was organized in 1883 to assist Christian churches and organizations in all phases of their building projects.

The Board of Church Extension is managed by 18 directors elected from representative laymen and ministers who serve for a three year term, with possibility for re-election for a second three year term.

The sources of its funds are offerings from churches and individuals through Unified Promotion, annuity gifts, bequests, named funds, passbook savings accounts and investment certificates.

The Board cooperates with the national agencies of Disciples of Christ, state and provincial societies, city and area organizations of Christian churches.

The following services are rendered by Church Extension:

- Loans for the erection or purchase of churches, educational buildings, parsonages, state office buildings, camp facilities, student centers; for remodeling and equipment and for the purchase of sites for new church buildings, parsonages and camps and conferences.
- Interest-free loans to qualifying new congregations.
- Trust funds (a depository for building or other investment funds) currently paying $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ and 4% per annum, compounded semi-annually.
- General counseling.
- Leadership in financial campaigns.
- Architectural counseling.
- Certificate-Loan Plan.

The first step in any building program is a General Consultation. It deals with the general issues, opportunities and problems which confront the church. Such questions as these are considered:

What are our building needs?

What should we do about a building site?

Should we stay in our present location or move?

How do we organize effectively for a building program?

How much can we afford to spend on our building project?

How can we raise money for a building program?

How much should we borrow?

What is a step-by-step calendar for our program?

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION
ANNUAL REPORT

AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

March 5, 1962

We have examined the accounting records of the Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ, Indianapolis, Indiana, pertaining to its financial position at December 31, 1961, and to its operating results for the year then ended. We have reviewed the accounting procedures of the corporation and, without making a detailed audit of the transactions, have examined or tested accounting records and other supporting evidence to the extent we deemed appropriate.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income and expense and fund accounts, subject to the notes relative thereto, present fairly the financial position of the Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ at December 31, 1961, and the results of its operations for the year then ended.

Respectfully submitted,
CARTER, KIRLIN AND MERRILL
Certified Public Accountants

Board of Higher Education

Disciples of Christ

Harlie L. Smith, President

222 S. Downey Avenue, Indianapolis 7, Indiana
Fleetwood 3-1491

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Board of Higher Education is a successor organization of a Board of Education which grew out of informal meetings of college presidents and others interested in higher education. This Board of Education was chartered in 1914 and continued in existence until the late thirties when the work of higher education was merged with the United Christian Missionary Society. In 1938 a new Board of Higher Education was chartered and the work of the former department of higher education became the responsibility of the new Board.

The membership of the Board consists of elected members who are laymen, lay women, and ministers, and the heads of member institutions who are ex-officio members. Together these groups total eighty.

The Board is concerned with the education of youth in an atmosphere of Christian influence. This concern is expressed in liberal arts colleges, universities, seminaries, Bible chairs and Bible colleges, and student work foundations. A coordinate concern is the training of young people for vocations of the church, and is expressed through these same institutions.

Since these two concerns are carried on through member institutions, the Board has a responsibility to assist them in making them strong and vital.

The Board also serves in a program of recruitment of leadership. Here again, there is close cooperation with the member institutions and other agencies with recruitment programs.

The Board is the representative of Disciples of Christ in many ecumenical activities as they relate to higher education, especially in the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America and on the Commission on Christian Higher Education in the Association of American Colleges.

It represents the interests of higher education in many conferences for joint planning among the many boards of Disciples, and is the organization through which the institutions of higher education are related to the International Convention.

It is the channel of two-way communication at the national level between the churches and the institutions.

It serves institutions and churches in areas in analytical studies of the needs for new or different means of serving post-high school youth in an educational way.

ANNUAL REPORT

There are thirty-three Disciples of Christ educational institutions of various types which are related to the International Convention through membership in the Board of Higher Education. The Board is the agency through which the concern of the church for higher education is expressed at the national level. The institutions report to the Convention through the Board. The narrative part of this report deals mainly with the program of the Board and the statistical section is the composite report of the institutions.

The work of the Board is carried on in five departments, no one of which is fully staffed. Normally, there are three administrative and program persons on the staff but for the past two months of the past fiscal year, two persons have carried the work because of the resignation of the assistant executive secretary, Donald D. Reisinger, to become director of the Disciples Seminary Foundation of Southern California. We are indebted to him for his five years of excellent service to the departments of Christian Vocation and Campus Christian Life as well as other phases of the total work of the Board and wish him well in his new and important responsibility. As this is being prepared near the end of the fiscal year, no successor has been named and it now appears that it may be early autumn before one arrives. Our very competent secretarial assistant, Mrs. Mildred Whitworth, terminated her work with the Board at the end of the year because of a move out of state. We have been very fortunate in having her with us and wish her and her family well. The president of the Board has primary responsibility for the department of Administration and Research, the department of Christian Institutions, and the department of Publication and Promotion. The assistant secretary-treasurer carries large responsibility in the day to day operation of all departments.

DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION AND RESEARCH

As the name of this department suggests, oversight of the total program and budget of the Board, most inter-board planning, representation in ecumenical circles, and research are lodged here. Some minor research has been carried on in the past year, although lack of resources has made it necessary to postpone again the proposed major projects for the study of higher education for Disciples of Christ and for the study of the ministry. The former study is basic to the development of the total program and strategy of higher education for the brotherhood, and the second study is important for the development of adequate recruitment procedures.

We have assumed our full share of responsibility in the International Convention and its various committees and commissions, the Council of Agencies, Home and State Missions Planning Council, Curriculum and Program Council, Church Program Coordinating Council, Council on Christian Unity, World Call Publication Committee, Unified Promotion, and various units of the National Council of Churches together with participation in several educational associations.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN INSTITUTIONS

Insofar as resources and personnel are available, the Board undertakes to serve the various institutions in their continuous programs of improvement. It has been possible to visit only a small fraction of these in the course of any one year.

It is with great pleasure that we record here the regional accreditation of Eureka College. Congratulations and commendation must go to President Langston through whose intelligent and hard work this goal has been attained.

One new institution, the New Haven Disciples House and Center, was elected to membership in the Board at the annual meeting in Kansas City. Dr. Parker Rossman, the executive director, is welcomed as a member ex officio of the Board.

Currently, we are working with the official committee representing our churches in Florida as they carry on negotiations on a possible Disciples of Christ institution in that state. We are also consulting with another group in another state where a college has been proposed.

These two proposals point up the importance of the projected study of higher education on a national scale.

For the most part, the colleges are in good condition although one or two are experiencing serious financial difficulty. Costs continue to rise and church support, while much improved over a decade ago, accounts for only five per cent of total expenditures this year as compared with six per cent a year ago.

All institutions are improving and expanding facilities and programs. Texas Christian University has increased its doctoral offerings from two departments to four. William Woods College has approval for plans to expand from a junior college to a four-year institution. Culver-Stockton College is experimenting with an extension education plan for the education of lay leadership for the church. Many other new programs could be mentioned for these are only some of the many developments within the institutions.

All the institutions maintain a closer relationship to the church than has been true in any other time in the past forty years and by the same token, there is a greater interest in higher education among the churches. The percent of Disciples of Christ among the total enrollments within the institutions is higher each year.

A four-day consultation was held by the Board in the summer of 1961 on the role of the church in higher education and on financing higher education. The March sessions of the Board were devoted largely to these same concerns and new concepts and procedures are likely to emerge from these discussions.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The Disciples Guidance, Recruitment, and Education program for the Decade of Decision is carried on jointly by The United Christian Missionary Society and the Board. At the present time the program is being subjected to a close analytical critical study by the chief administrators of the two boards. Insufficient financial resources in states as well as at the national level have held the program back. The urgent need for new ministers makes the success of the program crucially important. Along with other seminaries, ours experienced a small decline in enrollment during the year. This must not be allowed to become a trend.

The predicted shortage of college teachers becomes more apparent each year. Our program for the recruitment of qualified young people for this profession is an early priority for the Board as soon as the budget can be expanded to meet it. The placement bureau of the Board is unable to respond to more than a small fraction of the calls it receives from the institutions. However, in spite of the short supply of teachers and increasing but still inadequate salaries generally, our colleges as a group exceed the national average with respect to the percent of Ph.D's on the faculties.

The Middlers Conference for seminary students held annually in Indianapolis is well attended by our future ministers and appears to be making a significant contribution to their education. This conference is administered by the Board which bears one-half the expense. The other national agencies cooperate fully and share in the other one-half of the cost.

DEPARTMENT OF CAMPUS CHRISTIAN LIFE

The work of this department is the Board's share in the program of the Joint Commission on Campus Christian Life in cooperation with The United Christian Missionary Society. Campus ministries are growing in number, size, and dignity. Many new ventures are coming into existence and there is a wholesome spirit of ecumenicity abroad. The problems are too large for one communion to handle competitively. The Joint Commission is able to give financial support to several programs which meet the criteria for such support. Through a grant by the Christian Board of Publication to the Joint Commission, some twenty centers are developing good libraries of titles recommended by the Joint Commission.

ANNUAL REPORT

The first meeting of the General Council of the new United Campus Christian Fellowship was held in the late summer of 1962. A report of this will be included in our next annual report, since this annual report is written prior to the meeting.

The Board does much work with the Campus Ministers and operates a placement office to assist centers in their search for qualified ministers.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICATION AND PROMOTION

The staff of the Board cooperates with Unified Promotion and the Council of Agencies in the promotion of finance and program for the total life of the brotherhood. In certain seasons these responsibilities involve heavy field schedules.

We have difficulty living within our printing budget as we attempt to meet the demands for reprints of our literature. Although only one new piece has been published in several years, two important program pieces are scheduled for early publication.

FINANCIAL REPORT

As has been indicated above many desirable and important activities cannot be picked up because of limited resources. However, the Board is not alone in this respect. We have made every effort to live within income and only once in the past eleven years have we shown an excess of expenditures over income and that was over less than $250. We have uncommitted reserves of some 20% of our annual budget to provide operating capital and to carry us through any year in which income might decline drastically. Each year's budget is built upon the actual cash income of the preceding year in an attempt to care for unanticipated declines in receipts.

Scheduling makes it necessary to prepare this part of the annual report before the financial books have been closed. It now appears that our expenditures will be within budget and the actual receipts for 1960-61 upon which the 1961-62 budget was built. It is possible that actual cash income for the latter year will exceed modestly the income of the former.

AUDITOR'S STATEMENT

Board of Higher Education

Disciples of Christ

222 S. Downey Ave.

Indianapolis 7, Indiana

Gentlemen:

I have examined the accompanying statements of cash receipts and disbursements of: The Board of Higher Education, Disciples of Christ, Indianapolis, Indiana, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1962.

The examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as were considered necessary in the circumstances, including the confirmation of the amounts on deposit with The American Fletcher National Bank and Trust Company at June 30, 1962, directly with the depository.

The statements have been prepared on a cash receipts and disbursement basis and therefore do not purport to present financial position and results of operations except as related to cash basis non-profit organizations.

In my opinion, the statements of cash receipts and disbursements for the year ended June 30, 1962, have been fairly summarized on the basis indicated.

Respectfully submitted,
Dow H. SYKES
Certified Public Accountant

Christian Board of Publication

Wilbur H. Cramblet, President

Beaumont and Pine Blvd., Box 179, St. Louis 66, Missouri
Franklin 1-6900

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The proposition of a Brotherhood-owned publishing house was first officially brought before our people in the National Convention at Norfolk, Virginia, in 1907. At this time a committee was appointed to explore the matter and make a report at the New Orleans Convention in 1908. The committee reported progress at that convention and asked for a continuation of time, which was granted. The committee again reported in the Pittsburgh Convention in 1909, at which time a request was granted for a smaller and more compact committee which could thoroughly explore all the problems involved.

Seven weeks after the Centennial Convention in Pittsburgh in 1909 the committee reported through The Christian-Evangelist, the acquirement of the Christian Publishing Company by R. A. Long of Kansas City, who had purchased plant, equipment and publications of the former company which was to become the nucleus of a Brotherhood Publishing House.

The Christian Board of Publication was chartered by the State of Missouri as a nonprofit publishing company in 1911. The original investment, including property, plant, equipment, etc., amounted to $404,307.95. This investment has now grown to $2,000,000.00 and another $1,000,000.00 has been turned back to religious educational, missionary, benevolent and other agencies of Disciples of Christ.

The purpose of this Brotherhood-owned publishing house is to serve the churches of Disciples of Christ by publishing The Christian, a journal of information, interpretation and inspiration; by publishing periodicals, books and curriculum materials to propagate and support an effective program of Christian education in the local church; and by providing through convention service and other channels audio-visual materials, Bibles, books and all other supplies which are essential for an ongoing program of Christian teaching, Christian evangelism and Christian stewardship in the local church.

In providing this service to the churches of Disciples of Christ, the Christian Board of Publication cooperates with all state and national agencies of Disciples of Christ, with the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America, and with educational and publishing boards of other communions, and with the World Council of Churches.

ANNUAL REPORT January 1, 1961, to December 31, 1961

The Christian Board of Publication was incorporated in 1911 as a not-for-profit association under Chapter 33 of Article 10, Revised Statutes of Missouri, of 1909, successor to the Christian Publishing Company. Its organization and early development were made possible by gifts from Mr. R. A. Long totaling more than $404,000. Since its establishment the Directors of the Board have added to the capital account a total of $2,876,565. As of December 31, 1961, the total assets of the Board were $4,357,995.

In accordance with the terms of its charter, net income and surplus of the Christian Board of Publication not needed for extension of the business are to be "turned over to and paid into the treasury of missionary, benevolent, church extension, educational societies or other agencies of the Christian Church, Disciples of Christ." (Articles of Association, Section 6, third paragraph, 1911.)

The Christian Board of Publication was in process of organization from December, 1909, until its incorporation as a Missouri corporation in March of 1911. By action of the Board of Directors, January 4, 1910, is to be recognized as the actual date of the founding of the present company. At this time, with R. A. Long as President, The Christian Publishing Company enlarged its Board of Directors to thirteen and began the policies under which the Christian Board of Publication has operated ever since.

The year 1960 was celebrated as the 50th anniversary of the organization.

Contributed Services

In addition to making direct contributions or grants-in-aid to various agencies and societies of the Christian Church, the Christian Board of Publication underwrites the cost of various publications and services in support of the total program of the Brotherhood. The estimated cost of these services in 1961 was $80,798. For example, the Christian Board of Publication is contributing financially to the support of the training and field program of Children's and Youth Workers in several states. It also supports financially and provides personnel for youth institutes and national training schools.

The costs of these special services for 1961 and budgeted items for 1962 are as follows:

The Christian

The Christian completed a century of service to the brotherhood with the December 30, 1962, issue.

Since The Christian-Evangelist and Front Rank were combined and the earlier and popular name of The Christian was restored, the journal has served young adults and adults in the Sunday church school. More than 90,000 copies are distributed each week, while more than 45,000 have it mailed directly to their homes.

As "a journal of news and opinion," The Christian continues to provide a free forum for well-written articles on all phases and all sides of Brotherhood beliefs and practices, plus a letter page for free discussion of the articles. News, columns, pictures and editorials keep the Disciples of Christ aware of needs and accomplishments.

Local Church Curriculum Division

The Local Church Curriculum Division is responsible for the development of study materials for Christian education in Christian Churches and for the editorial work on various types of leadership materials. The Division works with departments of The United Christian Missionary Society and the agencies participating in the Curriculum and Program Council in the planning of the educational materials.

The Division has five members working in the interdenominational Cooperative Curriculum Project which is a joint effort of sixteen Protestant denominations working on the creation of a design for a total program of Christian education. By 1964 the Cooperative Curriculum Project anticipates the completion of resources which the cooperating denominations will then be able to draw upon in preparing descriptions for their denominational materials.

In 1962 the Division completed the revisions of the following Bethany Graded Lessons for children: Course I, Parts 2, 3 and 4; Course IV, Parts 2, 3 and 4; Course II, Part 1; Course V, Part 1. Production on other parts of Courses II and V were in process, as were revisions on Courses III and VI.

In the youth department, Focus No. 2 and Tack No. 2 were made ready for guidance in the evening programs for Disciples of Christ youth. Four publications were completed for production in a new curriculum for camps and conferences. Leaders' manuals, The Junior High Camp and The Senior High Conference, were released for use in a field program of training leaders. A conference course, The Great Belonging, and a camp course, Inherit the World, were released for use in 1963 camps and conferences.

In the adult department, two basic courses of the new Christian Discipleship Series were made ready for use—Christian Faith and Experience and Being Christian in Our Time. Manuscripts for the remaining three courses in the basic series were in various stages of production. Continuation courses in the Christian Discipleship Series were planned to begin in April of 1965. These will be six-month courses and will develop in greater detail the areas of the basic courses.

Nearly 500 separate items are handled annually by the editors of the Local Church Curriculum Division to help the Christian Churches with their weekly programs of Christian education.

Curriculum and Program Sales Department

The Curriculum and Program Sales Department is responsible for the printing and distribution of all materials coming from the Local Church Curriculum Division, as well as church program materials developed by departments of the United Christian Missionary Society, and other church agencies. Included in these are the Brotherhood Worship and News bulletin services.

The advertising and promotion of these materials is developed in conjunction with the program efforts of National and State staffs as the department seeks to provide the tools by which Christian church program becomes a reality. In this connection a regular part of the departmental budget is devoted to the support of leadership development.

It is worthy of note that Bethany lesson materials are recognized to be of high quality, even in areas outside the Brotherhood. This is attested to by the fact that many are used by other Protestant groups and several have been adopted as a part of the Armed Services Curriculum.

Books and Church Supplies

Through its Merchandise Department the Christian Board of Publication makes available to churches and church schools and all subsidiary groups, religious books and supplies from all publishers and suppliers. A general catalog listing thousands of staple items stocked by the Board is issued every two years. Each quarter there is issued The Bethany Preview, which lists new items to aid the church and its various departments in planning and executing more effective programs.

Consignment and convention sales constitute approximately one-third the sales of this Department.

By providing materials on consignment to churches and church organizations many church members are afforded the opportunity to examine books and supplies. They are encouraged to purchase such materials as will help them in their church work and in their individual lives.

Another service undertaken by this department offers to provide newly established churches, churches with new buildings and others, with their complete needs of furniture and equipment at the lowest possible cost.

Bethany Bookstore—St. Louis

The Bethany Bookstore in St. Louis has continued to serve ministers, laymen, and their churches in this trade area since 1941.

In 1962, the store moved to its new location in the spacious new building of the Christian Board of Publication, fronting on Jefferson Avenue, one of the principal traffic arteries of the city of St. Louis.

Here in this one-stop, air-conditioned shopping center one may find a complete line of religious articles for church, church school, and the home.

In addition to religious books and supplies, the store carries a full line of audio-visual equipment and materials, as well as an extensive rental library of 16 mm. religious films.

It not only serves a large walk-in trade, but this bookstore enjoys a sizable mail order volume, so its service is as close as the nearest telephone or mail box.

Bethany Bookstore—Indianapolis

The Bethany Bookstore of Indianapolis has continued to serve the churches in Marion County since 1955. In fact, it now serves the entire state of Indiana through its mail order and convention service.

Being located in the Missions Building, the crossroads of the Christian Churches, it continues to cater to this national flow of traffic.

Like the St. Louis bookstore, in addition to a complete line of religious books and supplies, it carries a line of audio-visual equipment and materials, meeting the needs of the local church for those items.

A visit to the Disciples headquarters in Indianapolis is not complete until one visits the Bethany Bookstore located in the same building.

Bethany Bookstore—Los Angeles

The third Bethany Bookstore, located at 3114 Los Feliz Blvd., has been in operation since March 16, 1961.

Housed under the same roof with the California Christian Churches area offices, it is located in a strategic area to serve the churches of Southern California.

Since its establishment, it has expanded its activities and is now serving the entire West Coast and adjoining states through its mail order and convention service.

When in California, visit the Bethany Bookstore, our window on the West Coast, located just off the Golden Gate Freeway and near the famous Forest Lawn Cemetery and Griffith Park.

Here you will find a complete line of materials for church and church school as well as religious items for your personal needs.

The Bethany Press, Trade Department

Bethany Press records indicate that 255 manuscripts were examined during the year. There was a great increase in the number of unsolicited manuscripts received as well as more manuscripts which came as a result of long-range editorial planning and development. Twenty-four new books were published during 1962 including design, editorial direction and production of 3 books on contract for churches. At the close of the year 21 new books are scheduled for 1963. In addition to the official popular report of the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches in New Delhi, No Darkness at All, by James W. Kennedy, the division also published a book by the president of the International Convention, Dr. Leslie Smith. The title, Four Keys to Prayer, is a book of devotions. It was prepared and first placed on sale at the assembly in Los Angeles. Drama books have become more important and demand seems to be increasing. Two more titles, The Delinquent, the Hipster, and the Square and Armour of Light were completed in co-operation with the National Council of Churches of Christ.

As a result of long-range development 26 titles in the line of ABBOTT paperback reprints were made ready for introduction early in 1963. Noteworthy in this list is the purchase of reprint rights for The Background of the Social Gospel in America by W. A. Visser 't Hooft, Executive Secretary of the World Council of Churches.

The Division continued to manage printing procedures and distribution of the International Journal of Religious Education and several editorial and printing contracts for other organizations. Trade sales were managed again by Leon McCauley and Associates with 9 representatives calling on book stores in the United States. The G. R. Welch Company of Toronto greatly helped distribution of Bethany Press books in Canada.

Our records show that Christian Worship—A Hymnal has now been reprinted 23 times. For the sixth year in succession the sales have exceeded 50,000 copies.

The President and Directors
Christian Board of Publication
St. Louis, Missouri

We have examined the balance sheet of Christian Board of Publication as of December 31, 1961, and the related statement of income and surplus for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related statement of income and surplus present fairly the financial position of the Christian Board of Publication at December 31, 1960, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Accountants' Report

To the Board of Directors
The Christian Foundation
Columbus, Indiana

We have examined the statements of net assets of the General Fund of The Christian Foundation and of the Fiscal Agency Account Number One (held by The Christian Foundation as agent for Christian Theological Seminary) as at June 30, 1961, and the related statements of income and expenses and statements of changes in General Fund Reserves for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements, together with the notes to financial statements, present fairly, on the basis set forth in Note A, the net assets and fund reserves of the General Fund of The Christian Foundation and of the Fiscal Agency Account Number One (held by The Christian Foundation as agent for Christian Theological Seminary) at June 30, 1961, and the results of each fund's transactions for the year then ended, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding period.

Christian Literature Commission

William H. Humbert, Executive Secretary

"The world within your reach" You are what you read.

HISTORY

The "Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature" was changed to the "Christian Literature Commission" at the 1959 Annual Meeting.

The Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature was officially established through action of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ in 1944 when this body unanimously adopted resolution setting aside the last week in October or the first week in November to be known and observed as Christian Literature Week.

Resolution in 1950 reaffirmed its endorsement and urged that all churches of the Disciples of Christ set aside this week in the calendar of the churches for the all-important task of encouraging the reading of Christian literature in order to cultivate a more intelligent Discipleship.

The first complete report of the Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature was made to the International Convention meeting in Miami, Florida, in 1954. This report was carried in the 1954 Year Book of the Disciples of Christ.

Purpose and Function

It is the purpose and function of the Commission on the Promotion of Christian Literature, not only to promote the observance of Christian Literature Week, but to urge churches of Disciples of Christ and their membership throughout the year to follow a plan of daily Bible reading; to read more and better books and magazines, especially in the field of religion; to encourage the launching of new church libraries; to encourage subscription to religious journals, and to urge the exhibition and use of church school literature of the highest quality and Christian educational value. By such promotion it is hoped to exalt the place of Christian literature in the life of the church until it shall be considered one of the prime requisites of the church and church school.

Purpose and Function

It is the purpose and function of the Christian Literature Commission to promote the observance of Christian Literature Week, to urge churches of the Disciples of Christ and their membership to follow a plan of regular Bible reading throughout the year; to read more and better books and magazines, especially in the field of religion; to encourage the establishment of new church libraries; to encourage subscriptions to religious journals; and to urge the exhibition and use of church school literature of the highest quality in Christian education value; to exalt the place of Christian literature in the total life of the church until it becomes a prime requisite of the church and church school; to create and develop an awareness of the total church on the part of the reader, and to create and develop a Disciple mind.

Report of Activity

1,160 churches requested consignments of books to be displayed during Christian Literature Week in 1961. This represented $118,841.22 worth of books sponsored for this purpose by the Christian Literature Commission. Approximately 40% of these books were sold which is an increase of 5% over the previous year's sales.

There is a continued interest being shown by the local church in the library program sponsored by the Commission. There are now over 1846 libraries registered with Christian Board of Publication compared to 1,700 this time last year. The Church Library Book Nook, which is a publication sponsored jointly by the Christian Literature Commission and the Christian Board of Publication, continues to receive favorable response from the church libraries across our brotherhood.

The Disciple Student Center Traveling Library has been discontinued in favor of a more permanent library project sponsored by the Board of Higher Education and encouraged by the Christian Literature Commission.

The Review By Mail Plan, which offers our church libraries the opportunity to review books each quarter before making a purchase continues to be an effective service to the local church. Over a two year period approximately 3,860 books were requested for review, of which more than 1,800 were purchased. Net sales amounted to over $5,400.

The Disciple Reader's Plan, continues to be the major project for Christian Literature Commission during the Decade of Decision. Although 300 churches are participating in the plan up to date, we hope to enlist 1,000 new participants during the remaining years of the Decade. This plan of reading can prove to be the most important step in improving the educational structure of a congregation during the Decade. The Disciple Reader's Plan offers to every person who actively participates in the local church program an opportunity for great adventure in reading during the Decade. We would encourage every church in our brotherhood to enlist its members in this Christian Literature Commission project.

The Church Library Workshop, which was conducted at the International Convention at Kansas City for the first time last year, proved to be very favorably received and was again offered during the International Convention at Los Angeles with good attendance and interest.

All the materials which the Commission prepares for the Christian Literature Week Packet have been received and are in the process of production and will be ready for distribution the first week in September of this year.

ANNUAL REPORT

Christmount Christian Assembly occupies 609 acres of well watered and forested land in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina. Now in its thirteenth year, it is dedicated to the training of Christian leaders and seeks, as funds are available, to develop the necessary facilities to assist the churches in this task. Two new buildings were constructed during the year and were opened for use in late June. Mothers Hall provides bed rooms for some thirty-two guests, a comfortable lounge, office and spacious porch. Fellowship Hall makes available an auditorium with a seating capacity of 200, three classrooms, library and kitchenette. Fifteen cottages and cabins, a combination assembly hall, dining room, kitchen, worship center, modern swimming pool and other recreational facilities offer excellent accommodations for small conferences and retreats. Nearly five miles of open roads together with water, sewage and electricity provide access to 189 building lots on which fourteen families have built homes. An additional 67 lots have been purchased by churches and families, and a new section for home development was opened during the summer.

Eight states have voted by State Convention to participate in the development of Christmount. A Board of Directors composed of six directors from each supporting state plus six directors at large manage the affairs of the corporation. The Executive Committee meets monthly and on call to act on all matters of concern.

Seventeen national, area and state conferences including the Audio-Visual and Spiritual Life Conferences, the Conversations in Theology and Ethics, a ten-day School for Ministers and a special Panel on Communism were held during the summer period. Through the help of the Christian Board of Publication a wide range of books are made available.

Among the leaders and speakers appearing at Christmount were the following: Thomas Inabinett, Karl Croel, Robert Hufford, Simon Davidian, Kelly O'Neill, Emmett Moore, Gaines M. Cook, Elmore Turner, Riley B. Montgomery, Leslie R. Smith, Arthur D. Wenger, Osborne Booth, Barton Dowdy, Richard C. White, George G. Beazley, Orville W. Wake, James A. Moak, Robert W. AUDITOR'S CERTIFICATE

We have completed our examination of the balance sheet of the Christmount Christian Assembly as of June 30, 1962 and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements for the fiscal year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements present fairly the financial position of the Christmount Christian Assembly at June 30, 1962 and the cash transactions recorded for the fiscal year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

ANNUAL REPORT

Since the 1961-62 missionary year was the second year of the biennial period no meeting of the Council of Agencies was held, but the Interim Committee met on November 16-17, 1961 and April 5-6, 1962. The various standing and special committees of the Council also held a number of significant meetings throughout the year.

The Interim Committee has been primarily concerned with furthering the Program of Advance in the Decade of Decision. Its Committee on Agency Decade Program and Budget Evaluation has been involved in a careful review of agency and institutional plans for the decade and an evaluation of current budget projections related thereto. Its Committee on Decade Program in the Local Church has been concerned with local church involvement in Decade of Decision planning and was instrumental in preparing a film-strip, entitled "Three Questions", designed to stimulate congregational planning, formulating plans for area consultations to be held in the various states to give guidance to the functional leadership of local churches, and prepared and released to all congregations a report form to assemble information concerning progress made during the first two years of the decade.

In July, 1961 the Council of Agencies held an Institute on Agency Administration at Christian Theological Seminary, with twenty-four new agency staff in attendance. A similar institute, not limited to new staff members, is projected for the summer of 1963.

The Committee on Brotherhood Organization and Interagency Relationships has worked through the biennium to perfect a policy and procedural statement dealing with ministerial placement. This will be ready for release after approval by the Council of Agencies in July, 1962.

The Interim Committee has also given attention to numerous agency procedural items that were of significance for the organized life of the Brotherhood but which cannot be discussed in detail in this brief report.

AUDITOR'S STATEMENT

Mr. Rolland H. Sheafor, Treasurer
The Council of Agencies of
110 South Downey Avenue
Indianapolis, Indiana

Dear Sir:

We have examined the statement of cash receipts and disbursements of The Council of Agencies of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) for the two-year period ended June 30, 1962. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances, except as indicated in the following paragraph.

The receipts were accepted with no attempt at direct verification.

In our opinion, except as noted in the preceding paragraph, the accompanying statement of cash receipts and disbursements presents fairly the cash transactions of The Council of Agencies of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) for the two-year period ended June 30, 1962.

Respectfully submitted,

Council on Christian Unity

222 South Downey Avenue, Indianapolis 7, Indiana
FLleetwood 3-1491

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

"The purpose of the Council is to watch for every indication of Christian unity, to initiate steps for Christian union, and to hasten the time of its fulfillment through intercessory prayer, friendly conferences, study of pertinent issues, publication and distribution of literature, prophetic witness to the will of Christ for His Church and the practice of love, fellowship and mutual service among Christians. The Council shall give particular attention to the development and nurture of an ecumenical spirit among Disciples of Christ."

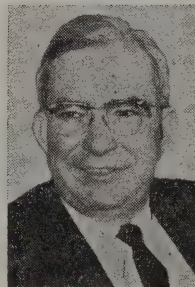

This has been the purpose of the Council since its organization at the Topeka Convention in 1910 under the leadership of Peter Ainslie. Known originally as the Council on Christian Union and then as the Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity, the Council was reorganized in 1954 so as to serve both as an association and a council. As an association its membership is open to any Disciple of Christ in sympathy with its purposes. The annual membership fee is $3.00. As a council it brings into its work the executive heads of the Board of Higher Education, the Committee on Relief Appeals, the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, and the United Christian Missionary Society as members of the executive committee.

Members of the Council in annual meeting elect members to a Board of Directors for three-year terms. The Directors, 33 in number, elect officers and an executive committee which acts for the Council between meetings. The work is administered through three departments: the Central Department of Christian Unity, the Department of Ecumenical Service, and the Department of Ecumenical Study.

National Council of Churches Interchurch Center

Since the launching of the campaign at the Denver Assembly, individuals and local churches have contributed a total of $13,325.00 to the "Roy G. Ross Tribute Fund." The $25,000.00 goal for this special fund represents our special contribution toward the cost for furnishing and equipping the new Inter-Church Center in New York. Since plaques have already been put up, it is imperative this be completed. Plans are being initiated toward this end.

*These numbers do not include the number of churches in Iowa participating in the unified budget (c. 250) though total support includes the amounts of their unified giving.

Joint Committee on Ecumenical Appointments

The Joint Committee on Ecumenical Appointments (International Convention—Council on Christian Unity), through its interim committee, appointed Dr. Walter Sikes as a delegate to the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches to fill the place made vacant through the resignation of Dr. Roy G. Ross, who resigned because of ill health. The Joint Committee named George G. Beazley, Jr., as the representative of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) on the Commission on Faith and Order. It has nominated delegates and alternates for the Triennial Assembly of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. to be held in Philadelphia November 30 to December 6, 1963. It has nominated Disciple representatives to the General Board of the National Council of Churches for the triennium 1963-1966. It has nominated delegates to the Fourth World Conference on Faith and Order to be held in Montreal, Canada, July 12 to 26, 1963. These nominations will be presented to the International Convention for action.

Committee on Relations With Churches and Union Movements Abroad
Virgil A. Sly, chairman

Relations with Churches in AmericaUnited Church of Christ (USA)

In response to a resolution passed at the General Synod of the United Church of Christ on July 6, 1961, and in reaffirmation of numerous resolutions by the International Convention, the International Convention, meeting in Kansas City, September 29 to October 4, 1961, passed by overwhelming vote Resolution No. 47 to "authorize the Council on Christian Unity to appoint a Commission (the personnel and size of which to be decided by the Council on Christian Unity) for the purpose of entering into these conversations with the United Church of Christ regarding a plan for union and into conversations with the proponents of any other sincere proposals that the Council feels should be discussed." In September, 1961, a conference of a few leaders of each communion met to discuss the conversations and prepare the program for the first full meeting. In October, 1961, the executive committee of the Council on Christian Unity named the following commission of twenty-four (liaison committee of nine starred): W. J. Jarman,* chairman, George G. Beazley, Jr.,* secretary, Hampton Adams, William R. Baird, Jr., Myron C. Cole, John R. Compton, Gaines M. Cook,* Mrs. W. K. Evans, A. Dale Fiers,* Hallie G. Gantz, J. Irwin Miller,* Edward S. Moreland, Ronald Osborn,* Albert M. Pennybacker, Lester Rickman,* Jo M. Riley, Oliver C. Schroeder, Virgil A. Sly, Harlie L. Smith,* Thomas W. Toler, Orville W. Wake, Mrs. Mae Yoho Ward, W. A. Welsh, John Park Winkler.* On February 20 and 21, 1962, the first full meeting of the two commissions met. Papers read may be found in Volume II, Number 1, of MIDSTREAM. A second meeting of our full commission was held on May 14, 1962 to evaluate the present position of the conversations and to suggest future directions. Another full meeting of the two commissions will be held in the fall of 1962. The conversations are proceeding with growing knowledge and with increasing friendliness on the part of both bodies. At the meeting of February, 1962, both commissions concluded that sufficient hope of union exists to warrant additional conversations.

Consultation on Church Union

Growing out of a call by the One Hundred and Seventy-Third General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., representatives of the Methodist Church, the Protestant Episcopal Church, the United Church of Christ, and the United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. met in Washington in April, 1962, and formulated a Consultation on Church Union looking to the formation of a church in the United States truly catholic, truly evangelical, and truly reformed. At that meeting three additional churches were given invitations to send representatives to this consultation or, failing that, observers. The Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) were one of those three. Our formal invitation was received in June 1962. Though Resolution No. 47 empowered the Council on Christian Unity to engage in such conversations on union, a resolution concerning this invitation is being presented to this International Convention, so that the Council may feel certain its decisions represent the views of the brotherhood. This resolution was passed without dissenting vote.

United Church of Canada

The Committee on Christian Unity of the All-Canada Committee is still in communication with the United Church Committee. The executive secretary brought a series of lectures on church unity to the Ontario Disciples, and interest is still alive in this conversation.

Department of Ecumenical Study

W. B. Blakemore, chairman

George G. Beazley, Jr., director

Commission on Rapid Social Change

Walter W. Sikes, chairman

The Commission on Christian Responsibility Toward Areas of Rapid Social Change, sponsored jointly by the Council on Christian Unity and the Department of Christian Action and Community Service of the United Christian Missionary Society, brought to a close its three year study in this area and, through its chairman, reported its results to the appropriate division of the World Council of Churches. Through a fraternal worker status with the Council, its chairman was enabled to study conditions in Africa and Asia, while contributing to various study institutes in those areas. A volume on this work is now in process of preparation. The steering committee has met to reconstitute the commission as the Commission on Church and Society, which will continue similar studies in areas where rapid social change has already taken place. The newly constituted commission will meet in the spring of 1963.

Commission on Theology of Mission

Joseph M. Smith, chairman

Under the joint sponsorship of the Council on Christian Unity and the Division of World Mission of the United Christian Missionary Society, the Commission on Theology of Mission held a two-day meeting in April, 1962.

The final papers in the original study were read and discussion on the future of this commission took place. Its members agreed that a final meeting was needed to summarize the progress in understanding what had taken place and to explore the need for the appointment of a new commission, under enlarged sponsorship, to explore studies of this nature.

Commission on Biblical Theology
Herndon Wagers, chairman

The Commission on Biblical Theology held a two-day meeting in April of 1962 to evaluate its studies to this point and to project its work for the future. The chairman of the other two commissions were invited to be present and to report on their own commissions. The chairman of the committee on Ecumenical Study reported on actions taken at New Delhi concerning the Division of Studies for the World Council of Churches. It was pointed out that the general theme, The Finality of Jesus Christ in an Age of Universal History, was one in which all our commissions might share. The executive secretary discussed the assignment for a detailed study on baptism and the Lord's Supper committed to the Council by Resolution No. 54 at Kansas City, and it was decided that this commission was the area where this should be considered. The commission will meet twice yearly in the future, the next meeting to be held in November, 1962. The new name will be the Commission on Theology and Unity.

Department of Ecumenical Service

Spencer P. Austin, chairman
Virgil A. Sly, director

Inter-Church Aid

After consultation with the World Council staff and representatives of churches in the areas concerned, projects totalling $224,450.00 were recommended by the Department for inclusion in the 1962 Week of Compassion offering.

Fraternal Workers

Through funds provided by the Week of Compassion offering, the Disciples continued to support three fraternal workers: William Nottingham, Associate Secretary of CIMADE, Hallam Shorrock for special work with the East Asia Division of Inter-Church Aid, and James D. Wyker, Staff of East Pakistan Christian Council. During the year two of these pieces of work were brought to a close. William Nottingham, beginning July, 1962, will, as a fraternal worker, be director of the Ecumenical Institute of Glay, France, and will serve two Lutheran Churches in that area. James Wyker, having closed his work in East Pakistan, is considering a number of new opportunities. Walter W. Sikes was aided in travel which made contributions to a number of churches and to the Department of Church and Society of the Division of Study of the World Council of Churches.

Scholarships

The Council scholarship for ecumenical study at the Eleventh Session of the Graduate School of Ecumenical Studies at Chateau de Bossey (1962-63), provided by the Irwin-Sweeney-Miller Foundation, was awarded to Roger N.

Anderson, recently graduated from Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis.

Conferences and Interpretation

Publications and Distributions

The informal monthly newsletter, "Beazley Buzz," was distributed to members monthly and to all ministers twice a year. Two issues of MID-STREAM, the new quarterly journal, were issued.

A copy of the Peter Ainslie Lecture for 1960 at Rhodes University was sent to all members of the Council on Christian Unity and a copy of the book, "No Darkness at All," a report on the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches at New Delhi, was mailed to all ministers.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

The major support of the Council is from undesignated contributions through Unified Promotion, plus membership dues and occasional gifts from individuals and churches. Membership is open to members of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) who are in accord with the purpose of the Council.

CERTIFICATE OF AUDITOR

I have examined the accompanying statements of cash receipts and expenditures of The Council on Christian Unity, Indianapolis, Indiana, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1962.

The examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as were considered necessary in the circumstances, including confirmation of amounts on deposits with The American Fletcher National Bank and Trust Company at June 30, 1962, directly with the depository.

The statements have been prepared on a cash receipts and expenditures basis and therefore do not purport to present financial position and results of operations except as related to cash basis non-profit organizations.

In my opinion, the statements of cash receipts and expenditures for the year ended June 30, 1962 have been fairly summarized on the basis indicated.

Disciples of Christ Historical Society

1101 Nineteenth Avenue, South, Nashville 12, Tennessee

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Disciples of Christ Historical Society was established May 7, 1941, in St. Louis, Missouri, with the approval of the International Convention then in session. The organization of the new agency came as a result of the work of the Historical Commission appointed by the 1939 convention which met in Richmond, Virginia.

The first five years were spent largely in surveying the field, correlating the interests of various groups, and making plans. In 1946 the Society accepted the offer of Culver-Stockton College to set up its headquarters and archives there with the privilege of using the Henry Barton Robison Collection as a nucleus around which the Society would build its own collection of materials.

On April 2, 1952, the Society moved to its new location in the Joint University Library, Nashville, Tennessee. This came as a result of a called meeting of the Board of Directors in St. Louis, Missouri, November 29, 1951, when the decision was made to move the headquarters, archives and library to Nashville by the first of June, and to start full-time operation with a staff of three people.

The Society is the only organization among Disciples of Christ whose sole purpose is the locating, collecting, cataloging and arranging for use the historical materials of the brotherhood. The archives, library and museum contain thousands of books, pamphlets, periodicals, manuscripts, documents, letters, church records, photographs and illustrative materials concerning those religious groups which have grown from the work of Elias Smith, Abner Jones, James O'Kelly, Barton W. Stone, Thomas and Alexander Campbell, and others who revolted from the autocratic sectarianism of the early nineteenth century.

The resources of the Society are open to all persons, regardless of race or creed, and the curator at all times is willing to advise graduate students, research workers, and all who are seeking a knowledge concerning the Disciples of Christ, Churches of Christ, and the Christian Church.

The Society is housed in the Thomas W. Phillips Memorial at 1101 Nineteenth Avenue, South, in the heart of Nashville's "University Center," area. The million dollar research center was dedicated in October, 1958. The Thomas W. Phillips Memorial, most spacious and complete of any building devoted to the heritage of a protestant group, is a gift to the brotherhood of the Phillips family of western Pennsylvania.

ANNUAL REPORT

July 1, 1961—June 30, 1962

Some of the high lights in the year's operation are:

I. Acquisitions—

The Society received 1,012 lots of material from 545 different sources. These came from 378 individuals, 119 churches, 47 agencies, organizations, and publishers, and one unidentifiable source. In addition, the Society received on a regular basis more than 200 general brotherhood periodicals, and nearly 1,000 church newsletters.

Some of the outstanding and significant materials are listed below:

1. Organizations for which the Society is archivist have continued to send materials. Many boxes came from the Christian Churches of Georgia, Inc., the Brazil Christian Mission, the United Christian Missionary Society, and the World Convention of Churches of Christ.
2. Books were received from the libraries of Garland Farmer, Frank L. Purnell, and Elmer Anthony. Mrs. Charles M. Sharpe sent books from her late husband's library. The First Christian Church of Marshall, Mo., allowed the Society to select needed books from the library of the late Harvey Baker Smith. Edmund Wilkes, Jr., sent books formerly belonging to Lanceford B. Wilkes. Miss Virginia Snively gave books from her father's library, including a scrapbook concerning her father, George L. Snively, and many wanted copies of the Christian Philanthropist.

3. To the growing collection of personal papers in the library were added those of S. S. Lappin, Marshall Wingfield, F. E. Davison, W. M. Hardy, D. Pat Henderson, John Mullen, Robert Graham Baxter, and A. P. Aten.
4. Books, pamphlets, pictures, periodicals and personal papers of the late Hugh Lomax were added this spring as gifts of Mrs. Ruth J. Lawrence and Mrs. J. J. Edward Moseley. (Included was the Restoration of King Solomon's Temple, a fine museum item, made by John G. Alber). Many books, periodicals, and pamphlets were received from the estates of Mrs. J. C. Adamson and Mrs. C. O. Pickett.
5. Some rare pamphlets and documents were given to the Society by Spencer P. Austin. A collection of early Kentucky Baptist Association Minutes was given by Mrs. J. O. Moore and Mrs. Cecil Slaughter.
6. During the year, many bound volumes of periodicals were received. The first two volumes of the Christian Standard came from the First Christian Church of Pasadena, Calif.; D. E. Harrell gave several years of the Christian Standard and the American Christian Review on microfilm; Ray Jarman sent volumes of the Christian Courier; Garth Henrichs gave a nearly complete file of Sunshine Magazine; the publishers of The Preceptor sent volumes of that periodical; the 1961 volumes were received of World Call, the Voice of Freedom, and the Restoration Review; and the Richmond Avenue Christian Church of Buffalo, N. Y., sent a leather bound file of the Millennial Harbinger, which was in excellent condition.
7. On June 24, the Evanston Christian Church of Cincinnati, Ohio, held its last meeting; and the congregation disbanded to join other churches in the area. The final program included the turning over of the church records to the Society.
8. New material for the James A. Garfield file came from Kenneth W. Neal, Miss Clara Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Monroe, Miss Grace Young, Walter Forebeller, and the library of Williams College.

II. Processing of Materials—

1. The accession record total of 10,734 cataloged books and pamphlets indicates that 471 items were cataloged during the year. There is still a great mass of material waiting to be cataloged.
2. Miss Mate Graye Hunt did the preliminary cataloging of the histories of 1,350 churches.
3. The appointment of Dr. Woodrow W. Wasson as archivist is a forward step in unlocking for use a twenty-year collection of manuscripts, personal papers, and organizational records.

III. Service Requests—

Private study facilities were used by fourteen persons. Their occupancy ranged from two days to twelve months.

Four hundred eighty-one requests for services were received by mail. Included were questions concerning thesis topics, bibliographical services, and loans of materials to libraries, churches, and individuals.

No record was kept for the many Nashville students who used the reading room or for the telephone requests.

IV. Projects—

1. The Christian-Evangelist Indexing and Microfilming Project which has been underwritten by the Christian Board of Publication has been completed. The index, printed in three volumes, will be published this fall; and the first copies will be released at the International Convention Assembly in Los Angeles.
2. The indexing and annotating of the Alexander Campbell Travel Letters in the Millennial Harbinger, which was temporarily suspended while Dr. Woodrow W. Wasson worked on the Christian-Evangelist index, will be resumed again this fall. Tentative plans call for publication in 1963.

V. Special Events—

1. The Society held the first midyear meeting of the Board of Trustees on February 26 and 27, in the T. W. Phillips Memorial. Thirteen of the Society's eighteen trustees were present, and eight brought their wives who were special guests of the Board. The Society has established the practice of two trustee meetings a year—one at the time of the International Convention, and the midyear meeting which will always be held in the Thomas W. Phillips Memorial.
2. The Society marked the achievement of its one-hundredth Life Membership with a special service of presentation in the Vine Street Christian Church, Nashville, Tenn., on June 24. The one-hundredth Life Member is Dr. Roger T. Nooe, minister ecumenical of Vine Street Christian Church.

VI. The Disciples of Christ Historical Foundation—

The Disciples of Christ Historical Society has created an instrument to receive permanent funds.

By action of the Board of Trustees, at their annual meeting held September 29, 1961, in Kansas City, Mo., the Disciples of Christ Historical Foundation was established.

On October 23, in a history-making session of the Executive Committee, and in fulfillment of instructions authorized by the Board of Trustees, the official document was signed. Moments later the Disciples of Christ Historical Foundation was ushered into life by the initiatory gift of one thousand dollars, presented to the Society by J. Edward Moseley, on behalf of himself and his wife Louise, and other members of the Moseley family.

VIII. Visitors—

Registered visitors, 1,248, came from 36 states, and seven foreign countries. Nineteen different religious faiths were represented. Twelve out-of-town groups visited the Thomas W. Phillips Memorial during the year. These were adult and youth groups that come from Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, New Mexico, Ohio, Tennessee, and Texas.

AUDITOR'S STATEMENT

July 24, 1962

To the Board of Trustees of
Disciples of Christ Historical Society

In our opinion, the accompanying statement presents fairly the investment in a common trust fund and cash in bank of the Disciples of Christ Historical Society at June 30, 1962 resulting from the cash transactions, and the recorded cash receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination of this statement was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. It was impracticable for us to extend our examination of membership contributions and other gifts received from the general public and churches beyond accounting for amounts so recorded.

The accounts of the Society are maintained on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements and accordingly do not include accruals of income or expense. All purchases of property and equipment are charged directly to expense when made and are not included as assets in the accompanying statement.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

It was and is the purpose of the Society to work toward an understanding of the Church in the New Testament within the framework of a university in Europe. After extensive investigation Tubingen was selected as the most suitable location.

From the Disciples of Christ the Society is striving to share insights and ideals with others so that together more of the fulness of the gospel and Church of Christ may be discerned and realized.

Our basic purpose is expressed in the light of a fundamental conviction: that apprehension of Christian truth and life in connection with the intellectual and theological processes of European academic life can be of significance in the course of the Church universal.

Annual Report

The work of the European Society continues to address itself primarily to an educational objective. Theological inquiry forms a substantial part of the university and church life of Europe. The disposition to probe causes and effects is fundamental to the continental mind, especially in Germany.

After years of exploration in Tübingen, the Society has determined to inaugurate a practical means of entering into the processes of theological inquiry. One such process is that of research; in Germany a common practice is to create institutes for this purpose. Among these is the Institute for Ecumenical Theology and Missions in the University of Tübingen. In connection with this Institute we have been invited to specialize in the field of Church origins. Since the last report of the Society this invitation has been accepted. A library is being gathered within the Institute, and on loan to it, for use of students and scholars. This library relates specifically to the material bearing upon the origin of the Church, from late Judaism to early Christianity. Over four hundred volumes have been collected already. Applications for use of these facilities may now be addressed to Earl Stuckenbruck in Tübingen.

The development of the Society's program of research has necessitated that Mr. Stuckenbruck give his time fully to this phase of the work. To fill the important need of pastoral leadership for the congregation James Crouch and family were invited to go to Tübingen as the second representatives of the Society's staff. They arrived in Tübingen in October of 1961. In April of 1962 Mr. Crouch was installed as pastor of the church.

The church in Tübingen makes possible a concrete fellowship in which the will of Christ is received and expressed not merely by those who participate, but to contribute also to the wider church life of both official and free churches. We avail ourselves of this opportunity with concern that the church should fully conform to the intent and design of Christ for his church and its unity. Twice during the past year a group of students from the ecumenical circle of the student church has visited the worship service, and has invited Mr. Stuckenbruck a second time to discuss the church with them.

As if by divine providence, the Society acquired a significant building which lends itself to the purposes both of the institute and the church. The Society's plot of ground on the south side of the city was exchanged for a well-located and securely-built residence. It is located on the main thoroughfare, not far from the center area of the university, in the north part of the city. The residence contains eleven rooms on four floors. Renovations are being completed so that it will be usable for studies of both representatives, for conferences with students and others, as well as for meeting rooms of the church itself. Equity in the Society's plot of ground stood at $7,000 when the exchange for the residence was made. The residence sold for $40,500, but that sum was received by the Society for its plot of ground. Three thousand dollars in taxes were paid by the Society, and $8,000 is currently being solicited to make necessary renovations including central heating.

It is understood that the Society does not aspire to contribute to the endeavors now being undertaken in ecumenical programs. The Society and the Institute are dedicated to educational service rather than to pragmatic social programming and negotiations. In the sense of interest and spiritual concern the Society is in sympathy with the modern ecumenical movement. In terms however of the organizational formulation of churches into an ecumenical church order the Society feels that the presently existing organizations both within our own brotherhood and elsewhere are entirely adequate to care for this aspect of the work. We therefore confine ourselves to research and theological investigation.

The Society therefore endeavors to lend its encouragement to all those who seek to understand the will of our Lord more adequately. The Society seeks to extend an irenic spirit to those who will receive such disposition. It would seek to define fellowship in terms of the basic Christian faith and would regard all other matters as lying within that area of free inquiry through which the more perfect knowledge of the will of God may eventually be found.

AUDITOR'S STATEMENT

Indianapolis, Indiana

We have examined the statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the European Evangelistic Society, for the period July 1, 1961 to June 30, 1962. The scope of our examination was limited to a verification that recorded receipts were properly deposited in depository accounts, and that cancelled checks were on file from the depository bank as evidence of recorded disbursements.

Because of the limitations in the scope of our examination as outlined in the preceding paragraph, we are unable to express an opinion as to the fairness with which the accompanying statement presents the cash receipts and disbursements of the Society, although nothing came to our attention to indicate that those receipts and disbursements are not fully reported.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The National Association of State Secretaries is a professional fellowship of State Secretaries and the Secretary of the All-Canada Committee.

The purpose is stated thus in the constitution of the Association: "The object of this Association shall be to promote fellowship, to acquaint one another with the methods of work employed in the different states, to promote the efficiency of the work for which its members are responsible. To coordinate programs and plans of work for state missions, to assemble reports of work actually done through the State Society, to present the same to the International Convention of Disciples of Christ, in the religious press of the Brotherhood, and in these and other ways to bring upon the Brotherhood life the impact of the total work of State Missions."

The State Secretaries Association meets annually to discuss problems of mutual interest, and to share experiences of the various Secretaries in the administration of the work of state missions. This organization raises no money except for expenses incidental to the work of its officers, such as printing, correspondence, reports to the Annual Program Book and Year Book. These costs are covered by an assessment against state and area funds.

Through this Association representatives are nominated to the various agencies, councils and committees where representation of the State Secretaries is indicated.

One of the outstanding values of this Association is to be found in the opportunity for fellowship and personal acquaintance among the Secretaries themselves. These men have many common problems, and in the administration of their work, share common ideals as servants of God among the churches. Through the Association they are enabled to speak with a common voice on matters of Brotherhood policy.

At the annual meeting of the Association, national personnel representing programs related to the State Secretaries' office are invited for consultation.

The work and fellowship of the Association is enriched by an invitation to the chairmen of the state and area boards to attend the annual meetings of the Association.

AUDITOR'S STATEMENT

Mr. Dyre Campbell, Exec. Secy.
Kansas Christian Missionary Society
1111 Fillmore
Topeka, Kansas

Dear Sir:

In accordance with your request, I have examined the books and records of the National Association of State Secretaries for the year ended June 30, 1962. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the accompanying statement (above) of cash receipts and disbursements and the related statement of cash on hand present fairly the financial position of the Association at June 30, 1962, and the results of its operation for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Respectfully submitted
GEORGE L. SLIGAR

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

In February, 1886, a group gathered in St. Louis, Missouri, to discuss the problem of the orphaned baby and the aged men and women of the Christian Churches. Gradually a plan took shape, and on March 10, 1887, an organization was formed, a charter secured, and The National Benevolent Association of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) was born. The purpose, as set forth in the Charter, was: "To help the helpless, to give a home to the homeless, to provide care for the sick, and comfort for the distressed."

From that beginning 75 years ago, 19 NBA Homes have grown—8 for children and 11 for aged. As it was never the intention of the NBA to centralize its work, these Homes developed from coast to coast where the need existed and the money was available.

Nearly 2,000 persons are served in our NBA Homes annually, and nearly 2,000 whom the NBA Homes are not equipped to serve are referred to other agencies for help. More than 50,000 have been given Christian care since 1887. Other thousands have been served by referral and counselling. Children live in our NBA Homes because they have lost one or both parents by death, were victims of broken homes, were wards of the juvenile courts, abandoned children, foundlings, or children born out of wedlock. Our NBA Homes for aged serve pensioners, retired full-time Christian workers, and some able to pay for their care. Faithful members of the Christian Churches, in a state of health acceptable to the Admissions Committees of the Homes, may be admitted. They bring what they have and the churches supply what they lack. Last year 907 children, 900 aged and 63 mothers were served, making a total of 1,870. 1,104 aged and 734 children were referred to other agencies by the NBA Homes last year.

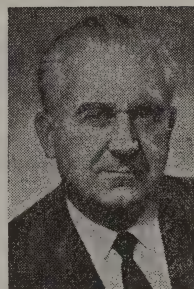

The Christmas Offering of the Brotherhood has been designated for Benevolence.

Many doctors across the country contribute their valuable services to the various Homes. The immediate oversight of each Home is committed to a Board of men and women, members of the churches in the Area where the NBA Home is located. Nearly 600 pastors, laymen and women serve on our Home Boards and NBA Board of Trustees. Nearly 600 staff are employed at the Homes and the National NBA Offices. The National Benevolent Association, with headquarters in St. Louis, is the administrative body for the various Homes and some members of the NBA Board of Trustees are approved in open assembly of the International Convention.

ANNUAL REPORT

This fifth year as President of the National Benevolent Association has been filled with conventions, speeches, sermons, many inter-agency contacts including the important meetings of the Council of Agencies, staff conferences with NBA Representatives and Administrators of our 19 NBA Homes, NBA office staff, NBA Board of Trustees and the Homes' Boards. There have been visits to some of the Homes. This has been a busy year with an ever increasing tempo of activity and responsibility. There have been pressures of many kinds.

The Brotherhood has not kept pace with the goals of the Decade which has caused the Evaluation Committee of the Council of Agencies to review all askings approved and otherwise. The churches fell short of the 1960-61 asking for NBA about $200,000. In faith that the work would be supported and at the request of the churches as well as in answer to great needs, the NBA has added new facilities and new Homes, but income has not yet caught up with these advancements. We have been under the necessity to participate in the budgets of new World Outreach staffs in several states. Therefore, the NBA must proceed with caution, yet with faith. We must make secure our present work and our commitments. It requires at least three years for income to catch up to new facilities.

We are grateful for our one general fund because it has made it possible for us to see our financial situation more realistically than ever before. In addition, we have an improved budget control program. We can now see where our needs are and where we are going. We know what we are doing and what we are not doing, and we can face our problems with more light and understanding because of our Research & Service Department, our Future Work Committee, our policy on the establishment of new work, the increased effectiveness of our Treasury Department with the work of Mr. John Norris, NBA Auditor, and our IBM equipment. I also wish to pay tribute to a loyal staff. Without such a staff of nearly 600 at the NBA offices and the NBA

Homes, we could not accomplish what we have been privileged to do. I am indeed grateful for the devotion of the nearly 600 NBA Homes' Board members.

Considerable study is being given to more departmentalizing our NBA organization. Our NBA Homes' Administrators and Boards must also exercise more discipline and restraint to keep us in balance as to program, the availability of resources, and the expenditure of manpower and funds. Our standing with all agencies is good. The unified approach to states and churches is quite well received generally.

The "Conversations on Benevolence" held across the nation about three years ago revealed a sentiment for NBA to give serious consideration to the possibility of going into Unified Promotion, the major fund-raising agency of the Brotherhood for 69 agencies. In the "Decade of Decision" (1960-1970), NBA is under the discipline followed by UP causes. Some state conventions voted to urge NBA to enter UP. There have been other similar expressions on the part of ministers and churches favorable for NBA to make this move. On May 2, 1961, the NBA Board of Trustees appointed an NBA Unified Promotion Committee, composed of people with varying viewpoints, to study the possible future relationship of NBA and UP. They had some meetings with Dr. Spencer Austin, UP Executive Secretary, and held a joint NBA and UP meeting in St. Louis on March 28, 1962, with members of the UP Central Committee. On May 1, 1962, the NBA Board of Trustees voted to request application to go into Unified Promotion to become effective July 1, 1963. Dr. Austin is to present NBA's request to the Unified Promotion Central Committee, and to the Unified Promotion Board in September, 1962. But NBA is not yet in Unified Promotion, and offerings should continue to be sent to the NBA offices, 2nd Floor, Jefferson & Pine, St. Louis 3, Missouri, or to the NBA Homes, for the year beginning July 1, 1962 and ending June 30, 1963.

The NBA program of benevolence is implemented in the local church through the Committee on World Outreach, and the Committee on Christian Action and Community Service. Some churches have appointed Benevolence Committees. The Benevolence dollars are a part of the World Outreach dollars. Christmas is the "Special Day for Benevolence" in the Brotherhood calendar of Special Days.

NBA Family Talk, the national magazine on benevolence, edited by Miss Jessie M. Burke, continues to be circulated 4 times a year free to ministers, church leaders, and members of churches as they request it. The major publicity program for the Association and the NBA Homes is under the supervision of Miss Burke, NBA Publicity Director & Editor, working with the Homes' publicity committees, and the Homes' Administrators and the NBA Representatives. The NBA Education Committee works with specific things dealing with benevolence education. We are fortunate to have J. Edward Moseley, free lance writer, for feature articles for the Association through various Brotherhood publications. The NBA Representatives have maintained a close relationship with the churches, state organizations, inter-agency promotional programs, and local church groups, so that the best interests of the total mission of the church is uppermost.

J. Edward Moseley was chairman of the NBA 75th Anniversary Committee. Our 75th Anniversary began March 10, 1961 and concluded on March 10, 1962. Our Anniversary received major attention in the Kansas City Assembly of the International Convention in October, 1961, and there was widespread interest in the NBA Anniversary Dinners and Teas across the nation.

Some important staff changes have occurred. Mr. Eugene W. Ott, of Hannibal, Missouri, became St. Louis Christian Home Administrator on April 15, 1962. Dr. J. Lloyd Black served as interim-administrator at the St. Louis Home from January 1, 1962 until April 15, 1962, along with his other duties as NBA Representative. Mrs. Anna G. Thorpe terminated 37½ years of administration at the Cleveland Christian Home on June 30, 1962. Rev. and Mrs. Lon I. Chamlee, of Pomona, California, are the interim-co-administrators at the Cleveland Home. Beginning July 1, 1962, Dr. James H. Tilsley is devoting full time as Colorado Christian Home Administrator. He had been carrying duties of NBA Representative and Home Administrator. Thomas M. Palmer resigned from his pastorate at First Christian Church, Harrison, Arkansas, to become the NBA Representative in Colorado, Kansas, Utah, Wyoming, New Mexico, as of July 15, 1962. He will reside in Salina, Kansas.

The Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships approved $3,390,267 for operational needs of NBA and the Homes for the year 1962-63, of which $1,464,802 is to come from church sources for day-by-day operation. The Commission also approved askings from church sources for Benevolence capital funds in the amount of $336,809 for the year 1962-63. These capital funds for benevolence will be used for expanding programs at the Homes and for the national program.

For the 12-month period July 1, 1961 through June 30, 1962, 907 children, 63 mothers were served in the 7 NBA Homes for children, and 900 elderly men and women were served in 11 NBA Homes, making a total of 1,870 in the NBA Family Circle. 123 children were in foster homes and 23 children were elsewhere under NBA supervision. 208 children were returned to their relatives and 80 were adopted. 734 children applied, who could not be received, but who were referred to other agencies for care. Of the 907 children served, 14 were full orphans, 53 were half orphans, 32 were eligible for adoption, but all were distressed and needed much love and Christian care. 34 children united with the church and were baptized. Of the 900 elderly persons served, 459 were past 80; 100 were past 90 years of age; 2 were past 100 years; 28 were blind; 53 were wheelchair patients; 55 were bed patients; and 76 were partial bed patients. 27 were ministers; 13 were ministers' wives; 64 were ministers' widows; 17 were missionaries. 144 had no income whatsoever; 278 aged had some income such as pensions, old age assistance, social security, etc., and 325 were on the waiting list at the Homes for Aged. 1,104 inquiries from elderly people the NBA Homes could not serve were referred to other agencies for help. 43,569 years of church membership were reported for the 900 aged members of the NBA Family Circle. More than 50,000 children and elderly have been served in the history of the NBA Homes from all states and 27 foreign countries. 1,526 mothers have been served and their babies planned for in the last 30 years of NBA history.

For the 12 months ended on December 31, 1961, our churches contributed $965,040.44 for the care of the NBA Family and the national program of benevolence, of which $392,021.77 was through the Christmas Offering, the special designated Day for Benevolence. Bequests totaled $442,135.13. There were 23 annuities issued ranging in amounts from $200 to $20,000, totaling $63,943.23. Receipts from other sources totaled $2,433,616.07.

Ground was broken for Woodhaven Christian Home for Exceptional Children in Columbia, Missouri, on October 29, 1961. The NBA Executive Committee on June 12, 1962, approved a major amount of immediate construction involving $1,552,027.62 for building the Therapy & Educational building and site development, and at a later date the pre-school housing center to be constructed at a cost of $693,992.63.

In my report last year, I mentioned that the Kansas Christian Home for Older People would be dedicated on November 26, 1961. The building had not progressed sufficiently for that date, so on June 3, 1962 the Kansas Christian Home was dedicated. Dedication services for the new Convalescent Center, providing bed care for 46, were held on March 18, 1962, culminating a week of open house and other activities at the California Christian Home in Rosemead.

The NBA Cottage program is progressing. There are three cottages on Oklahoma Christian Home grounds with five occupants; two cottages at Lenoir Memorial Home, with four occupants; the Lee cottage with two occupants at the California Christian Home with their Garden Apartments plans developing; the Douglas cottage occupied by Mrs. Douglas and a companion, on Illinois Christian Home grounds. Mr. Douglas passed away just before it was finished in the spring of 1962. Plans are under way for other cottages to be built at Lenoir and Oklahoma Homes. Duplexes are planned for a part of Kansas Christian Home expansion program.

The NBA has adopted a program for non-resident services to enable older persons to stay in their own homes so long as they can do so safely and comfortably. This means that eventually NBA hopes to have case-work services to point the way and encourage local churches to ferret out available services in the community including what the church might do to assist according to the needs of the individual person, always keeping in mind that ultimately the time will come when the only solution in meeting the individual's needs will be for that person to enter one of the NBA Homes. It is anticipated that this service can be rendered at a lesser cost and with greater satisfaction to the individual than by entering the NBA Home immediately.

A minister recently summarized our services in a letter to the NBA from West Virginia. A young man had come to his office seeking help for himself and his two sons, ages 6 and 8 years. The young man had one eye, was partially deaf, and was facing surgery. He had an opportunity to go to school on a rehabilitation program. His wife had divorced him and left him with the children. The minister hardly knew what to do, but did get in touch with the Cleveland Christian Home. Fortunately, they were able to take the two boys. The minister writes of the "wonderful feeling I had at that moment, when I read the letter from this NBA Home. I want to thank you and the National Benevolent Association for the interest that you have and for relieving this burden that had been placed upon my shoulders. Words cannot express my gratitude."

Several important committees will be functioning for the year 1962-63 reporting to the NBA Executive Committee. They are as follows:

AUDITOR'S OPINION

To the Board of Trustees of
The National Benevolent Association of The Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)

We have examined the accounts of:

THE NATIONAL BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES (DISCIPLES OF CHRIST)

for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1962, and submit herewith balance sheet at June 30, 1962 and revenues and expenditures statement for the year then ended.

The Association's investment in bonds, stocks, and other securities are carried on the balance sheet at cost without determination of market values at June 30, 1962. Data on file in support of church receipts, bequests, trusts and other revenue received by the Association were test-checked but we did not communicate directly with individuals and organizations to confirm the amounts recorded as received.

Funds in the custody of the Treasurers of the Homes and the receipts and disbursements of same are included in the accompanying statements based on monthly reports received by the Association from the Home Treasurers. The scope of our examination of such cash and investments was limited (except for those Homes which we ourselves audit) to an analysis of the Treasurers' reports and a review of the reports of independent auditors received to date from Homes. Cash and securities in trust funds held by various Homes are not included in the accompanying statements.

Investments in fixed assets described in the footnote on the balance sheet as "Investment in Homes' Properties" are carried at values of appraisals made many years ago plus subsequent additions at cost less estimated depreciation. The total shown is subject to increases and decreases which might be brought about if current appraisals were made, uniform in base and applied to all Homes.

In our opinion, subject to the exceptions stated in the preceding paragraphs, the accompanying balance sheet and statement of revenues and expenditures present fairly the financial position of the Association at June 30, 1962, and the results of its operations for the year then ended.

Yours very truly,

MARE AND COMPANY
Certified Public Accountants

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The National Christian Missionary Convention is a fellowship of Disciples of Christ, Christian churches, and Churches of Christ. The Convention was organized in Nashville, Tennessee, August, 1917. Preston Taylor of Nashville, Tennessee, was convener and organizer, and became the first president. Many of the brotherhood boards sent representation to give their support and encouragement to this Convention. The Convention serves more than 500 churches of its own constituency with congregations in 27 states of these United States.

The Convention has made progress during the years and it now has the full cooperation of all the brotherhood agencies and boards.

The Constitution and By-laws of the National Christian Missionary Convention states the following purpose and function:

It shall be the purpose of this organization to cooperate in the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; to promote the causes of evangelism; to foster and maintain a program of Christian education, missions, and benevolence among the Christian churches of the brotherhood; to perform such general supervisory functions as the best interest and work may require; and to cooperate with the International Convention, The United Christian Missionary Society, Unified Promotion and other brotherhood agencies and boards or movements for the furthering of the world program of the church, and to work with other religious movements chosen by the brotherhood.

To promote a closer spirit of cooperation and fellowship among our own churches.

To provide a large opportunity for the development of leadership and responsibility for building the Kingdom of God.

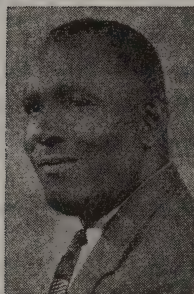

To provide a cooperative medium of self-expression and development that our best contribution might be made to the work of the church in the world.

To provide a medium through which we can interpret the needs and concerns of our people.

To provide an organization through which our churches can participate officially in brotherhood activities.

To provide a channel for integrating the members of our churches into the total life of the brotherhood.

The National Christian Missionary Convention is the program channel by which the planned program of the brotherhood may reach all the churches.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Recognizing the extreme importance and value of a church representing the Disciples of Christ in the heart of the Nation's Capital, the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ, meeting in Memphis, Tennessee, brought into being as a Brotherhood institution the National City Christian Church. Alexander Campbell himself had expressed his keen desire for such a National Church, and other great leaders who followed him saw the desirability of having the Brotherhood establish this church, which would not only be a symbol of the strength and purpose of the Disciples, but would also be a home for the thousands of Disciple young people who through the years would come to Washington to work for the Government of the United States, and would return to their home churches.

Following the action of the International Convention, a Corporation with a board of fifteen trustees, was set up to hold the property of the church for the Brotherhood, and lots were purchased on Thomas Circle in Washington for a Sanctuary and an Educational Building. Construction was begun in 1928 and the Sanctuary was completed and dedicated in October, 1930. About 40,000 Disciples of Christ across the country made contributions and pledges for the Brotherhood's church in Washington, and several leading families made substantial gifts. However, because of the depression of the 1930's, many of the pledges were never paid, and in 1933 the debt on the Sanctuary was $640,000. Getting the debt paid was a tremendous struggle, but through the strenuous efforts of the ministers of the church, the local congregation which gave most sacrificially, the contributions of the Christian Board of Publication, individuals, and the churches of the Brotherhood, the mortgage on the Sanctuary was finally burned in April, 1950.

For twenty years, while the Sanctuary building was so heavily mortgaged, the congregation of the National City Christian Church had to use for their educational, social and community programs buildings erected in 1881, and located a block and a half away from the Sanctuary. Upon the burning of the mortgage on the Sanctuary, a campaign was at once started to complete the original plans for the Church to erect an educational building immediately adjoining the Sanctuary building. Ground for the new building was broken in May, 1953, and on November 7, 1954, the Alexander Campbell Educational Building was occupied. The original building plans included designs for a Memorial Chapel to be erected to the east of the Church Edifice. Now more than thirty years after the Dedication of the Sanctuary, through the generosity of a devoted Christian family, the Chapel has been completed. It was dedicated June 24, 1962. The Earle Wilfley Wayside Prayer Chapel is a replica of the study of Alexander Campbell at Bethany College, surrounded by massive pillars of Indiana limestone. Already thousands of people have seen it and visited it. It will, in addition to being a place of prayer, give emphasis to the dreams for Christian unity held by all Disciples. It may be added, increasingly National City Christian Church is serving as witness to and a home for all people.

ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1961, to June 30, 1962

Mr. Theodore P. Beasley, chairman of the Board of the Republic National Life Insurance Company of Dallas, Texas, was re-elected President of the Board of Trustees of the National City Christian Church Corporation at its annual meeting on May 5, 1962. Dr. George R. Davis began the second year of his Ministry with the National City Christian Church in July 1962. During the past year, the largest ingathering of new members occurred in the church's history, with the exception of the "War Years," with nearly 200 people uniting. The largest budget was adopted. Many unusual events have occurred in Missions and World Outreach. National City Christian Church set the pace by observing Food for Peace two years before approved in the Kansas City Convention a year ago. Many outstanding meetings have been held in the area of international good-will, not the least of which was Fashions for Friendship sponsored by the Christian Women's Fellowship, with representatives of 10 Latin American countries participating and the Ambassador of Paraguay as special honored guest. A concert to provide support for the Chinese Church was held in the Sanctuary. The tri-racial Daily Vacation Church School was held for the seventh year in cooperation with the Luther Place Memorial Lutheran Church. People of many races attend the services of the Church. National City Christian Church supplies more funds for the Inner-City project than any other church, with one exception, and has plans for the use of the property for several projects this season. A Study Commission has been working for ten months to perfect Decade of Decision plans and goals, with progress being made in every area, and among the goals the achieving as nearly as possible within the ten-year period, equal giving for self and others.

The National City Christian Church is constantly pressing onward in its endeavor to represent the Brotherhood of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) here in the Nation's Capital. The indebtedness on the Alexander Campbell Educational Building has been gradually reduced by semi-annual payments on interest and principal, the present indebtedness amounting to $148,000. The Earle Wilfley Memorial Wayside Prayer Chapel, constructed and dedicated in 1962, brings to completion the entire building program as originally conceived for this great Brotherhood enterprise.

The Christian Church Brotherhood has moved forward wisely in establishing in Washington, D. C., the crossroads of the world, a National Church. The buildings and property have a value of over 4 million dollars, owned in its entirety by the Brotherhood. Each year over 7 million visitors come to Washington, D. C. Many are from foreign lands and many thousands of high school and college students are numbered among those who visit our National Church. Our Church is, therefore, leaving a lasting impression on all who see or visit it in Washington, D. C.

In order to carry forward a well-planned program for service not only to the Brotherhood-at-large but also in a world-wide outreach, permanent financing for such an enlarged program has been started through the Perpetual Endowment and Special Trust Fund of the National City Christian Church Corporation of Washington, D. C. Many individuals and organizations have already contributed to this fund. Some gifts have come from individuals in memory of loved ones. The fund is being promoted in keeping with the aims of the Brotherhood's Decade program. The income from this fund will be used for the purpose of maintaining religious church services and related activities, recognizing particularly the national and world needs and opportunities that can be served from the principal seat of Government of the United States.

The National City Christian Church, the National Church of the Brotherhood, must continue its outreach for the Gospel of Jesus Christ in ever-increasing vigor, strength and power. We covet the continued loyalty and support of individuals and churches of the Brotherhood to help the National Church in its endeavors to carry forward the ever-expanding program for God's Kingdom.

The National Evangelistic Association of the Disciples of Christ

Tampa, Florida

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The National Evangelistic Association was launched at old Bethany Assembly in Indiana by Charles Reign Scoville and other prominent evangelists, including J. V. Updike, S. M. Martin, J. H. O. Smith, and J. V. Coombs. In the early 20's, Dr. Scoville joined with state secretaries C. W. Cauble and G. I. Hoover of Indiana, H. H. Peters of Illinois and Jesse M. Bader, then a highly successful evangelistic pastor, in sponsoring a series of evangelistic institutes in strategic areas. For many years the Association worked through the United Christian Missionary Society. More recently, it has become a separate agency reporting directly to the International Convention.

The purpose of the National Evangelistic Association is in the field of fellowship and inspiration rather than promotion. By means of a convention, held just prior to the International Convention, stirring addresses on evangelism inspire pastors of local churches to greater accomplishment in winning men to Christ, and those who have been particularly successful as evangelists share their methods and spirit with others. In this way the National Evangelistic Association strives to make the business of evangelism the first business of the church of Christ.

NATIONAL EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION
ANNUAL REPORT

175

It is the purpose of the National Evangelistic Association to share with others in giving added emphasis to the cause of evangelism among the Disciples of Christ and to afford a closer fellowship for all those, ministers and laymen, who are interested in this cause. It sustains a close working relationship with the Department of Evangelism of the United Christian Missionary Society and reports to the International Convention of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). The Association seeks to bring about its purposes largely through an annual Convention held immediately preceding the meeting of the International Convention. Membership is open to all upon payment of annual dues of one dollar.

AUDITORS' OPINION

We have examined the accounting records of the National Evangelistic Association, Disciples of Christ for the year ended June 30, 1962. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the above statement presents fairly the recorded cash transactions of the National Evangelistic Association for the year ended June 30, 1962, and the balance of cash on deposit at that date.

Pension Fund of Christian Churches

Hollis Lee Turley, President
800 Test Building, Indianapolis 4, Indiana
MElrose 4-4504

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Pension Fund binds together some 5700 ministers, educators, evangelists, chaplains, missionaries, state and national executives and approximately 7,900 churches in the support of the ministry in old age, death, and total and permanent disability.

The Pension Fund operates the Pension Plan, the 1919 Pension System and Ministerial Relief. It maintains an Additional Benefits Department for the ministry, enters into annuity agreements, receives bequests from wills, and administers gift money. Further, it invests the funds received, pays benefits, and conducts a Christian business organization for the benefit of the church and the ministry. All work is carried on under the policies laid down by the Trustees, and approved by the International Convention.

The promotion and operation of the Pension Plan is the largest single responsibility of the Pension Fund. Under the Plan, member dues are 3% of the monthly salary; church dues are 9%. Churches, large and small, participate, with the larger churches helping to carry a part of the load for the smaller ones that every minister might be protected. As of December 31, 1961, there were 5,614 members supported by 5,853 church or organization accounts.

Retirement pensions are paid to members who retire after age 65. Disability pensions are paid those who become totally and permanently disabled. Widow and minor child pensions are paid when the member dies in retirement, disability or active service. There were 1,642 pensioners under the Plan as of December 31, 1961.

Many of the pensions paid today are small, due to short periods of membership, the lack of church dues, and the meager salaries of the depression years. Because of the increased cost of living, supplemental checks are issued each quarter to some 1,000 pensioners. These checks have been made possible by gift money received largely from the offerings of the churches. The Pension Fund shares in the money given to the causes of the brotherhood through Unified Promotion.

THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

(Sixty-sixth of Ministerial Relief—Thirty-first of Pension Plan)

- I. 66th Year of Ministerial Relief—organized 1895. Ministerial Relief continued in needy and worthy cases with 145 served during 1961.
- II. 1919 Pension System—established January, 1919. The 1919 Pension System was closed to membership June 30, 1928. Of the original 881 accounts there remained 6 active paying members as of December 31, 1961, and 304 receiving pensions.
- III. Pension Plan—began operation January 1, 1931. New Benefits added July 1, 1954, and October 1, 1956.

Membership

In 1961 there were 611 new 9% dues accounts started by churches and organizations in behalf of their ministers and employees, and 436 new members who began paying their individual 3% dues. As of December 31, 1961, there were 5,614 members and 1,642 beneficiaries, a total of 7,256 covered by the Pension Plan. The member accounts were supported by 5,853 church, college and organization accounts.

Claims

During the year 1961 there were 17 deaths among active members, 13 new cases of total and permanent disability and 86 age retirements. Among total disability cases there were 9 deaths and 2 where health was regained and the members returned to active service. In the age retirement pension group, there were 52 deaths and 4 ministers who returned to active service. Deaths among the active members and pensioners left 10 minor children and 62 widows as beneficiaries. Three new scholarship benefits were begun.

Auditor's Report

Board of Trustees,
Pension Fund of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)

Gentlemen:

We have examined the statement of financial condition of the Pension Fund of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) for the year ended December 31, 1961. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

THE PENSION FUND
ANNUAL REPORT

Our examination did not include a review of the actuarial basis of the pension plan, upon which an independent report is made by the Pension Fund's consulting actuaries.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of financial condition presents fairly the position of the Pension Fund of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) at December 31, 1961, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

We found that the Pension Fund's accounting records were well kept, and were adequate for the preparation of the accounting and statistical information required by the administrative staff of the Fund.

Unified Promotion

Spencer P. Austin, Executive Secretary
Box 19036, Indianapolis 19, Indiana
Fleetwood 3-1491

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Unified Promotion is an agency through which boards reporting to the International Convention (and voting to cooperate) appeal unitedly to the local churches for the support of their work.

Unified Promotion came into being as the result of repeated requests by the churches to the agencies for a co-ordination and unification of financial appeals. The first corporate action leading toward Unified Promotion came in 1909 at the Pittsburgh series of national conventions, at which time, on two different occasions, committees were appointed to confer with the agencies about the unification of appeals. The consultations of these committees resulted in the formation of The United Christian Missionary Society and the organization of the International Convention.

The second appeal from the churches for some procedure whereby congregations could look at the total outreach needs of the brotherhood came during the International Convention at Wichita, Kansas, in 1931. This resolution called on the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships to hold a conference with the representatives of all agencies reporting either directly or indirectly to the Convention. The stated purpose of this consultation was to find a means whereby all the needs of the agencies could be presented to the local churches in a single asking. Four years of consultation and planning resulted in the formation of Unified Promotion to begin operation July 1, 1935, with fifty-three agencies participating.

Today, Unified Promotion includes all the state missionary societies, all but one of the larger national agencies, and twelve educational institutions and foundations. The stated purposes for which Unified Promotion was established are as follows:

- to inspire our people regarding the total Christian enterprise.
- to mobilize the total strength of our brotherhood for the proclamation of the gospel to the whole world.
- to eliminate both the fact and the spirit of competition in the promotional approach of the agencies to the churches.
- to avoid overlapping of effort by the correlation of the facilities and the personnel of the existing agencies.
- to serve the local church through a stewardship program of education, the provision of stewardship plans, and the preparation of stewardship materials.
- to assist the local church through making available plans and materials for the enlistment of every member for the support of the current expense and missionary budgets.

ANNUAL REPORT, July 1, 1961, to June 30, 1962

I. HIGHLIGHTS OF 1961-62

A. Agency Relationships

Sixty-nine agencies participated in the work and fellowship of Unified Promotion during the year. This included ten colleges which participated in Unified Promotion for the first time. They are as follows:

Christian College, Columbia, Missouri
Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, Indiana
Culver-Stockton College, Canton, Missouri
Drury School of Religion, Springfield, Missouri
Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio
Jarvis Christian College, Hawkins, Texas
Kansas Bible Chair, Lawrence, Kansas
Missouri School of Religion, Columbia, Missouri
Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas
William Woods College, Fulton, Missouri

During the year, consultations were held with the National Benevolent Association and an application was received from this organization to begin membership in Unified Promotion July 1, 1963.

B. Supporting Churches

Four thousand, four hundred seventeen congregations shared in the support of the budget of the family of agencies in Unified Promotion. This is a gain of 53 churches over 1960-61 and a gain of 483 congregations over 1949-50. Some of these congregations began participation as the result of visitations from state or national agency representatives. Others became interested through district or state conventions. Still others were interested through Christian Men's Fellowship or Christian Women's Fellowship.

Many of the non-participating congregations are small, pastorless and semi-inactive. They need cultivation and encouragement by neighboring congregations and by agency leadership to realize they are part of a brotherhood. A number of them need to be awakened to a new and growing witness for Christ locally as well as beyond the community limits.

C. New Staff

Mr. Arthur Detamore came to the staff in January from the South Hills Christian Church in Fort Worth, Texas. He succeeded Dr. Hoke S. Dickinson as Co-ordinator of Agency Promotion for the Decade of Decision. His portfolio includes responsibility for co-ordinating promotion for all agencies, both for Capital and for operational budgets.

D. Financial Report

The Financial Report ending June 30, 1962, reveals an increase of $849,594.65. Within this increase, however, are included the support of the ten educational institutions which are participating in Unified Promotion for the first time. Their 1960-61 support totaled $439,790. The net gain for the year was $409,804.65 or 5.7622 per cent.

In addition to the new agencies coming into Unified Promotion, the Commission on Brotherhood Finance transferred the budget support for Military and Veterans Services and for the Pension Fund Dues for Reserve Chaplains in Active Service from the Week of Compassion to the budget of Unified Promotion. This added $90,000 to be raised in the budget of Unified Promotion without providing any additional source of receipts.

Designated and Capital gifts for 1961-62 totaled $1,584,982.48. Excluding the Congo Emergency Fund received in 1960-61 of more than $350,000.00, this represents a gain of $169,941.54.

II. STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

Unified Promotion gives leadership and provides materials for stewardship and finance in the local church with a belief that:

1. these functions should be integral to the church's ministry to people both within and beyond the congregation;
2. much of the spiritual vitality and effectiveness of a congregation is dependent upon these functions; and
3. stewardship education relative to the whole of life gives basic support to every task the church is called to do.

A. Themes

1. During the year 1961-62 the stewardship theme has been "Release Hidden Power." It has had wide and effective use. Planning has been done to make even wider use of the 1962-63 theme, "Let the Church Be Relevant."
2. In cooperation with other communions in the National Council we have used the 1961-62 Every Member Canvass theme, "Commit Thyself." The program planned for 1962-63 is built around the theme, "First They Gave Themselves." (II Cor. 8:5)

B. Materials

1. Stewardship and Every Member Canvass materials were sent to the churches in two seasonal packets during the year. In June, 1961, the annual packet went to every church carrying program suggestions for the new year, samples of EMC theme materials, sample leaflets, stewardship art for mimeograph and printing, and order cards.
In February 1962 the spring packet was mailed containing a new budget building aid, "Our Church Present and Future," a flyer introducing the new visitor's interpretation book, new leaflets and order cards. There was a 10 per cent increase over the previous year in the number of churches ordering canvass materials.
2. Through Unified Promotion our brotherhood was a production partner in the stewardship film for the year, "The Will of Augusta Nash." This popular film will remain a valuable tool for emphasis upon tithing during the Decade of Decision. We are also partners in a new stewardship film, "The Gift," introduced for use in 1962-63 and following.
3. Some materials have been shared with selected groups. State Secretaries and state Stewardship Chairmen have received copies of "Stewardship Facts." In addition a copy of "Christian Stewardship and Ecumenical Confrontation" went to all State Secretaries. Dr. Luther Powell's historical volume, "Money and the Church," was sent to every Disciple college and seminary. In cooperation with H. Parr Armstrong, author of the booklet, "Big Business, God and My Money," a sample copy was sent to every minister and missionary in the brotherhood.

C. Field Program

During 1961-62 the staff participated in stewardship and canvass institutes in six states or areas, assisted in five city-wide or state-wide simultaneous canvasses. Members of the staff have served in a stewardship conference for nationals attending the C.W.F. Quadrennial, a conference for the World Division staff and missionaries prior to the Kansas City International Convention, a seminar of several days in one state, state planning meetings, a pilot consultation on stewardship and promotion in one state, and numerous local church contacts. Guidance, materials, staff personnel have been made available for the Men's Fellowship Retreats carrying stewardship emphasis during 1962.

III. SPECIAL DAYS

Encouragement was given to congregations to observe special educational and promotional emphases at Thanksgiving, Easter, and Children's Day in support of the total program supported through Unified Promotion. Free educational and promotional materials were provided. During the year more than five and a half million items were distributed to the participating churches.

The number of churches observing the Special Days has increased over the years, increasing from less than 2500 in 1950 to more than 3500 in 1962. Most of these congregations now have standing orders for supplies. The trend has been to make the observance church-wide rather than limited to the church Sunday school.

All Special Day offerings, unless designated otherwise by the donors, were credited as regular giving and subject to division among the brotherhood agencies cooperating in Unified Promotion in accordance with the allocations of the Commission on Brotherhood Finance.

IV. PUBLICITY

Unified Promotion has been greatly strengthened through the year by the generous publicity of the various brotherhood publications. We are particularly indebted to the editors of World Call and The Christian, as well as the editors of state papers, and the "house organs" of the various national agencies.

Within Unified Promotion, Mrs. Moseley has edited the Minister's Bulletin each month, and has provided news releases for various state and national journals.

V. PROMOTIONAL COORDINATION

Significant steps have been taken toward better coordination in financial promotion in the Program of Advance for the Decade of Decision. These involve a coordinated approach to the churches in behalf of a united outreach budget of askings. This includes both the annual operating budget needs and the capital needs of the outreach causes.

It should be noted that capital askings of agencies participating in the Program of Advance are guided by the same review procedures of the Commission on Brotherhood Finance that are followed in regard to the operational askings of agencies in Unified Promotion. This means that both operational and capital askings are brought to the churches only after careful planning, research, and alignment with studied potential.

In several states the united approach is further expressed in a composite or percentage distribution of capital as well as operational budgets. In Iowa, the churches give through a total composite combining operational and capital. In two states, Arkansas and Southern California, the churches will support all the approved agencies in an operational composite and a total capital composite. A number of additional states are currently promoting composite capital funds to be distributed on a percentage basis.

UNIFIED PROMOTION ANNUAL REPORT

The result of such united planning and promotion has been a deeper experience of oneness within the church at all levels of its life and work, national, regional, state and local congregations, and the realization that it is the total that constitutes the church.

Another development is evidenced in the fact that local congregations are budgeting their response to outreach capital needs.

Reports show that more local congregations are adopting a schedule of percentage increase for outreach, which will bring them to a balanced budget of fifty-fifty giving prior to 1969-70. This reflects a new concept of Stewardship of the Gospel in the life of congregations.

VI. COMMISSION ON BROTHERHOOD FINANCE

The Commission on Brotherhood Finance continues to do a Herculean task for the Brotherhood with a deep spirit of commitment and foresight. This fifteen-member commission convenes in two meetings each year. Three days were spent in December studying trends in national economy, needs and projections of the agencies in Unified Promotion, and reviewing procedures. In March the Commission spent eight days analyzing budgets, needs, and askings presented by the agencies; and made allocations for 1963-64.

The Commission made allocations for both operational and capital budgets for 1963-64 after a careful restudy of financial potential in light of performance during the first two years of the Decade of Decision. Distribution of Capital funds still varies within the states and areas, depending upon agreements reached in the State Promotional Committees. In more than one-half of the states now capital money is being distributed upon a percentage basis. In other states churches are still sending Capital money directly to the agencies.

In 1962-63 the approved allocations for operational budgets total $9,135,377. This goal presents a real challenge as we gain momentum both spiritually and financially in the Decade.

VII. THE FINANCIAL REPORT FOR 1961-62

During the fiscal year closing June 30, 1962, the offerings subject to division in Unified Promotion totaled $7,521,757.80. This is short of the allocation of the Commission on Brotherhood Finance by $1,073,493.20. Nevertheless, it represents a significant gain over the giving of 1960-61.

C. Certificate of Auditor

The Board of Directors
Unified Promotion, Inc.,
Disciples of Christ
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have audited the accounts of Unified Promotion, Inc., Disciples of Christ, for the year ended January 31, 1962, and have proven the correctness of all account balances as of that date.

We found that all recorded receipts had been deposited in the bank and distributions have been made according to the principles set forth in the by-laws. We also found that expense items have been properly allocated and the funds correctly handled.

In our opinion, the records have been properly kept for the year under review.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The Week of Compassion stemmed from the Brotherhood Dinner observance. The first Brotherhood Dinner was held in 1938. For the first three years no offering was promoted, the dinner being only for fellowship. At the Brotherhood Dinner in 1941 the churches were urged to make offerings for the work of the Churches of Christ Missionary Committee of Great Britain to be used for their foreign mission work. Our British brethren, because of war conditions, were finding it difficult to maintain their missionaries. Five thousand dollars was suggested as the goal. The offering totaled $13,009.66. In 1943 the Committee on Relief Appeals of the International Convention promoted an offering on the occasion of the Brotherhood Dinner to the end that the following causes might be aided: The American Friends Service Committee, the Y.M.C.A. War Prisoners' Aid, the American Bible Society, the Church Committee for China Relief, the Y.W.C.A. World Emergency Fund, the American Committee for Christian Refugees, the Central Bureau for Inter-church Aid and the International Missionary Council Orphaned Missions Fund. The offering totaled $36,728.47.

Sensing the necessity of continuing and expanding the work of the Committee on War Services, covering the 8% pension dues of Disciple chaplains serving in the Armed Forces and the inadequacy of our Brotherhood's response to the emergency causes cleared through the Committee on Relief Appeals, the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships of the International Convention authorized an effort, to be known as the War-time Service Fund, to raise $250,000.00 for these causes. As a part of this effort the first Week of Compassion was held in February, 1944, with the Brotherhood Dinner as a part of the week's observance.

The Purpose is to:

- express the deep concern of Disciples of Christ in the projects of ecumenical fellowship and service.
- alert Disciples of Christ to a keen appreciation of their responsibility to those in distress in other lands and to enlist their support to the greatest possible extent in order that the material benefits of these projects may be widespread, alleviating homelessness, illness and despair without regard to race, color, or creed.
- develop the Christian values inherent in the work of relief, reconstruction and rehabilitation, not only in the Christian response to acute human need, but also in the inevitable strengthening of Christian witness around the world through this sharing of possessions in the spirit of Christ.
- bring about a greater understanding and realization of the brotherhood of all the children of our Heavenly Father and to generate among the peoples of the nations a mutual trust and an international friendship of people upon which alone can be built a solid structure of world unity and world peace.

ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1961, to June 30, 1962

I. "That They Might Have Life"

Under the theme, "That They Might Have Life," the 1962 Week of Compassion was widely observed. Members across the brotherhood identified the "They" with the teeming refugees, with those who have yet to be freed from hunger, with those who can be rehabilitated through self-help projects, with those victimized by disasters. Through the Week of Compassion the Brotherhood gave that those who had lost hope might have a new and meaningful life again.

The 1962 Week of Compassion askings approved by the Commission on Budgets and Promotional Relationships totaled $546,250. The offerings received for the 1962 observance totaled $577,321.81.

II. Week of Compassion Committee Reconstituted

Upon transfer of support for Military and Veterans' Services and Pension Fund Dues for Reserve Chaplains into regular channels of Unified Promotion, it was no longer necessary to continue both a Committee on Relief Appeals and a Week of Compassion Committee.

These committees have now been reconstituted and a single Week of Compassion Committee was appointed by the International Convention.

Week of Compassion Committee
Disciples of Christ
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have audited the accounts of Week of Compassion, Disciples of Christ, for the year ended July 31, 1962, and have proven the correctness of all account balances as of that date.

We found that all recorded receipts had been deposited in the bank and distributions have been made according to the principles set forth by the committee.

In our opinion, the records have been properly maintained for the year under review.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

The United Christian Missionary Society was created by the brotherhood of Disciples of Christ which long had sought a plan of cooperation for its missionary and religious education work. The American Christian Missionary Society, Christian Woman's Board of Missions and the Foreign Christian Missionary Society spent two years of intensive study and planning to prepare a proposed constitution. Modifications were made and it was given wide publicity and full discussion for a year.

In October, 1919, in Cincinnati, Ohio, it was approved by each of the boards and the International Convention. On October 20, the day following the Convention, the constitution was perfected and adopted at a meeting called for that purpose. The election that night of its first Board of Managers, officers and Executive Committee (now Board of Trustees) completed the formal organization. The Society was incorporated June 22, 1920, after careful legal study.

The Code of Regulations of the United Society states the following purposes and functions. "That the world may the more fully come to know Christ, the Son of God; that all men everywhere may increasingly appropriate for themselves His way of life; that a world of Christian brotherhood may be realized, and that the unity of God's people may be achieved, this Society is established.

"To this end the Society shall aid in the preaching of the gospel of Christ at home and abroad; shall create and foster a program of Christian education and training to the end that men's minds may be enlightened concerning the Christian way of life; shall lend encouragement and assistance to local congregations with a view of helping them to become as efficient units of the Kingdom as possible; shall interpret to the world the social implications of the teachings of Jesus; shall advance the cause of Christian womanhood; shall establish and maintain such institutions as schools, institutes, orphanages, hospitals and homes in the neglected areas of the world, and shall engage in such other forms of Christian service as will help to bring in the Kingdom of God, in which His will shall be done on earth as in heaven."

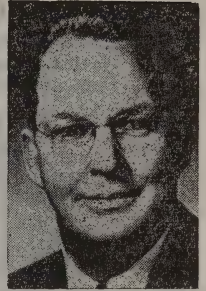

Since the Society began to function, the efforts of Disciples of Christ in missions and Christian education at home and abroad have been coordinated and made stronger by this central organization.

The United Society is a proved instrument. The churches chose it as a way of work. The churches continue to support it. The work continues to move forward.

FORTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT

Executive Statement—A. Dale Fiers, President, Indianapolis, Indiana

It is important that a realistic analysis of the United Society's work be made at the end of the second year of the Decade of Decision. The annual reports of the divisions and departments and the administration provide graphic information for such analysis.

First, a careful study of the reports reveals the fact that the basic ongoing program in the areas of the Society's responsibilities is proceeding in a most encouraging manner. The reports clearly reflect the solid planning for the Decade. The division of general departments has never more effectively undergirded the total Society and the brotherhood than in the past year. The departments in their own program responsibilities have achieved a high degree of competence and productivity. The division of church life and work reports an amazing range of program development and implementation. Creative new procedures in keeping with the principles and objectives of the Decade provide continuity of existing program with encouraging expansion and adjustment designed to meet changing situations. This is reflected in many areas including church-wide leadership education, world outreach education, campus Christian life, social and cultural issues, church establishment and comprehensive evangelism. The division of world mission reports heartening progress in our established fields despite the revolutionary context in which the mission is carried on. Not least significant are the ecumenical involvements which link the division's work with other cooperative bodies in ever-enlarging circles of missionary outreach. Our major problems are not in maintaining basic program.

Secondly, however, in regard to the new thrusts of the Decade, the analysis is different. Certain special areas of hoped-for advance lag behind Decade objectives. This is true in the development of new program within regular budget. Decade projections in the Blueprint set our total operational budget needs for 1961-62 at a level of $5,685,881.00. It was necessary to work on a basis of an operational budget of $4,058,601.00. The increased cost of maintaining established program and making badly needed salary increases for Society staff left no resources for the development of new programs projected for the Decade.

Special attention should be called to the fact that the new church effort is lagging far behind its projected goals. It is encouraging, however, that there was a definite trend upward during the past year. In 1960-61 the Society received $34,671.63 for new church establishment. The total in 1961-62 was $121,661.66.

Of great concern is the Society's Decade capital program designed to meet carefully projected capital needs on the foreign field, home missions institutions and churches, and churches in areas of transition. During the year 1961-62, approved capital askings for the Society amounted to $338,879.00. In actuality only $113,585.01 of this was received. In the last year of the Long Range Program, 1959-60, the Society's capital receipts amounted to $523,294.00. Once again, however, it is encouraging to note that in the second year of the Decade, capital receipts increased over the first year by $50,995.22.

In the area of emergencies, the Society is happy to report that the Congo situation is moving toward effective solution. The Africa emergency funds have been sufficient to meet the most pressing problems and will go a long way toward completely liquidating the emergency needs, barring further major dislocation. In other mission fields major emergency situations will develop in the near future unless a dramatic step up in Decade capital receipts occurs. This is true of critical institutional needs in world mission and churches in areas of transition in the inner city.

Finances. The Society was able through the careful administration of its available resources to operate during the year without a deficit and within the principle of budgeting promotional funds on the basis of last year's receipts. Total funds administered for all purposes amounted to $8,653,888.84. Promotional receipts from the churches through regular Unified Promotion sources were $3,833,515.00. A net increase of $147,172.00 over the previous year, which together with $61,170.00 received on a special allocation to incorporate military and veterans chaplaincy services, made a total increase in promotional funds of $208,342.00.

Personnel. Francis W. Payne retired on June 30 after twenty-four years of service as assistant treasurer, treasurer and legal counsel of the Society. During his tenure the corporate assets of the Society increased from $2,970,112.00 to $10,944,445.00. Mr. Payne's retirement necessitated a reorganization of certain treasury and general administrative functions. Wade D. Rubick, attorney at law of Kansas City, Missouri, was called to succeed Mr. Payne as legal counsel and to take charge of the Society's investments. Alfred C. Brown, assistant treasurer, was promoted to treasurer. Two other promotions in present staff were made. William S. Johnson became assistant treasurer and Mrs. Lois V. Renick controller.

During the year Miss Helen F. Spaulding was called from the staff of the National Council of Churches to succeed Miss Jessie M. Trout as executive secretary of the Christian women's fellowship.

The Society was saddened by the death of J. Clinton Bradshaw, executive secretary of the department of church development. Dale W. Medearis, assistant executive secretary in the department and a member of the Society's staff for the past eleven years, was called to succeed him.

Mrs. Mae Yoho Ward, who was elected vice president of the Society at the annual meeting in Kansas City, 1961, has given outstanding leadership in her new capacity. At the same time, she has continued her work in the division of world mission.

No annual report is adequate without reference to the continuing and outstanding service of the members of the board of managers, the board of trustees and the various committees and commissions of the Society's world organization. Hundreds of persons, ministerial and lay, have given their time, energy and substance to the work of the kingdom through the Society. The following reports represent tangible dividends of their generous investment.

The special funds include bequests, annuity, permanent and trust funds, royalties, and gifts for designated purposes, such as mission properties, equipment or special services. Permanent and trust funds cannot be expended but are invested to provide income for the work. Annuity gifts must be invested and are not available for the work until released by request or death of the annuitant. Each special gift is administered separately to fulfill the expressed wish of the donor.

†Includes $210,217.73 UCMS share cost of Unified Promotion, Inc.

†The excess of expenditures over receipts is from accumulated balances of Special and General Funds received in prior years, not expended in the year received, and spent as called for by the work program.

Certificate of Auditor

Board of Trustees
The United Christian Missionary Society
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have audited the accounts of The United Christian Missionary Society for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1962, and have verified the cash, securities and other assets as of that date.

We have also examined the Treasurer's report, a copy of which is attached hereto, showing assets of $10,944,445.40, total liabilities of $205,859.18, and total fund balances of $10,738,586.22, as of June 30, 1962.

We certify that the Balance Sheet shown in the Treasurer's report is in agreement with the records of the Society and with our report of audit as of June 30, 1962, and in our opinion, correctly presents the financial condition of The United Christian Missionary Society at that date.

DIVISION OF CHURCH LIFE AND WORK

Very little is done in any church of the brotherhood that does not in some way reflect past and present services of the six departments that make up the division of church life and work—Christian action and community service, Christian education, church development, evangelism, home mission ministries and world outreach education—and the departments of Christian women's fellowship and men's work which have a consultative relationship with the division.

The division prepared materials and gave national leadership to such observances as Church Loyalty and Nonresident Member Months; Christian Education, Brotherhood, Christian Family and Youth Weeks; Freedom and Democracy, Labor, Race Relations, World Order, Rural Life, Go-to-College and Student Recognition Sundays; the Chain of Prayer, Easter Week of Prayer, Woman's Day and many others.

The division serviced state, area and local church functional departments and committees on Christian action and community service, Christian education, evangelism, membership, property, world outreach and worship; and gave help and guidance concerning basic church organization and administration. The division not only provided staff leadership and counsel but was instrumental in publishing and providing such materials as these: Social Action News-Letter, Memo for Chairmen of World Outreach, Church Vocations Monographs, Spiritual Life Series, Plans and Materials Series, Evangelism Quarterly Bulletin, Constitutions and Bylaws for Local Churches, Church Program Planning Guide, mission study materials, local church filing and record systems, state/area resource files—and numerous other pamphlets, manuals, cards, etc.

The division gave guidance to many other areas of church life such as recruitment for the vocations of the church, location of ministers, special financial assistance to many churches and several state and area organizations, establishment of new churches, and churchwide leadership development.

The division has a special concern for minority groups in the United States and provided services (particularly through the departments of Christian action and community service, church development and home mission ministries, and a special committee on interim services to Negro churches) to Puerto Ricans, Cubans, Negroes, Spanish-Americans, Japanese, Southern Appalachian highlanders, Indians, migrants.

Geographically the division's major fields of interest are the United States and Canada, but in many respects its service is world-wide. It continued to provide materials and to set up schools, institutes and studies so that churches at "home" might know why and what they are doing on foreign as well as home fields. It also assisted in matters of refugee relocation, aid to stricken communities in Europe and elsewhere, foreign student exchange and work camps.

Because of its work with churches in the United States and Canada the division needs to maintain a close working relationship with all the brotherhood's state and area associations of churches, seminaries, Unified Promotion, Christian Board of Publication and many other agencies—as well as with planning and consultative organizations made up of representatives from these agencies and from local churches, chief among these the Home and State Missions Planning Council, Curriculum and Program Council and National Church Program Co-ordinating Council. The division works closely with many interdenominational organizations such as the National Council of Churches of Christ, the World Council of Christian Education and Sunday School Association, United Campus Christian Fellowship, and General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel.

Out of this maze of interlocking responsibility and service and with its accompanying close attention to the socio-economic climate of today's world, the division seeks to give brotherhood-wide emphasis to the many concerns of church members and to challenge and help them to make the Christian witness.

Some 400 people served on the national and related field staffs of the division plus a large group of volunteer workers. The central administrative staff consisted of Willard M. Wickizer, executive chairman; George Oliver Taylor, vice-chairman; Mrs. W. M. Liverett, administrative assistant; Emmett J. Dickson, national director of church relations. These and the executive secretaries of the component departments serve as the division council. Each, as well as many other members of the division's national staff, carried additional responsibilities with other brotherhood and interdenominational organizations.

Christian Action and Community Service

In keeping with its philosophy of supporting social education and action programs of the states and local churches, the department of Christian action and community service has rendered service in a wide variety of ways:

Conversations on Theology and Social Ethics. August 29–September 2, 1961, 46 participants shared in the sixth annual consultation on the relation between theology and social ethics.

Program and Policy Committee on Social Welfare Concerns. The committee, made up of representatives of the brotherhood agencies which have concerns in the field of Social Welfare, has met five times during the year, 1961-62. Working with the committee the department has co-operated with the National Benevolent Association and other agencies in giving major attention to housing for the aged, extension of services to the Negro community, and a local church program for the aging.

Local Church Committees and Departments of Christian Action and Community Service. The department maintains correspondence with 1,320 local church committees on Christian action and community service, providing them with resource materials.

State and Area Services. The department provided personnel, guidance and materials to 14 state and area institutes, workshops, and conferences on social action in 1961-62.

Social Action News-Letter. This monthly journal, devoted to social concerns, appeared in January, 1962, in its new enlarged and revised format. Four pages were added to allow for the publishing of letters to the editor, pro-con articles on controversial issues, a page of suggestions for action and additional book reviews. As of May, 1962, the News-Letter had 2,146 subscribers.

Study Document—Beverage Alcohol and Christian Responsibility. A preliminary study document on beverage alcohol and Christian responsibility was distributed to the churches in January, 1961. With the response from the churches given serious consideration, the department prepared the resolution on Beverage Alcohol and Christian Responsibility which was passed by the 1961 International Convention Assembly. The department has distributed to the churches approximately 5,700 copies of this resolution with accompanying suggested study-action projects.

Visiting Lecturers on World Concerns. During 1961-62, the department established on a permanent basis a "Visiting Lecturers on World Concerns" program which will bring outstanding leaders to our churches, colleges and seminaries each year. The first one who was made available to the churches as a pilot project of the program was Mr. R. S. Garfield Todd, Disciples of Christ missionary and ex-prime minister of Southern Rhodesia.

Prospectus for a Three-Year Program on "Christianity and Communism." In November, 1961, the department outlined a prospectus for a three-year program for the Disciples of Christ dealing with Christianity and Communism with the theme "What Should Christians Do About Communism?" A panel of brotherhood leaders with special technical knowledge of the subject is now being constituted to give guidance to the study.

Refugee Resettlement. Through the department's refugee resettlement program, 145 additional persons have been resettled in the brotherhood since July 1, 1961, making a total of 1,200 resettled in the last 12 years.

Material Aid. From July 1, 1961 until June 30, 1962, 274,967 pounds of clothing and medical supplies were received, sorted, packed and reshipped to needy persons at home and abroad.

Ecumenical Work Campers, Migrant Ministry, Exchange Students, Fraternal Workers and Summer Internships. During the summer of 1961, 19 young people were assigned to ecumenical work camps abroad, 15 served in the migrant ministry, 5 teen-agers lived abroad for one year while 12 families acted as host families for young people from overseas in the International Christian Youth Exchange Program. There were 13 fraternal workers abroad and 5 young people in summer internships in the United States.

U.N.-Washington Seminars on World Order. 152 Disciples participated in three U.N.-Washington Seminars and 17 Disciples attended the interdenominational Churchmen's Washington Seminar.

Washington Consultation. 25 Disciples—members of Congress, ministers and church agency administrators—participated in a three-day Washington Consultation on Church and Government, February 23-25, 1962.

Institutes on the Church in a Multiracial Society. The department co-operated in the planning and conducting of two Multiracial Institutes, one at Brite College of the Bible, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas, on The Minister, the Church and Our Changing Society. The other institute, held at The College of the Bible, Lexington, Kentucky, was the Third Annual Consultation on Southern Churches and Race Relations.

Christian Education

Christian education is pertinent to persons of all age groups, in all walks of life, for all times. The department seeks to make persons aware of opportunities available in the area of Christian education. Conversation groups, held during the International Convention, Kansas City, Missouri, were designed to introduce several subjects, provide opportunity to raise questions and share experiences, and to discover answers in relation to Christian education. During the National Christian Missionary Convention in Roanoke, Virginia, the department, using national leadership, sponsored leadership development workshops in all areas of Christian education.

Children's Work. The children's work section continued to give guidance and training to some 450 volunteers who serve beyond the local church including development of leadership and more effective program. Program guidance materials and training were provided for 56 resident and day camps for children. Several states initiated a program of camping for children. Program resources and leadership were provided to 3,000 vacation church schools serving 45,000 leaders and 186,000 children. Laboratory schools, workshops and conferences for local church teachers of children, and state program planning conferences were served by the section. The director of children's work, Miss Mary Elizabeth Mason, represented the work of the section in these projects as well as in the Cooperative Curriculum Project, Curriculum and Program Council and other joint cooperative efforts in which the section was involved. She also participated in the evaluation of interdenominational curriculum for migrants in cooperation with the director of children's work for the National Council of Churches.

Youth Work. The International CYF Commission met as a part of the North American Ecumenical Youth Assembly at Ann Arbor, Michigan, August 16-23, 1961. The 248 Disciple youth and adult delegates published results of their study in the booklet, Report of the 1961 International CYF Commission. The commission elected six CYF representatives as a special study group to develop a series of national youth meetings. William Daniels, Merced, California, was a youth delegate to the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches. His attendance was made possible through the giving of Disciple youth in the Dividends in Growth project of summer CYF conferences. Charles C. Mills, national director of youth missionary activities, directed a travel conference for 13 youth from seven states studying the life of the church in Mexico. They participated in a work project with Mexican youth at Aguascalientes. The second International Affairs Seminar for Youth, included 51 youth and 10 adults from 26 churches in 14 states. The seminar, co-directed by Mr. Mills (Christian education department) and Robert A. Fangmeier (Christian action and community service department), met at the United Nations and in Washington, D. C. Boyd A. Hughes and Miss Iris Ferren, national youth directors, directed the observance of "F" (Fellowship) Day, September 17, 1961, when youth groups across the nation took a deeper look at themselves as a fellowship of Christians. This also introduced the "new look" of the youth fellowship and its supporting materials FOCUS and TACK, developed jointly by the United Society youth staff and the youth editors of the Christian Board of Publication.

Campus Christian Life. The Joint Commission on Campus Christian Life (JCCCL) is a part of the United Society and the Board of Higher Education. This year the commission structure was revised to expand its membership, to increase the administrative board to six representatives plus the staff, expand the executive committee to five to become the administrative committee and to reconstitute the program committee to become the advisory committee. This broadened structure has resulted in the development of a better balanced program. A plan was presented to the Church Vocations Committee for the guidance and recruitment of college students which is proving successful. Also a self-study procedure, designed to assist local committees in evaluating and improving their campus ministry was developed. To provide further training for new women in the campus ministry the Joint Campus Ministry Conference was held at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois, in July with 40 Disciple campus ministers attending. Donald D. Reisinger served as administrative coordinator. In August the National Council of the United Campus Christian Fellowship met at Monmouth College with 125 students and their leaders attending. In May, Mr. Reisinger left the JCCCL to become the executive director of the Disciples Seminary Foundation at Claremont, California.

Bible Chairs. Since the loss of Charles Cox, the Texas Bible Chair work has been successfully carried on through a United Bible Chair structure, a venture of the Disciples, Presbyterians, Lutherans and Episcopalians. The Michigan Bible Chair is refurbishing its new property. The Kansas Bible Chair is now a part of Unified Promotion and the Kansas Unified Capital Program, and under the leadership of Dean William J. Moore the program moves steadily forward.

Adult Work and Family Life. The annual Institute in Adult Education was held August 14-24, 1961, at the University of Indiana at Bloomington. The training staff included Mr. Roye Frye, coordinator from the staff of the Bureau of Studies in Adult Education, University of Indiana; Walter J. Lantz, executive director of the adult work and family life section of the United Society; George Adkins, minister of the First Christian Church, Mason City, Iowa; Geoffrey Whiting, graduate student at the university and pastor of the Church of Christ in Adelaide, Australia; William Hutchings, minister of Christian education, Central Christian Church, Dallas, Texas; Miss Helen Gilbert, CWF Secretary, Iowa Society of Christian Churches; and George Oliver Taylor, executive secretary, department of Christian education of the United Society. The new study program for adults, launched January 1, 1962, known as the Christian Discipleship Series, is having a favorable reception in the churches across the Brotherhood. Many groups finished the introductory course on learning how to learn, and began a six months study of the first basic content course, "The Church—What and Why," by Dwight Stevenson. Much credit for the fine way in which this program has been received is due to the work of the national counselors assigned to the churchwide leadership development section, and that of the various state staff members responsible for Christian education in their respective states and areas.

Walter J. Lantz has been assigned the family life portfolio in addition to his work as executive director of adult work.

Camping and Conferences. During 1961, 497 summer camps and conferences were held, with a total attendance of 31,056 plus 4,854 leaders. Approximately 3,500 churches were represented in the attendance. This means a constantly growing program. The department conducts three Regional Camp and Conference Leadership Development Training Laboratories each year. Boyd A. Hughes, youth director, and James L. Ballinger, camp-conference director, have been giving much time, along with the youth editors from Christian Board of Publication, in the development of new curriculum materials for youth camps and conferences. Currently, Mr. Ballinger is giving campsite development consultation service to 10 states. This is a rapidly increasing service as more states move into the ownership and development of their own camp and conference facilities.

Educational Administration. There are 2,225 chairmen of local church Christian education departments, 5,356 superintendents of Sunday church schools, 464 professional education workers on record under the leadership of Miss Mabel Metze, executive director of educational administration. These, plus the pastors of our churches, are the administrators of our educational programs. There is a growing concern that educational administrators have opportunity to see their full responsibility, as evidenced by the increasing number of training events being held for them in states and districts. Some of these are a part of laboratory schools, giving the administrators the opportunity to observe age group leaders in training. An institute on "The Pastor and His Teaching Ministry" was held at Phillips University, Enid, Oklahoma, June 17-22, 1962. "Dare We Believe in the Church and Its Mission?" was the theme of the February meeting of the National Fellowship of Disciple

Churchwide Leadership Development. The national staff in this section has expanded to include the executive director, Richard E. Lentz, and three national counselors: Miss Fannie M. Bennett, Harold R. Johnson, and Arthur J. Russell. During the year the section has sought to establish sound working relationships and to interpret the new program. To accomplish these ends, conferences have been held by the staff with national and state staffs, boards and committees. Procedures have been worked out to assist local churches and states where difficulties are experienced in using curriculum materials and to work out long-range leadership development programs. The national counselors also work in local churches or in groups of churches assisting them in analyzing their leadership needs and training opportunities. During the last part of the year Harold R. Johnson attended the University of Pittsburgh in Pennsylvania, completing his studies for the Master of Arts Degree. While there he worked on the further development, including experimentation, of a phase of the churchwide leadership development program. Two regular features have been developed for brotherhood periodicals: "Advance Copy" for The Christian and "Growing on the Job" for Bethany Guide.

Churchwide leadership development section field services (no duplication of persons or projects):

Number of Projects	Number of Persons
31 state staff conferences	126 staff persons
11 national planning or staff group discussions	395 national staff planning committee members
72 orientation sessions for adult leaders on Christian Discipleship Series	1500 persons from 345 churches (24 different state/areas)
6 state church life and work institutes	675 persons responsible for state program
18 state projects and programs (major presentation or workshop on CLD)	2450 persons
205 local church leadership clinics, conferences, institutes	3140 local church leaders
56 district leadership projects	2160 local church leaders; district officers; state staffs
421 total projects	10,886 total number of persons involved

Cooperative Curriculum Project. Through the National Council of Churches, Disciples cooperate in the CCP. In this way a much better end project is obtained and the cost in staff time and budget appropriations less. During the past year representatives have been working on stages three and four, the developing of guides to areas of curriculum and themes. In May, the Curriculum and Program Council made plans to develop a Disciple curriculum design, making the best use of the results of the Project.

Field Program. D. Allison Holt, associate executive secretary of the department, worked with several states in revamping their Christian education departments. There seems to be general recognition of the necessity of state Christian education staff to work through district committees. Job descriptions for state staff have been rewritten in light of this trend. At the annual meeting of the Religious Education Workers Fellowship at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana, February, 1962, the group re-organized itself under the title "Christian Educators Fellowship." The new fellowship will attempt to broaden its scope of membership and provide programs of study and fellowship rather than only staff meeting functions as it has in the past. There have been only five field staff changes in the past year in addition to two retirements: W. G. Moseley, who served 35 years in the field of Christian education in the Northwest, and Ralph B. Fouts who served six years as the director in New Mexico. The Southeastern Regional Laboratory School, holding its fourth annual session, became interdenominational in scope, and was sponsored by the department of Christian education of the United Society and by Methodists, Presbyterians, and Lutherans in South Carolina. Student counseling teachers also attended from the Church of the Brethren in Virginia. Disciples participating were Miss Mary Elizabeth Mason, Miss Mabel Metze, Richard E. Lentz and Arthur J. Russell. The fourth Midwest Regional Leadership School involved 67 persons, representing 11 states. Serving on the faculty from the department of Christian education were Richard E. Lentz, Miss Mabel W. Metze, D. Allison Holt, Walter J. Lantz and Miss Iris L. Ferren.

Curriculum and Program Council. The staff of the department works through the Curriculum and Program Council in developing curriculum and program, cooperating with other departments, agencies and boards. Miss Charlene Stewart, departmental associate, facilitates the work of the council by devoting most of her time as the CPC administrative assistant.

Staff Highlights. Mark Wendelborn returned to New Zealand, having spent 20 months in training in the U. S. A. He also participated in such Christian education projects as youth camps and conferences, the Indiana University Adult Seminar, the Uniting Assembly of the UCCF, the National Training Laboratory at Bethel, Maine, and the directors' institute. He was a student at Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, Indiana, where he earned the degree of Master of Religious Education, graduating cum laude. He has now assumed his duties as federal director of religious education, New Zealand.

George Oliver Taylor, executive secretary of the department, was extended educational leave in the fall and attended the University of Chicago Divinity School as a student-at-large. It was a time of study (Christian theology, group work theory and social mobility) and fellowship.

In February, James Blair Miller, professor of Christian education on sabbatical leave from the Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, Indiana, began half-time service with the department until the end of the fiscal year. His primary assignment was to assist the department in its review of its place and function, and to help in the study and interpretation of the questionnaires and interviews from the survey of 400 representative churches gathered under the auspices of the Curriculum and Program Council.

In light of the absence of Professor Miller, CTS requested that Miss Mabel Metze, executive director of educational administration, teach one course. Her work load was adjusted, and during the last semester Miss Metze taught "The Administration of Christian Education" for the seminary.

Church Development

The year 1961-62 was a year of progress for the department of church development. The department has been engaged in an aggressive program to strengthen the church in the United States and Canada. Each of the sections has been hard at work to carry out the assignment given to the department in this over-all task.

The department was hit very hard by the illness and subsequent death of its executive, J. Clinton Bradshaw. This event made it necessary for the members of the department to double up in their work for most of the year so that the regular functions of the department might be carried on.

One of the major events during the year was the transfer of the mission churches formerly administered by this department into the department of home mission ministries. This transfer was made in a gradual fashion—the two departments having initiated the process early in 1961. The mission churches involved were those located in New York City; Tampa, Florida; Brownsville, San Benito, McAllen, Robstown, Corpus Christi and San Antonio, Texas; Rocky Ford Valley, Colorado; Los Angeles, California.

Another major event was that of the integration of military and veterans services as a regular part of the department. As of July 1, 1961, the activities of the Committee on Military and Veterans Services came into regular budget of The United Christian Missionary Society and were placed administratively in the department of church development. Prior to that the program of the committee was financed out of Week of Compassion offerings and was operated under the Committee on Military and Veterans Services. The director of chaplaincy services made his regular trips into the field to visit every chaplain in the United States and the European theater of military operations. He also edited and published The Disciple Chaplain which seeks to keep the chaplains in touch with each other and with their brotherhood. The department invested several thousand dollars in the general program of chaplaincy services, which is an interdenominational program under the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel. The department also made a contribution to the National Council of Churches' Program for Ministry to Military Personnel in the Far East, where living conditions are deplorable and moral temptation is extremely high.

Church Planning and Development Section. The church planning and development section of the department has had an extremely busy year. It has continued to work intensely at getting Project X fully operative in each of the states and Canada. Some of the states are beginning to realize the fruits of the careful planning involved in Project X and are doing a sounder job of new church development as a result. Although technically the end has come to this project, some states are just now beginning to get started and the department will continue to service such states in the anticipation that the same kind of careful planning will be experienced by them.

Each year for the past several years, the department has joined other agencies in the sponsorship of institutes on church development and planning for the purpose of developing leadership for our states and metropolitan areas in this field. Such institutes have proven to be very helpful and are providing the skilled leadership we need to build new churches, relocate or strengthen old churches and to deal with the churches in transition.

Even though the New Church Advance Program is getting off to a slow start, some significant things have happened during the year. The established churches are beginning to take the program seriously and have made money available to put to work in states that have overwhelming opportunities and too little financial strength. At the same time, the department has continued to invest church maintenance money in opportunities which justify such investment. During the year the department had over 100 churches on its church maintenance roll at all times.

The department began actively to invest some of the churches in areas of transition funds received during the year. In cooperation with the department of Christian action and community service, the department of church development has spent considerable time in the development of work in Jackson Boulevard Christian Church of Chicago, Illinois, and in Third Christian Church, Indianapolis, Indiana, as well as making small grants of aid to other transition situations. This is an area in which the Disciples of Christ have very little experience and one from which we hope to learn much. The department is moving cautiously but definitely in this area and hopes to be able to learn enough from the experience to pass on some definite guidance to other churches in the future.

During the year the town and country church program continued to bring emphasis to the need for strong rural churches and the kind of ministry in rural areas that will help the church remain the vital and relevant force that it should be for people in the midst of rapid social change. Beginnings have been made in the development of a full-scale strategy for town and country churches which may very well have implications for all churches of the brotherhood.

Local Church Life Section. This has been a very busy year for the local church life section of the department. It has seen the organization of the Disciples musicians into a full-scale association with the executive director of the section named as its administrative secretary. It has also seen the organization of the first musicians workshop.

The section on local church life also has increased the number of spiritual life conferences this past year. Six of these conferences were held under the sponsorship of the department of church development with Karl H. Croel, executive director, participating in four of them. Some local leadership was used in the conferences. If such leadership proves to be adequate, we may be able to increase the number of such conferences greatly in the future. This phase of the work imposes considerable burden of correspondence and other clerical work on the department. We feel, however, that it is well worth the effort since there seems to be such a great demand for the spiritual life conferences and so many people are helped by them.

This year saw the beginning of the development of a new set of church program planning manuals to be in print in 1965. The section on local church life is responsible for three of the manuals to be published in the set. This imposes a heavy responsibility on the executive director for he must be involved with others, in the elaborate process of determining the format and content of the set of manuals which will eventuate.

Ministerial Services Section. During the year the ministerial services section has been extremely busy carrying out the tasks assigned to it. There has been a very heavy load in the placement process. The number of ministers seeking to be placed in the different churches has gotten heavier during the year, which in turn places an extra heavy load on the placement process. It is apparent that more and more of the ministers of our brotherhood are relying on this system to make contact with a church for employment.

The Disciples Guidance and Recruitment Services has been continuing its program of stimulating local churches to recruit and guide the finest young people in the congregation toward the vocations of the church. The year has seen the development of the program to a greater extent but with the lack of response from the various states that we would desire. Efforts are being made at the present time to streamline the program and make it more acceptable to the people who ultimately use it to guide and recruit people for the ministries of the church.

During the year a great deal has been done by the section for institutional chaplains. It is the goal of the department of church development to give the same kind of service to our institutional chaplains as we do to military chaplains. The department led in the organization of an association for institutional chaplains and the publication of a journal on behalf of the institutional chaplains.

A new area of concern of this section is "continuing education" for the ministry. The section is committed to the idea that ministers need post-B.D. educational and spiritually renewing experiences. It has cooperated with the department of Christian education in experimental "group life workshops" for ministers and their wives. Other similar experiments are in the planning stages.

Evangelism

This is the third year of the work of this department which is charged with adding dynamic and depth to the evangelistic witness of our churches during the Decade of Decision.

Inner Missions for Ministers. Ministers set aside a 24-hour period, in groups of from 10 to 30, in a place withdrawn from their churches, to pray and worship together, to face the great facts of our faith, the church and the needs of people. Out of this is born the basic elements for an effective local church program of evangelism. This year, Inner Missions were held in Missouri, Northern California, and North Carolina. A guidance manual was prepared by the department and sent to all state leaders.

Ministers Institutes. The Graduate Seminary of Phillips University held its fifth annual evangelism institute July 24-28, 1961. Twenty ministers from Oklahoma and Kansas attended on scholarships provided by the Seminary. Faculty members were LeRoy Hay, dean; C. K. Thomas, W. R. Simpson, and Donald F. Clingan. The executive secretary gave the evening lectures. The sixth evangelism institute at Phillips was held June 25-29, 1962.

Seminary Students. Opportunity was given to the secretary to speak to students at Drake Divinity School and at Christian Theological Seminary. In each instance, the current needs of evangelistic witness were stressed as well as the means to fulfill this mission.

State Ministers Meetings. Our evangelistic witness today was examined by 24 ministers in Northern Idaho and by 26 who attended the meeting in Tennessee.

Operation Good News. For the second year in succession, leaders of our brotherhood agencies were recruited to give one week of evangelistic witnessing to local churches during the January to Easter period. It was possible to complete arrangements for 61 men to accept invitations. The goal is to touch 1,000 churches during the Decade of Decision with such leadership.

Chain of Prayer. Five years ago this program was launched as a means to undergird the evangelistic thrust of our churches. Churches are encouraged to enlist at least 24 people to pray for 24 continuous hours for the kind of witnessing which will communicate effectively the claims of Christ to uncommitted persons. This year the record number of 630 churches enrolled. At least one church in our brotherhood was in prayer each day from the closing hours of December 31 to Easter Sunday.

Grass Roots Relationships. In order to know more accurately the evangelistic needs of our churches, the secretary visited 20 local churches. They were First Christian Church, Oakland, California; Christian Church, Kimberly, Idaho; Central Christian Church, Kankakee, and Christian Church, Villa Park, Illinois; Second Christian Church, Indianapolis, and Christian Church, Spencer, Indiana; Christian Church, West Des Moines, Iowa; Central in Wichita, and Cherokee in Prairie Village, Kansas; Newburg Christian Church in Louisville, Kentucky; St. Charles Avenue Church, New Orleans, Louisiana; First Church in St. Joseph and in Faucett, Missouri; Hampton Park Christian Church, Toledo, and First Church, Salem, Ohio; Second Church, Washington, Pennsylvania; Gay Lea Church, Nashville, Tennessee, and in Washington, First Church at Mt. Vernon and Bellingham and Englewood at Yakima. In each instance, besides preaching, discussions were held with evangelism committees, church boards, church school classes and youth groups concerning the challenge of evangelism.

State Conventions. The urgent need for aggressive evangelistic witnessing was presented in addresses at the West Virginia and Michigan state conventions.

Men's Retreats. The Christian Men's Fellowship emphasized evangelism in all its programs and the executive secretary shared in two retreats in Indiana, at Bedford, September 7-8, and at Barbee, October 7-8, 1961.

Christian Women's Fellowship. The deep concern which each group in the church should have for evangelism was shared at the meeting of the state secretaries and presidents in Indianapolis, February 27-March 3, 1962. The department maintained a booth at the Quadrennial Assembly held at Purdue University, July 19-23, 1961.

National Evangelistic Association. The two-day convention of this organization was held prior to the International Convention in Kansas City and was attended by more than 800 persons. Dr. Harold Blake Walker, minister of First Presbyterian Church, Evanston, Illinois, was guest speaker. All other participants in the sessions were from our own churches. Seminary students from Drake and Phillips led worship and the Culver-Stockton College Chapel Choir brought special music. The executive secretary serves as general secretary of the NEA and assists in planning and publicizing the program.

New Materials. A major responsibility of the department is the securing and developing of adequate printed materials to meet the needs of our ministers and local church evangelism committees. Published this year were The Minister-Evangelist, a book by Donald M. Salmon; Our Evangelistic Witness, An Appraisal, by Ronald E. Osborn; To Be a Responsible Christian, a leaflet by Mark Rutherford; the Chain of Prayer Handbook, Evangelism; a quarterly bulletin; and the poster, illustrating the year's theme, "A New Day for Christian Witness."

Home Mission Ministries

Mary M. Dale, executive secretary of the department, has visited each of the six institutions and 15 churches during the year. The national office has also been represented at the Consultation on Ministry to Minority Groups in Texas, the Spanish-Speaking Church Institute in San Antonio, and at the Texas Committee on Spanish-Speaking Work. Mrs. Geraldine Walker serves as departmental associate in the department.

The national staff and the directors of the institutions attended the Conference of Churches and Social Welfare in Cleveland and remained for an extra day for their own conference.

Additions to the staff have been David L. Lollis, director at Mount Beulah Christian Center; Byron L. Spice, national director beginning July 1, 1962. Mr. Spice will share in the administrative duties with special interest in the Spanish-speaking work.

All Peoples Christian Church. Playground participants have increased from 200 to 315 during the year. New activities include the library hour, sewing club, leathercraft club, woodwork, trampoline lessons, choral group and a playground club for boys of the church, ages 7-9. The nursery-kindergarten under the direction of Betty Dimond and in cooperation with church leaders has worked out a new curriculum which has been in use since April. This curriculum emphasizes Christian teachings by use of stories, play and handwork. The nursery-kindergarten had a capacity of 45 children in attendance.

Hazel Green Academy. New personnel included Barbara Gieber, Frances McMillan, Bert Harvey, Katherine Pugh, and Alice Clark, who formerly served as missionary nurse in India. A community summer program proved very effective. Through cooperation with the department of missionary selection and training, Barbara Gieber and John Walker conducted a religious education program for children and organized a softball league for the county. About 85 boys participated. A community clean-up campaign was successful as well as a community Christmas tree and program. Ninety-five students participated in the Christmas Cantata at the Academy. Cooperating with the Area Development Council, the staff assisted in training tour guides for the area.

Inman Christian Center (formerly Mexican Christian Institute). On November 23, 1961, the change of name took place on the 48th anniversary of the institution. This new name helps interpret the agency as giving social services. Dr. Samuel Guy Inman, who was responsible for the first building and for whom the Center is named, was present for the annual meeting and addressed some 200 businessmen and church leaders. Mr. Joel Garza was added to the staff to direct the program for the Hard-to-Reach boys. For the first time girls between the ages of 10 and 12 were included in a joint camp program of the settlement houses of San Antonio. Twelve girls from Inman Christian Center participated. Some 2,400 different persons were served in the health service department. A session for sick children and a session for dental care were added.

Some 50 volunteers served in the program this year. The Each-One-Teach-One program was intensified. A scholarship fund was initiated and two students were assisted in doing graduate work. Mrs. M. R. Huantes, E. G. Luna and Joel Garza of the staff were certified by The Academy of Certified Social Workers.

Mount Beulah Christian Center. Aaron T. Barker resigned as director in January to return to the pastorate. In March David L. Lollis was employed as director. The camp and conference program of the Center became his responsibility and James R. Stovall, farm manager, assumed all responsibility for the farm program. The program of services to Negroes of the community and brotherhood has continued. The National Christian Missionary Convention sponsored the Planning Conference, a Youth Meet, and the Christian Men's Fellowship Retreat. The summer program with student leaders assisting with Vacation Church Schools of the area was very successful. The Nex-T-New Store under the management of Mrs. B. L. Jacobs continued to serve the community as did the bookmobile program.

Tougaloo Southern Christian College. The enrollment averaged 480 for the year and 125 students were in the graduating class. A grant from the Field Foundation made possible a program of social-science communication which brought persons of wide experience to the campus. A grant from the National Science Foundation made possible a summer program for high school students. This was a six weeks' course and provided intensive experience in science and mathematics for students in 11th and 12th grades. The dining hall-student union building was completed and a new home for the president was built. Football was discontinued but much emphasis was given to basketball, track, and tennis. At times tensions existed in the community because of racial differences. The school has continued as usual and maintained the Christian principles for which it was founded.

Yakima Indian Christian Mission. The staff spent much time this year working out the necessary changes in program because of the closing of the dormitories in June. At this time the staff was cut to eight persons full time and one part-time person. Plans were made for enlarging the kindergarten program, the home visitation program and giving special emphasis to the program of the Valley Church. The Christmas pageant (Indian version) presented by youth of the Log Church was given in five churches. The staff presented the story of missions in about 25 different churches. The Yakima Tribal Council was given a 1961 Yakima Indian Christian Mission Achievement award in recognition of the special leadership given the Yakima people during 1961. Boy Scouts, Campfire, and Bluebirds were organized during the year.

Mission Churches. The executive secretary spent much time becoming acquainted with personnel of the mission churches. The convention of Texas Spanish Churches at San Benito and the Institute of Texas Spanish Churches at San Antonio were both enjoyable occasions and furnished needed fellowship.

Several churches have shown growth. The Northwest Christian Church in San Antonio assumed responsibility of ministerial support formerly furnished by the Texas Board. The membership increased over a six-year period from 38 to 70. The kindergarten at the Corpus Christi Church continued to contribute to the Christian education of the children. The Robstown congregation has grown spiritually and in responsibility.

In Brooklyn, the Sinai Christian Church purchased a church building with the help of the United Society. The First Spanish Church has keenly felt the need of a building and was able to purchase a suitable location. The Spanish Church in Bridgeport, Connecticut, purchased a building with help from the Northeast Area. The minister's salary is supplemented by the United Society.

The visit by the executive to Rocky Ford, Colorado, gave insight into the work among the Japanese people as did a visit to West Adams Christian Church in Los Angeles. Foreign language groups furnish a big challenge in home mission work today.

World Outreach Education

The Program of Advance for the Decade of Decision in the nineteen sixties incorporated three major goals for world outreach in the local church: (1) deepened commitment to the outreaching mission of the church, (2) leadership development for the training of persons in world outreach in every congregation, (3) increased giving so that by 1970 one dollar out of every two received by the local church would be for the outreach mission and witness at home and around the world.

The work of the department of world outreach education is geared to assisting churches in attaining their objectives in world outreach. The materials produced for study and discussion, for program and special emphasis, for popular reading and current information—all are for the purpose of developing a world outreach conscience in our brotherhood.

The year 1961-62 was highlighted as a year of preparation for the Schools of World Outreach which were launched across the brotherhood on July 1, 1962. For many years a limited number of churches had conducted an annual school of missions. To broaden the base of mission to comprehend the total scope of world outreach the schools of missions were expanded to become schools of world outreach. This involved more than an enlargement of program. It required a complete rethinking of the outreach mission of the church. If schools of world outreach were to be worthy of the name, they must be formulated so as to provide opportunity for members of each congregation to become involved in the total outreach of the church.

During the year much of the staff work of the department was directed toward the creation of the new schools of world outreach. Conferences with staff members of various agencies whose task it is to serve the outreach witness of the churches was a continuing and significant part of the year's work. The preparation of the first comprehensive piece of educational literature to picture the total outreach mission and witness of the churches was a focal point, requiring the combined efforts of the entire department staff. The World Outreach Portfolio was the product of this effort. This portfolio is composed of 12 individual folios descriptive of the following concerns: (1) The Outreach Mission of the Church, (2) World Outreach and Other Total Church Program, (3) World Outreach and Our Brotherhood of Christian Churches, (4) The Church's Outreach Mission through Ecumenical Witness, (5) The Church's Outreach Mission through Benevolence and Ministerial Assistance, (6) The Church's Outreach Mission through Church Program Services, (7) The Church's Outreach Mission through the New Church Advance, (8) The Church's Outreach Mission through Education, (9) The Church's Outreach Mission through Home Mission Ministries, (10) The Church's Outreach Mission Abroad, (11) Financial Support for the Church's Outreach Mission, (12) World Outreach Map—The Outreach Mission of Christian Churches.

The Schools of World Outreach Handbook is the new administrative manual to guide each congregation in planning and conducting its annual school of world outreach. Resources and Ideas is a supplement to be released each year which will share suggestions and plans of various churches which had effective schools the previous year and made this information available for wider brotherhood use through this means. A poster for the church bulletin board, announcing the school of world outreach (dates, time and other information), was made available for the first time this year. All three of these items are free to the churches and may be secured by sending a request to the department of world outreach education.

Special curriculum materials were prepared during the year for the age group classes as follows: adult—World Outreach Portfolio, Leader's Guide for Adult Classes Using World Outreach Portfolio; youth—Whose World Tomorrow, How to Use World Tomorrow with Senior Highs, How to Use Whose World Tomorrow with Junior Highs; children—Flight to Thailand, Flight to Paraguay, Kindergartners Glimpse a Bigger World.

General Church Program in World Outreach Education. Through the Home and State Missions Planning Council and the Curriculum and Program Council of the brotherhood, program plans and supporting materials are projected and approved in world outreach. The department carries administrative responsibility for the world outreach committee of the Home and State Missions Planning Council. A planning file was prepared by the department, setting forth emphases and program plans which serve as a basic resource for state and area committees on world outreach in projecting plans for 1962-63. Two issues of the Memos for Ministers and Chairmen of World Outreach were prepared for the churches during the year. This is the continuing means of keeping before the churches program plans and special emphases and the materials available as they project their work in world outreach. The department prepared the materials for use in the churches for the Woman's Day observance and Easter Week of Prayer, working in cooperation with the department of Christian women's fellowship.

Children's Work. The department shares in preparation of Bethany Sunday Church School graded lesson materials for children by providing material in the area of world outreach education. The director of children's work provides two pages of pictures and information regarding world outreach in each of the 52 weekly issues of Junior World.

Youth Work. The department cooperates in providing world outreach units in Focus and Tack for evening youth fellowship meetings. Resource outreach packets and supplementary materials are prepared for summer youth camps and conferences. Christian Youth Studies World Outreach Witness is an annual publication prepared and distributed free to adult leaders of youth in each congregation. It serves as a basic resource for all activities, meetings and groups for youth in the local church. Books Are Bridges reading program materials were prepared by the department and made available to the churches. Curriculum materials were prepared for World Fellowship Youth Meets which reach more young people than any other away-from-the-local-church activity for youth of the brotherhood.

Adult Work. The year was marked by the release of new reading and study books for adults in the church. Replacing the former CWF outreach study materials prepared only for the CWF leaders were reading books and packets containing three leadership guidance booklets entitled For the Study Chairman, For the Worship Chairman, For the Service Chairman. The leader materials for using the reading book in CWF groups was prepared with the cooperation of the Christian women's fellowship department. The most revolutionary feature of this new development is the fact that the reading books are available to all women in CWF for personal use and study as well as to all adults in the local church. The two books which launched this new direction are Concern—That Makes a Difference and Disciples on the Rim of Asia. They were based upon the home and world mission themes for 1962-63 and will be used in the churches during that particular year.

Outreach Themes. The two annual themes used for world outreach education in the churches during 1961-62 were Churches for New Times (home theme) and The Christian Mission in Latin American Countries (world theme).

DIVISION OF GENERAL DEPARTMENTS

The five departments that comprise the division of general departments, although diversified in function, are united by a common concern and assignment. All work together to interpret and financially undergird the total task of the United Society in serving the Church at home and abroad. There is no phase of the Church's life that is not served in one way or another by this division in cooperation with the other two divisions of the United Society.

Assigned to this division is the administration of the Disciples House in New Haven, Connecticut, with its program of continuing education for ministers. Through the division chairman and in conjunction with the International Convention the brotherhood is further served by responsibilities he has accepted. They are administrative (temporary) secretary of the Commission on Brotherhood Restructure; chairman of the Commission on Cooperative Policy and Practice; chairman of the Year Book Publications committee; and a member of the advisory committee of the Office of Interpretation.

This division symbolizes the common purpose and interdependent ministry that unites every department of the United Society in its service to the churches.

Audio-Visual Services

Production. C. A. Weesner, executive secretary, carries major responsibility for production of audio-visual materials. The department produces and/or distributes to the churches 16 mm. sound films, sound and silent filmstrips, recordings, kinescopes, and slide sets. The purpose of these materials is to instruct, inform and inspire. Last year filmstrips were produced as follows: THE WIDENING CIRCLE to portray our work in Paraguay; THREE QUESTIONS for special use in the Program of Advance in the Decade of Decision; HELLO, FILIPINOS; GLIMPSES OF INDIA; and OUR MISSION IN THE CONGO. The latter three were produced in cooperation with the Christian Board of Publication and the Department of World Outreach Education for curriculum materials. Photography and preliminary script were done for a filmstrip on the Yakima Indian work.

The department cooperated with the department of Communications of Christian Theological Seminary in the production of kinescopes, a new technique. Programs presented in the closed-circuit TV studio of the Seminary were recorded on tape and then transferred to black and white film for use in the local churches as 16 mm. sound films. One such production for the United Society was completed—IN THE MIDST OF MISSION—for the department of world outreach education.

A FLAME OF THE LORD'S KINDLING, produced in 1961 for Christian women's fellowship, was given a certificate of participation in the American Film Festival in New York City in the category "Religion and Ethics."

The department shared through the Commission on Missionary Education and the Broadcasting and Film Commission of the National Council of Churches in the Production of two 16 mm. sound films—MOMENT TO ACT and ON THE RIM OF TOMORROW—for the interdenominational study on "The Church's Mission and Persons of Special Need" and "The Christian Mission on the Rim of East Asia."

Education. Thomas P. Inabinett, national director, was responsible for audio-visual education and the operation of the library. He prepared the section "Suggested Audio-Visuals" for the weekly sessions in the Bethany

Bible Teacher quarterly; a column "Audio-Visual Suggestions" for World Call each month; and wrote the "See and Hear Programs" section of the program materials for the Christian men's fellowship. He conducted audio-visual institutes on the campuses of two seminaries. Also, two audio-visual workshops were planned and conducted—at Christmount Christian Assembly, Black Mountain, North Carolina, July 24-28; and at Toronto, Ontario, Canada, August 14-18. The cooperation of other church bodies was secured for both of these. All staff members shared in these experiences, in special demonstrations and conferences on utilization at the CWF Quadrennial at Purdue University and at the International Convention in Kansas City. The staff also participated in the 18th annual interdenominational audio-visual conference at Green Lake, Wisconsin, in September.

The audio-visual library scheduled 3,736 bookings of films, filmstrips and slides for more than two thousand churches and provided audio-visual materials for workshops, conferences and other training sessions, and for field use by staff members of the United Society. One hundred thirty-six new films, filmstrips and slide sets were added to the library, making a total of over 1,350 titles in the library.

Research. Miss L. Dee Warren, national director, did major research and script work for all productions. She also did photography at Yakima Indian Christian Mission, All Peoples Christian Church and Community Center, and Hazel Green Academy to provide black and white pictures for illustration and promotional purposes by all departments of the Society. She collected or printed pictures of our work for the Latin American study; provided photographs of missionaries and national staff for publicity and for the new assignment of links to states and areas; and supplied pictures for illustration of news items or articles to WORLD CALL, THE CHRISTIAN and other publications.

Departmental Associate. Mrs. Glenda Berkshire collected, catalogued and filed color slides of the work of each department where possible. These were used in the production of filmstrips and were made available for duplication as requested. She also assisted in all productions and in the preparation of scripts and descriptive folders. She worked with the executive secretary in providing counsel on audio-visual equipment to missionaries, national staff and others.

All members of the audio-visual staff did photography for occasions of interest or news value in Missions Building, at the International Convention, and for special requests.

Christian Women's Fellowship

This has been a year of transition in many aspects of Christian Women's Fellowship (CWF): new staff personnel, new officers of the International Christian Women's Fellowship (ICWF), new members on the Advisory Council, and new developments in financial giving related to the Decade of Decision.

Second Quadrennial Assembly. The Quadrennial Assembly met at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana, July 19-23, 1961, with registrations totaling 3,334. The emphasis was the Decade of Decision. The study book, Decisions, the Bible study, Lord, Teach Us to Pray, the formal program, "Let's Talk About It" groups, and exhibits emphasized decisions that women and the church must make in the 1960's. Approximately 1500 state and local CWF women participated in leadership, in addition to staff of national agencies, missionaries and representatives from all the countries where the Christian Churches have missionary work. Mrs. Wm. K. Evans, president, and Mrs. Arthur E. Landolt, vice-president, closed their services at the Assembly. Mrs. O. Ivan Cole was elected president and Mrs. R. O. Pearson, vice-president, for the new quadrennium. A highlight was the announcement of the establishment of the Jessie M. Trout Scholarship Fund created by the women of the Christian Churches in the United States and Canada to express their appreciation for Miss Trout's service as their executive secretary. The CWF filmstrip, Flame of the Lord's Kindling, had its premier at the Assembly.

Study, Worship, Service. All local and state organizations have pressed forward during the year in the three main program areas related to the CWF purpose "to develop all women in Christian living and in Christian service as part of the witnessing church of Jesus Christ." The general theme for the year was "Doorways to Decisions" and 5,313 copies of the general program booklet and 146,700 year books were used. Mission study centered on churches for new times and Christian mission in Latin America. Twenty-three thousand, four hundred program packets on these themes were purchased. Ninety-seven hundred copies of the Bible study guide, That Timeless Purpose, by Herald B. Monroe, were distributed.

Special emphases during the year included: Woman's Day observed in 2,539 churches and Easter Week of Prayer observed by 1,089 CWFs; 27,450 copies of the Lenten intercessory prayer booklet, Making My Prayer With Joy, by Julia Fangmeier were distributed.

As part of the brotherhood emphasis on Christian literature, approximately 250,000 books were read by those participating in the International CWF Reading Plan.

It is impossible to get an exact record of the service women render in the church, the local community, and the world. During the year, 253,791 pounds of used clothing, blankets and various types of kits were sent through the four Church World Service Centers to meet needs of people around the world. Most of these were prepared and sent by CWFs.

Leadership Development. A major emphasis in CWF is the development of the leadership of women, not only as CWF members, but as competent church women. The department is participating in planning for church-wide leadership development and has encouraged state secretaries and board members to share in such plans at the state level. State presidents as well as secretaries attended the annual sessions of the CWF Staff Fellowship in Indianapolis, February 26-March 4. Emphasis was on leadership development, theological study, and the second Decade goal of CWF, "Every Christian Women's Fellowship—All Inclusive." State boards have engaged in special study and training at their board sessions. Workshops have been conducted for local officers, and retreats for both leadership development and spiritual growth have been held in practically every state.

Relationships. In twelve states, CWF is part of a unified organic structure, responsible for total church program planning. In other states every effort is made through program coordination and cooperative planning to relate the work of CWF to other aspects of church life. State executive secretaries and presidents of CWF have participated in total state program planning conferences. Both state and national staff assisted in training sessions and local church visitations related to Decade objectives for stewardship, world outreach, and self-goaling. State secretaries have accepted responsibility for service to CWFs related to the National Christian Missionary Convention. All national planning and much state planning is done on an integrated basis. Relationships have been maintained with the World CWF, of which the executive secretary serves as secretary-treasurer. Throughout the year, individual women used the prayer topics prepared by Mrs. H. I. Digwood of Western Australia, vice-president of the World Fellowship, and CWFs in the United States and Canada joined with like groups around the world in the annual birthday observance, using the worship service prepared by Itoko Maeda of Okinawa.

Ecumenical Interests. We are justifiably proud of Christian church women who have taken their place in the ecumenical movement through leadership and participation in councils of church women—local, state, and national. CWFs reported participation in World Day of Prayer, 2,411; May Fellowship Day, 1,103; World Community Day, 1,519; the days of special interdenominational fellowship sponsored by United Church Women. At the national level, CWF has been represented on the board of managers, the finance committee, and all program committees of United Church Women, and at the Triennial Assembly in Miami. Mrs. O. Ivan Cole, ICWF president, has represented CWF at assemblies of women in several sister communions. We have entered into plans for a major interdenominational emphasis, "Assignment: Race."

Statistical Highlights. There are 4,191 reporting organizations with 239,825 members. Regular offerings for the year totaled $1,989,891.42; Blessing Box offerings were $86,938.55; designated offerings were $53,178.79, making a grand total of $2,130,008.76.

Personnel. Jessie M. Trout on September 1, 1961, completed fifteen years and eight months as executive secretary of the department; on January 1, Helen F. Spaulding became executive secretary. During the interim, Velva Dreese, associate executive secretary, was acting executive secretary. Mrs. Judson Faw closed her work as director of program coordination on November 1, and was succeeded by Jane Heaton. On July 1, Mrs. D. D. Dugan, executive secretary of Kentucky CWF, retired and was succeeded by Elizabeth Hartsfield. On October 1, Mrs. Haywood Bence became executive secretary of Alabama, and Mrs. W. E. Tissue took optional retirement as executive secretary of West Virginia, succeeded on January 1 by Mrs. C. M. Doss. Also on January 1, Mrs. David L. Kratz became executive secretary of Northern California, succeeding Mrs. Clifford Plopper who took optional retirement. Mrs. L. V. Dennis, volunteer secretary in Louisiana, resigned early in the year, and the work was carried forward by Mrs. Miles Clark, vice-president. Mrs. John Cannon succeeded Mrs. W. W. Thrasher as volunteer president-secretary in Florida, and Mrs. Milo White succeeded Mrs. William Estes as volunteer president-secretary in Arizona.

Men's Work

Staff and Organization—William H. McKinney, executive secretary; Mark Rutherford, associate executive secretary; Jack A. Sutton, Jr., national field director; Albert C. Hofrichter, general representative; Wayne A. Greene, general representative.

The policy and practice of men's work is guided by the National C.M.F. Advisory Commission, which meets annually (June 28-30, 1962, Norman, Oklahoma). Includes 36 state presidents, 5 national staff members, 15 part- or full-time state directors of men's work, 6 senior counselors (retired ministers) and several members-at-large. Central Committee for 1961-62: Joseph Morrison, chairman; Roy Royalty, vice-chairman; William H. McKinney, secretary; Dr. Joseph Bennett, Ralph A. Warren, W. R. Simpson, and H. Clark Armstrong.

Field Work—Each national staff member spends a minimum of 50% of time away from home in speaking, organizing and helping plan men's work in states, districts and local churches. More than 85 state and area week-end retreats conducted in 1961-62, using the subject of evangelism and stewardship. Guidance materials were planned for state and area retreats and for state series of men's rallies each year. Staff members gave generous services in Leadership Training Schools or Schools of Churchmanship, Schools of World Outreach, Visitation Campaigns, some short preaching missions, state and district conventions. The department represents our communion in the National Council and World Council of Church and helps sponsor Protestant Men of the Chapel movement in the military. Visits were made to Jamaica and Puerto Rico during the year.

Literature—Prepared and distributed Laymen's Sunday materials (free) 3rd Sunday in October, for more than 4000 churches. Prepared source book of Monthly Programs for Men (sales literature) for local churches, distributed five issues of Glance, newsletter for men, and gave wide distribution to free materials for men; "You Asked For It" (C.M.F. Action Projects); "101 Keys to Spiritual Growth"; "Is This Your Pastor?" "The C.M.F. Commission Idea"; "A Guidance Manual on Retreats"; also revised and distributed sales literature on "Songs For Men" and "Guidance Material for Men."

Resources and Interpretation

A major concern of the department is reporting to the churches the scope and nature of mission work at home and overseas, as well as to encourage regular financial contributions from the churches, organizations and individual donors to undergird a world-wide program of mission and education.

To function effectively the department comprises three sections as follows: Financial Resources, Interpretation and Publicity, and Field Services.

Financial Resources Section

This section is concerned with encouraging churches with continuing financial support for the United Society. As a member agency of Unified Promotion it is intimately related to the promotional policies and procedures governing each member agency. During the missionary year 1961-62, total receipts from individual donors and the churches to the United Society, were $3,833,515 through Unified Promotion. The Christian Women's Fellowship contributed $2,076,829.97 and the Youth giving was $149,114.04 to Unified Promotion. The United Society received $2,030,909.81 from the following sources:

Foreign Field Receipts	$1,163,524.47
Home Mission Institutions	177,074.31
Annuities, Bequests and Life
Income Contracts	172,804.24
Interest and Special Funds	517,506.79

Wills, Annuities, Life Income Contracts

Individual donors are provided an opportunity to extend their stewardship and share in the work through a Gift Annuity Agreement. A standard, generous interest rate provides the annuitant with income and at death of the annuitant or survivor the income is released to support the program of the Society.

Income is received through bequests made in the wills of individuals who name the United Society in the disposition of their estate. In addition, the United Society receives income from direct cash contributions made by individual donors which is a vital part of the work at home and overseas.

Through the Life Income Contract, a gift may be given the Society and the donor receive an annual income based upon the yearly average earning of the permanent funds of the Society.

New Church Fund

In cooperation with the various state organizations, Board of Church Extension and the office of Unified Promotion, the United Society received $121,661.66 by June 30, 1962, for the special brotherhood program of New Church Advance. This total is divided equally between the division of world mission and division of church life and work for church development at home and overseas.

Decade Capital

Along with other agencies the United Society projected its Capital Fund needs, which are cleared annually with the Commission on Brotherhood Finance. Several departments face urgent needs relating to critical non-recurring items such as transportation units, tools, trucks, housing, repair of buildings, furnishings, equipment, and new construction. A total of $113,585.01 was received by June 30, 1962, on an asking of $338,879.

Interpretation and Publicity

This section seeks to interpret the work of all departments of the churches. It utilizes the existing channels of WORLD CALL, all State Papers, THE CHRISTIAN, LEAVEN, weekly Church Bulletins and the News Bulletins. Coverage through the public press and the Interpretation office of the International Convention presents items of program, personalities and news events of the various news services and religious press services. Free promotional materials dealing with program and the "Missionary Dollar," and mission field News Letters are prepared for distribution to the churches.

Field Services

The State/Area Missionary Partnership is closely related to the field schedule desk, and this section arranges for the visits of missionary and staff personnel to churches, area, district, state and national assemblies, CWF and Youth meets, institutes, schools of World Outreach, Woman's Day, etc. During the 1961-62 missionary year, engagements arranged by the field desk totaled 1,320.

Personnel

Charles C. Mills has been transferred from the Youth Section of the department of Christian Education to the Financial Resources Section of Resources and Interpretation as Director of Budget Cultivation, beginning July 1, 1962. Mr. Mills will continue to administer CWFF and retain relationships with Christian Education.

Miss Margaret Lawrence is now Director of Mission Interpretation.

Service

The Service Department provides the necessary headquarters office services and clerical personnel. It is responsible for the care and maintenance of the buildings and grounds, and the following areas of work:

Matériel Services. This office is responsible for:

1. Advising missionaries regarding their material needs, both for personal use and for the work of the mission station, and providing technical assistance where required.
2. Purchasing supplies for missionaries and mission stations.
3. Shipping all supplies to our overseas stations, by land, air and sea transportation.
4. Handling all insurance covering each shipment of goods.
5. Advising on construction and maintenance projects of the department of home mission ministries.
6. Purchasing for employees and departments of Missions Building and related agencies.

Sales Literature. The staff suggests books and materials, and helps provide leadership for the cooperative Christian Board of Publication—United Christian Missionary Society book exhibits at state conventions, ministers institutes, and other national meetings. Last year 28 of these assemblies were served by the United Society personnel. During the year 934 review books were received and distributed for comment. The staff also prepared 252 consignment lists of books and materials to be used in Christian Women's Fellowship workshops and retreats, Schools of World Outreach, World Fellowship Youth Meets, Spiritual Life Retreats and other general meetings.

Library. The C. T. Paul Memorial Library (27,000 volumes) is especially used for reference and research. It includes approximately 1,700 volumes of the College of Missions Library, the remainder of which is on loan to colleges and universities. During the past year about 300 of the College of Missions books which were no longer needed in the library were returned to them. The majority of the books are on religion, particularly missions, and the Disciples of Christ. The library serves all workers in Missions Building and will loan books to others on inter-library loan.

Personnel. The securing and placing of secretarial and clerical help for all sixteen departments of the United Society is the responsibility of the department. The number of full- and part-time employees supervised by the department averaged 131 during the year.

Group Health Insurance. A total of 856 persons (including active and retired employees and their families) were insured under our group health insurance program at the end of the year. During the year 536 checks have been issued totaling more than $52,000 in payment claims.

Tours of Missions Building. Visitors to Missions Building are always welcome. During the year 1803 persons from 17 states and 7 foreign countries visited and toured the building. When we can know in advance arrangements can be made for staff to speak to groups.

Work Sections. The following ten work sections are supervised: (1) Church Records, (2) Incoming and Outgoing Mail, (3) Print Shop, (4) Address Files, (5) Transcribing, (6) Central File, (7) Remittance Posting, (8) Addressograph, (9) Mimeograph, (10) Stock Room. Approximately 50 persons are employed in these sections. In an average day about 1000 pieces of first class mail are received and distributed; 200 parcel post packages are wrapped and mailed, 200 to 300 address changes are made, 40,000 pieces of printed matter run.

DIVISION OF WORLD MISSION

The 1961 annual report of the division of world mission continues to show gratifying growth within all the areas of our responsibility. A critical and careful study of the statistical report reveals much constructive activity in many areas throughout the world. One of the most significant developments is that of the participation of the division through personnel, funds, and program in many ecumenical interests and areas throughout the world.

To say that 1961 has been a quiet year would be a gross understatement. There has not been a single area that could be called quiet. The tornadoes of revolution, unrest, and crisis have been the daily lot of people everywhere. The Disciples of Christ through its division of world mission must learn to live with this situation for years to come. We can not, however, but realize that the gospel which we present is the gospel for all times, all conditions, and is a gospel of revolution.

The administrative field trips of the secretaries of the division were rather extensive during the year. Mrs. Mae Yoho Ward and Virgil A. Sly were delegates to the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches in New Delhi and visited the areas of our responsibility through the orient on their return home.

Robert G. Nelson made an emergency trip to central Africa and Donald F. West was a delegate to the annual conference of the churches of Jamaica.

The division is in process of re-writing the administrative manual more in keeping with the tenor of the times and the new responsibilities faced through strategy. This will be in print some time during 1962.

The division participated in the 1961 Christian Women's Fellowship Quadrennial by appointing eighteen missionaries at a beautiful service of commission within the program of the Quadrennial.

These days of tension and challenge must be seen within the promise of the Lordship of Jesus Christ who has overcome the world. Inasmuch as we are responsive to His mission, we are responsive to needs of man for redemption of himself, and his society. The call has never been greater nor the need greater for the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Africa Missions

Republic of the Congo. The year 1961 was one of important recovery and change for Congo following the upheaval of mid-1960. Before the end of 1960, largely enabled by the Congo Emergency Fund, missionary staff was being restored to the field. By the middle of 1961 the staff was nearly back to its original numbers but with many changes having taken place in administrative procedures.

In order to assure the continuance of the primary schools related to the mission in Congo it was necessary to commit emergency funds up to a possible $22,000 to care for the loss of subsidy from lack of teachers in the qualifying brackets.

Assistance to ministers and rural evangelists was approved as a grant to the Congo Church in an amount up to $18,000, a reflection of the difficult economic situation which followed in the wake of the upheaval.

Two important legal documents were prepared by the church in Congo and were read and endorsed by the supporting body in the United States. The two documents were: "Constitution of Church of Christ of Congo (Disciples of Christ Section)" which was the church organization and the "Constitution, Disciples of Christ in Congo" which was the holding body of mission property. These documents had the approval of the official bodies within the mission structure in Congo and were made to meet the legal requirements of the existing laws in Congo.

The new legal documents in Congo were created to: (1) Grant administrative autonomy to the Church of Christ of Congo (Disciples of Christ Section); (2) Provide a channel through which we may be of continuing assistance to the Church in Congo; (3) Meet the legal requirements in the holding of property and in the guarantee of certain conventions with government in matters of education and medical work; (4) Protect the property in such a way that it is held in trust for the church in Congo and at their administrative command, yet so as not to be dissipated to private or secular uses.

Garland S. Farmer, Administrative Field Secretary for Congo, visited the various stations during the critical months early in the year. In March he returned to the United States for thirty days of conferences with the Africa Department and furloughed missionaries. Special conferences of several days each were set up for missionaries still in the United States, one in Indianapolis and the other in Oklahoma City.

The Congo Polytechnic Institute was recognized by the trustees of The United Christian Missionary Society as an agency in cooperation with the Congo Protestant Council through which assistance might be channeled to the wider task in Congo. Dr. Keene Watson was assigned to the staff of the Institute through an arrangement with the American-based Agricultural and Technical Assistance Foundation, to head the medical branch of the Congo program. Similarly, Dr. Robert C. Bowers was loaned to the staff of the Congo Protestant Relief Agency; and Dr. Neal Testerman was assigned to the Union Hospital at Kimpese.

Before the end of the year all station areas in the Equator Province had been restaffed by missionary personnel, the assignments having been made by the newly autonomous Congo Church.

A Policy Concerning Staff in Troubled Areas was approved by the board of trustees of the United Society as a guiding policy for the staff related to the Africa department.

A statement of policy concerning the ownership and operation of aircraft was approved for the Africa department and permission granted by the trustees to purchase amphibious aircraft for use in Congo.

A Junior High School for the children of missionaries opened at Monieka during the year. One contract teacher in addition to missionary personnel was assigned to the school.

Robert G. Nelson, Executive Secretary of the Africa department did not visit the field during 1961 since the emergency of the previous year had made two extensive visits necessary.

Despite the unforeseen difficulties resulting from the rapid political transition in Congo, the missionary staff in Congo found reason to report many encouraging aspects of the work. The Equator Province remained the most relatively calm area of Congo throughout the year and under severe handicap the church continued to go forward. The year was not without many discouragements and disappointments, however. The practical problems of transportation and economic difficulty made proper aid and supervision for the field extremely hard and adequate reporting was limited. There was evidence of continued good attendance in all churches, however, and much credit is due both missionaries and their Congolese colleagues for the ongoing of the work.

UNITED CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ANNUAL REPORT

Ecumenical Work. Because of the continued need of an office in Brussels, the cooperating Protestant bodies working in Congo decided to continue the Congo Protestant Bureau for Congo Missions. An African Protestant Home to be known as the "David Livingston Hostel" was established in Brussels for the purpose of: gathering Africans residing in Belgium in view of organizing spiritual, educational and cultural activities; to procure lodging and food for African students in Belgium; and to cooperate with churches and Evangelical groups in Belgium and in foreign countries in this social and missionary task.

An Africa Literacy and Writing Centre was established by the Committee of World Literacy and Christian Literature and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Behler were assigned to its staff at the Mindola Ecumenical Centre at Kitwe in Northern Rhodesia.

Republic of South Africa. The Linden Christian Church at its annual meeting voted to authorize its minister, Rev. Basil Holt, to pursue conversations on its behalf with the Congregationalist Union of South Africa with a view to some closer association with that body. A good deal of interchange has taken place and continues, but as yet there is nothing further to report.

Rev. H. Austin Smith was appointed superintendent of African missions; and the Holy Catholic Apostolic Church sect which had been associating with us for a year came into full membership with us.

The Stonehaven Conference Grounds at Hartbeespoort Dam were sold and the proceeds are being devoted now to the erection of a Barton Stone Memorial Hall at Wilgespruit Fellowship Centre, ecumenical conference grounds near Johannesburg, where we shall cooperate with the various bodies comprised in the Christian Council of South Africa.

Through a grant from The United Christian Missionary Society we were enabled to underwrite the services of a part-time (about 2/3rd time) African Field Officer for the Christian Education Movement of South Africa. (His name: Mr. H. S. Ramaila, who is an M.A. of Columbia University.) The C.E.M. is inter-racial.

⁴Missionary Tabulation does not give an accurate picture of staff because of retirements and overlapping period of service. The figure covers all missionaries on the staff of World Mission, including two in ecumenical work in Okinawa.

Mrs. Maggie Winifred Holt, wife of Basil Holt, Administrative Field Secretary in South Africa, died on July 29, 1961. Mrs. Holt served with her husband on the missionary staff in South Africa, the land of her birth. She was especially appreciated for her work with children and women in the Johannesburg area.

East Asia Missions

Japan. As Japan continues its industrial development, and reaches a new high in economic prosperity, so the church in Japan moves rapidly toward complete self-support. The United Church of Christ in Japan has excellent leadership. The Christian ministry is probably the best trained and most highly educated in the orient. The Church has become a "sending" Church, with Christian leaders in South America, southeast Asia, India and even in Europe who have been sent out to work in special areas of Christian ministry.

In spite of these positive factors, there is continued need for economic aid from the church in America in several areas of Christian work: (1) CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS, although self-supporting in regular running expenses, still need aid in building programs. (2) CHRISTIAN RADIO AND TELEVISION programs reach a wider audience than has ever before been available to the church. Though costly, audio-visual programs in Japan are becoming highly developed, and are pioneering for the Christian Church throughout the Far East. (3) Just as American Churches were slow in providing support for aged ministers so the church in Japan has only in recent years realized the need for a ministerial PENSION FUND. Without a pension fund, aged ministers hold onto their pastorates long after years of productive leadership have been passed. $100,000 has been asked from its supporting boards by the United Church here, to establish a retirement system.

There is great hope for the church in Japan, for a growing and strengthening of the church. Aid in these areas will add to that strength and will hasten the time when the church here will become completely self-supporting.

Thailand. During this year, Thailand has been increasingly prominent in the world news. This has not been because of internal difficulty here, but rather because of the serious situations within the bordering countries of Laos, Cambodia, South Vietnam and Burma. It has been recognized that, because Thailand is in the very heart of this area of unrest in Southeast Asia, any weakening of the economic or political situation here could cause a rapid change in the balance of tension that covers this area. The internal situation in Thailand is one that can be characterized by stability of government and economy. Through foreign aid help, increased private investment and local government participation, the economic situation has undergone very favorable changes.

The Thai government has boosted the level of compulsory education from grade four to grade seven. Although it is recognized that there are not enough schools in most areas to provide adequate facilities to take care of the increase, this is now regarded as the standard. Private schools, Buddhist temple schools, Christian mission schools and government schools are all being encouraged to help increase facilities to make this educational level available to all Thai youth. There has been a corresponding raise in the educational requirements for teachers.

The church community in Thailand is showing an increasingly high level of responsible leadership—from the level of the village evangelist to the representation on the General Council of the Church. The role of the mission organization as a planning group has been almost completely supplanted by the General Council and the other committees of the Church of Christ in Thailand in the planning and administering of the work of the church here.

The fruits of our extensive scholarship training programs are beginning to be felt in terms of our national staff. Each of the regular preaching points in the Nakon Pathom area now have trained pastors. Our schools are looking forward to the first group of university level teachers who will be finishing this year. Extensive evangelism programs within the schools continue to produce many of our finest church leaders.

The actual staffing of the Sangkla station during this past year represents a beginning in this remote jungle area. Although this project was started jointly by the American Baptist and the Disciples missions, recommendations have already been made to both boards that this work be carried on as a part of the work of the Church of Christ in Thailand. The Church of Christ in Thailand would like to make this their first project to operate under a new committee on national mission.

Philippines. The year 1961 was one of unusual strain and turbulence for both national and church life in the Philippines. An issue which was vexing to the entire commonwealth was the economic uncertainty caused by governmental decontrol of the peso, permitting the peso to find its own level in local and international money markets after years of arbitrary pegging at two pesos to the dollar. By the end of 1961 pesos were between three and four to the dollar. This caused adjustments in many areas, including church life. Mission boards faced serious decisions regarding costs of missionary support and levels of subsidy for church budgets. As the year ended many questions were unresolved.

In April construction began on the Men's Dormitory and Commons building of the new Union Theological Seminary campus in Dasmarias, Cavite, south of Manila, on extensive land provided by the Nanking Seminary Board of Founders. The campus will be occupied in 1962.

One of ten American pastors and wives who participated in the Fil-American Teams of Testimony was a Disciple, Rev. Leonard J. Brummett, who spent October and November in workshops strengthening evangelism and churchmanship in selected Philippine centers.

At the invitation of the Philippines Federation of Christian Churches and the Philippine Association of Theological Schools, and with subsidy provided by the cooperating American mission boards through the Philippines Interboard Committee, a survey of five theological colleges and seminaries and six Bible schools was instituted by a team of educators selected in the Philippines, one being President of an American seminary.

A union language school was set up in Manila to train new missionaries in several major dialects, with cooperation from mission bodies beyond the membership of the Philippines Interboard Committee.

After months of deepest study and heart-searching, members of a majority of the Tagalog Churches of Christ voted to unite with the United Church of Christ, having previously approved entry into the Pension scheme of that body. The formalities of union were scheduled for the 1962 General Assembly of the United Church.

Okinawa. With the arrival of 15,000 new military late in 1961, Okinawa continues to be a crucial center on the "rim of Asia," and with substantial developments in church and mission life also. Miss Itoko Maeda returned to her post at the Christian Institute and was also invited to aid the Women's Department of the Church. Miss Wuanita Reed, a Disciple, was sent out to re-inforce the combined mission staff, after language study in Japan. A missionary family from Hawaii has also joined the staff, sponsored by a sister mission board.

The Jochi Church at Koza City and the main building at the Yaeyama Rural Center were important additions to church property.

China. Although no regular program with budget support was possible in 1961, various projects were assisted with special funds, in Hong Kong, Taiwan (Formosa) and elsewhere. For the most part such assistance was undertaken in cooperation with the Nanking Seminary Board of Founders, the United Board for Christian Higher Education in Asia, the Committee on World Literacy and Christian Literature (Lit-Lit), and RAVEMCCO (Radio, Visual Education and Mass Communication Committee). The Hong Kong Pilot Radio Programming Project was supported through RAVEMCCO whereas a special Advance Literature Program for Chinese Literature was assisted through Lit-Lit and the Council on Christian Literature for Overseas Chinese. The Curriculum Project for the Chinese-speaking peoples of South-east Asia was also supported through the World Council of Christian Education.

Sustaining contributions to Chung Chi College in Hong Kong and Tung-hai University on Taiwan were channeled through the United Board.

The East Asia department participated in forming an Interboard Committee for Hong Kong in cooperation with several other American and Canadian mission boards.

India Mission

In India during the past year there have been two events that have affected the whole country: one was the third general election, and the other, the conjunction of the planets. It is hard to determine which tied up the normal functioning of the country the more.

For our mission probably the most outstanding advance was the formal acceptance of a new constitution for the India Church Council of the Disciples of Christ, applicable to both our mission and church institutions. At a specially called constitution convention the final details were threshed out in open session so that the Hindi text was acceptable to all. For the first time an Indian executive secretary, Mr. Peter Solomon of Damoh, has been elected.

Reports from our churches show that there has been a general increase in our membership. In addition the local giving has taken a decided increase. This is reflected in the strengthened support of our pastors and the additional giving for the India Church Council of the Disciples of Christ, our new overall organization.

One of the most heartening events of the year was the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bicks to take over the administrative responsibilities from Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Potee. Being from Canada, one of the commonwealth countries, there was no difficulty in getting permission to enter the country. They have entered into their job with great enthusiasm and give assurance of sound administration of the responsibilities entrusted to them.

The six months that Miss Jessie M. Trout, executive secretary for field liaison, was in India were a blessing to all. During her stay she was able to conduct conferences for pastors knowing English, and then for those village workers who know only Hindi. Everyone testifies that her spiritual message 'broke through the barrier' both of the routine of work and that of language.

1961 will also be remembered for the meeting of the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches at New Delhi. For the first time this Christian gathering was in a country that was predominately of another religion. As the Vice-President of India pointed out "Christians are ordinary folks making extraordinary claims." The theme of Christ as The Light of the World could well have caused a turmoil, but rather the opposite was the result as all messages were respectfully received.

Following the meeting of the World Council of Churches, many leaders of our church from foreign lands made visits to Madhya Pradesh, Orissa, and Nepal. Their presence was a stimulation to every institution and church, though the impending Christmas holidays made their stay entirely too short and rushed.

India was privileged to have one representative at the 1961 Quadrennial meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship and Miss Kanchan Shah, Principal of Burgess Memorial Girls' School in Bilaspur, graced the occasion.

Our cooperation at Vellore Medical College has been strengthened with the coming of the Drs. Willard and Siegfried Centerwall. In Ludhiana Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Rambo are completing their last year of service before retirement. Miss Anna Bender, in our union project at the Pendra Road Sanatorium, worked right up to the eve of her departure for retirement.

The Agricultural Institute at Allahabad has had a visit by the Prime Minister, Mr. Nehru. He commended the production of ploughs to the extent of buying one for himself. Late in the year news has come of a grant of $750,000 from the Ford Foundation for a special program of experimentation and production of more and better ploughs for India's farmers.

In Nepal the mission's work has been extended to areas outside the Kathmandu valley, Gorkha, Palpa and Doti Districts. Some of these places will only be well served when it is possible to fly in. On the Nepal mission staff there are more than one hundred persons, from twelve countries, supported by seventeen boards. The United Christian Missionary Society is represented by Miss Elizabeth Hill. The India Church Council of Disciples of Christ support a missionary of their own, Miss Chandra Jakou, a graduate of the Bilaspur School of Nurses. The whole Nepal enterprise is one of the thrilling developments of full cooperation by the denominations and participation of the younger churches in extension of the mission horizon.

The unique opportunity for the advance of the gospel in the province of Orissa has never been brighter. Following the World Council of Churches meeting in New Delhi a conference was set up by the leadership of the Utkal Christian Church Central Council, the Baptist Missionary Society of Great Britain, and The United Christian Missionary Society in December. In this meeting consideration was given to the development of the work in West Utkal and in the Kond Hills. Needs were graphically presented. The urgent plea was for greater participation of The United Christian Missionary Society by personnel, funds, and interest. Here in the heart of a growing opportunity there is a new challenge to develop the church. Ways must be found that The United Christian Missionary Society make available to this area sufficient support to enable sturdy development of the work. Approaches are being made to countries having dominion status with India, such as Canada, Australia and New Zealand, to see if it is possible to secure missionaries who may enter India more easily than those from the United States.

Latin America Missions

Argentina. The Argentine churches adopted in their annual meeting a Ten Year Advance Program which included attainment of self-support of present congregations and the establishment of 5 new churches. Tentative places selected in northern Argentina were Las Brenas, Puerto Bermejo, Formosa, Pilar, Corrientes.

The work at Barranqueras was intensified by the transfer of the Dean Rogers family from Paraguay and the building of a sanctuary where the cornerstone was laid in August. Mr. and Mrs. Allin Sharp moved from Buenos Aires to Virasora to accept the invitation of the Navaja family to begin educational work with equipment and financial support given by the family.

Angel Peiro began work with the Indians in the village of Villa Alta. The newly organized congregation at General Vedia constructed with their own funds a simple house of worship.

Cooperation continued with the Methodists at Ward School enrollment of 1,020, and the Union Seminary with 4 Disciple students enrolled.

The Convention went on record that the churches should express a reaffirmation of their desire to continue work toward organic union. A committee on Unity was appointed and instructed to be the initiators in calling a Consultation.

Jamaica. In spite of heavy migration to England the membership increased steadily. A team of ministers from the United States helped greatly in an evangelistic crusade. Per capita giving increased 40% over 1960. Consistent and well-planned programs initiated by the Christian Education Committee resulted in increased attendance in Sunday school, young people, men's and women's groups.

Enrique Hibbert graduated from the Union Theological Seminary and was ordained. Basil Metz was granted an Ecumenical Scholarship to study at The College of the Bible, Lexington, Kentucky. Richmond Nelson received his B.D. from Union Theological Seminary, New York, and became pastor of the Duke Street Church, which attained self-support.

Oberlin High School continued to grow as new buildings provided for increased enrollment.

More than 2,500 children attended Vacation Bible Schools held in all but two churches. The Young People's Conference enrolled 101.

The most striking evidence of progress during the year 1961 was the emergence of a renewed interest and vitality among lay workers. This was expected especially at a time when the Church in Jamaica seeks to meet the challenge of a new nation.

Mexico. 1961 was the Year of Preparation for the Revolutionary Plan of Evangelism (P.R.E.) The year included a series of training institutes for laymen, preachers and missionaries. Six central institutes were held at Mountain of Light Farm with an enrollment of 124 in 21 different subjects. Thirty-seven Laymen's Institutes were held in local churches, two weeks in each church, with 716 students. Twenty-four confessions of faith resulted from these classes.

Eighteen revival campaigns were held with a total attendance of 2,997. There were 35 confessions and 33 re-dedications of life. The highest average attendance for any one church was 112 in Tenayuca. The committees of P.R.E. issued three prayer-letters to 200 people, prepared a book of Daily Devotions (written by all the workers), worked on a P.R.E. hymnal, issued two news bulletins, sold 1200 books and pamphlets in the churches, made a survey of the field which revealed 170 promising villages in the environs of 12 of the present churches, and supervised the compilation of church statistics.

The Convention held in Tenayuca was a mountain-top experience because of the inspired leadership of Mr. Juan Isaias, Coordinator in Depth Evangelism of the Latin American Mission in Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Guatemala. Mr. Isaias visited the principal Disciple churches, gave two classes in a Workers' Institute and prepared an evaluation of present conditions, needs, and plans for evangelism.

P.R.E. was financed by some churches including P.R.E. in their regular budget, some preachers giving systematically, designated gifts from the U.S.A., $850 from an individual in San Luis Potosi and $4,000 from the women of the Union (English speaking) Church in Mexico City, which provided a second vehicle equipped with loud speaker, for traveling among the churches.

In July the new Disciple congregation in Mexico City purchased property and launched a building fund for remodeling the building for use as a sanctuary and eventually to serve as the educational unit.

On February 22 the cornerstone of the new building for Hope Hospital was laid. President and Mrs. A. Dale Fiers were present for the ceremony.

Jose Medina became Director of Christian Education. Meximo Vieyra married Rosa Vasquez and transferred from Jerez to the Congregational Church in Tepic. Nohemi Garza and Carmel Carrillo (rural schoolteacher) were guests of the Oklahoma young people. Soledad Gallegos, president of Women's work, attended the CWF Quadrennial. Sergio Garcia (champion orator, Aguas, Y. P.) was a delegate to the Second Evangelical Conference at Lima.

Paraguay. Colegio Internacional finished its 42nd school year, with an enrollment of 730 students, 426 in the Primary grades and 304 in the Secondary department. An excellent corps of teachers carried on in spite of student unrest throughout the country. The 5th and 6th grades were moved from the main building and an excellent laboratory for Chemistry, Physics and Biology installed. The annual fair for the Leper Society was highly successful, netting $700.

The churches continued regular activities. Special programs were as follows: Peru St. held services in both Spanish and English; Barrio Colon organized a sports program for youth and developed an evangelistic program with them; Tuyupucu under the leadership of a lay minister dedicated a new building August 26; Arroyos y Esteros made good progress; San Miguel moved into a new building; Villa Aurelia held an Institute for teachers and the women's group bought equipment for the church and aided in cleaning and keeping up the building; Friendship Mission enrolled 163 in Vacation Bible School, the CWF donated generously to the building fund of the church. The cornerstone for the new sanctuary was laid Aug. 27 with Mae Yoho Ward representing the United Society.

Due to furloughs the Roy Miller family carried on alone in Coronel Oviedo so growth in the church was almost nil. The arrival of six North American priests did not help the situation. Much time was spent visiting the preaching points. The return of the R. Q. Adams as pastors of the church will accelerate the work.

Friendship Mission had thirty volunteers who served as doctors, teachers, and counselors. Classes were well attended. The deaf and dumb of Asuncion held their meetings at the Mission. Classes were organized and some help given in teaching them. Teaching adult illiterates was one of the popular activities. A variety of classes enrolled 225 students.

Puerto Rico. Puerto Rican church growth continued. New congregations were organized in Rio Plantation, Juan Sanchez, Magnolia and Santa Rosa. Land was purchased in Lomas Verdes and Dorado. Church buildings were constructed at Puerto Nuevo, Sabana Seca, Villa Palmeras and Rio Arriba. In construction were churches at Villa Nevarez and Espinosa. Parsonages were purchased in Las Lomas and Salta de Comerio. An office building was built and dedicated in honor of Sancho Rodriguez, the oldest minister of the staff, who had led many young men into the ministry.

El Fondo Común (similar to Unified Promotion) was established, each church paying into the fund offerings for distribution to the Seminary, the Evangelical Council, scholarships, pensions, commission meetings, etc. Emphasis was placed on missions and the churches studied the work of the church in Africa.

There was interchange of Puerto Ricans and Americans as representatives of the C.Y.F. attended the International Christian Youth Fellowship and the North American Youth Assembly, twenty-three American youth spent a week at McLean conference grounds, nine musical directors attended the seminar in sacred music at Christian Theological Seminary, and Mr. and Mrs. Parr Armstrong led in stewardship institutes.

The secretary of Christian education spoke in the University of Puerto Rico on the theme "Marriage According to the Protestant Belief," conferences were held with many of the churches on "The Christian Concept of Marriage," "The Significance of Christian Literature," "The Adolescent in the Family," etc.

Michael Saenz, missionary, was a delegate of the National Council to the New Delhi Assembly.

Missionary Selection and Training

Responsibilities: The department of missionary selection and training is responsible for recruiting and selecting qualified missionary personnel and the education and training of that personnel. It is also responsible for the education of nationals from mission countries who study in the United States under the auspices of The United Christian Missionary Society. In addition to the above, the department administers the program of the College of Missions with the executive secretary serving as dean.

New Personnel Appointed: During the calendar year of 1961 twenty-three persons were appointed to serve abroad. Three were appointed in March, two in June and eighteen in July. The July appointments were made during the Christian Women's Fellowship Quadrennial. In addition to these regular appointments Mrs. Virginia Greer was employed and sent to Congo on a contract teaching assignment. The following are the persons appointed during the year and the fields to which they were sent: Miss Frances M. Hill, Philippines; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Newby, Northern Rhodesia; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Kilgore, Mexico; Mrs. Ida Tobin Hopper, Mexico; Miss Yvonne West (now Mrs. John Heugel), Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kintner, Paraguay; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, India (India governmental clearance denied. Reassigned to the Philippines in June 1962); Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bicks, India; Drs. Willard and Siegfried Centerwall, India; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bremer, Japan; Mr. and Mrs. Allan Eubank, Thailand; Dr. and Mrs. Keith Fleshman, Africa; and Dr. and Mrs. Harrison Goodall, Africa.

Recruitment: Recruitment at the graduate and post-graduate levels was accentuated by the department during the year. Attention was also given to university campuses, several of which were visited by representatives of the department. The department has utilized the services of missionaries on furlough as well as members of the division of world mission executive staff for such recruitment purposes. Miss Daisy Edgerton served as "Missionary Recruiter" until her return to Japan in July. Mr. Bernard Davis of Congo and Mr. Victor McAnallen of Thailand were invited to serve the department in recruitment during their furlough. They began this service in September.

Selection: Selection is the process by which interested recruits become missionaries. Any time during the junior year in college a missionary volunteer may apply for missionary candidacy. A missionary volunteer is a recruit who has completed at least one blank for the department. After the sophomore year and when all blanks are completed the volunteer is asked to take the Health Survey, consisting of a physical examination, a battery of psychological tests plus an interview with a psychiatrist. This Health Survey helps to determine whether the total health of the individual is satisfactory for service abroad and enables the department to discover the weaknesses which can be corrected to enable each individual to become a more effective Christian witness. When the results of the Health Survey are received the complete file of the volunteer is reviewed by the division of world mission. Upon their recommendation the volunteer is interviewed by the board of trustees. Upon approval by the board of trustees, a missionary volunteer becomes a missionary candidate. During the past year twenty-three volunteers were approved for candidacy. Missionary candidates continue to prepare for missionary service until they have completed the educational requirements of the Society. They are then appointed for a term of service abroad. Following the satisfactory completion of the first term plus their studies during the first furlough the appointee is commissioned as a missionary.

Education and Training: In addition to academic preparation for service abroad, missionary candidates are placed in work where they can gain a significant amount of experience in preparation for overseas service. Two missionary candidates spent the year in teaching assignments. Several missionary candidates spent the summer in internship work in home missions institutions and in Mexico. Other candidates served in other experiential positions during the summer, such as in the ministry to Migrants.

College of Missions: The College of Missions held its annual summer session. Classes were held in Indianapolis, Indiana, utilizing the services of the staff members of The United Christian Missionary Society and other agencies in Missions Building. The second section of the College of Missions was held at Crystal Beach, Michigan. Seventeen students satisfactorily completed the summer course of the College of Missions.

Scholarships to Nationals: The department administers the scholarship funds and program of the division of world mission for missionaries on furlough and nationals studying in the United States under the auspices of the Society. During the past year the following nationals studied under the guidance and support of the department: Miss Shirley Webster—Republic of South Africa; Mr. Richmond Nelson—Jamaica; Mr. Gilbert Hwang—Hong Kong; Mr. Teruo Ishizawa—Japan; Mrs. Gloria M. Santos—Philippines; and Mr. Daniel Rasay—Philippines.

Statistics: As of December 31, 1961, there were 73 missionary candidates in the active files of the department. Twenty-three persons were appointed for service abroad and one person sent out on a contracted teaching assignment. Twenty-three volunteers became missionary candidates. It is estimated that we will need a minimum of 40 new missionary candidates per year during the Decade of Decision so the department regrets that it is far below its goal.

World Call

Samuel F. Pugh, Editor

222 South Downey Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana

Fleetwood 3-1491

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

World Call was established in 1919 as the "International Magazine of Disciples of Christ." It was formed by the merging of five magazines directly related to various national boards.

Seven years of preparation made possible the uniting of these five magazines and also gave a voice to four other national organizations without a regular publication. This venture in cooperation occurred a year before the forming of The United Christian Missionary Society. The organizing agency was the Men and Millions Movement.

The first editorial sentence in the first number of World Call, January, 1919, was:

"This magazine is meant to be a channel through which the call of the world's supreme needs and the challenge of Christ's supreme leadership may reach the people of God." In further defining its purpose it went on to say: "The world that is the church's field is not merely the geographical world. We must Christianize the whole range and content of every nation's life, especially our own. . . . This magazine we believe to be here by God's appointment with the simple duty of making known in word and photograph the reality, scope and urgency of the world call and the progress of Christian forces in answering the call."

World Call is published by the World Call Publication Committee on which there are seven representatives from the various phases of work of The United Christian Missionary Society, and one each from the Council on Christian Unity, the Board of Church Extension, the Board of Higher Education, the National Benevolent Association, The Pension Fund, and the Disciples of Christ Historical Society.

Other national agencies may be admitted to membership by vote of the Publication Committee. The agencies agree to share in any deficit on a basis to be determined mutually. It has never been necessary to apply this provision.

The Editor and Chief of Staff is elected by the Publication Committee. He is in charge of editorial and circulation policies and reports to the Committee.

World Call carries no local church news. Its concern is with the total world outreach of the church in the broad sense of the term. While it deals chiefly with the work of Disciples, much space is given to the larger aspects of the Christian world. While practically all Disciple ministers subscribe to World Call, its typical reader is the interested and active member and lay leader of the local church.

ANNUAL REPORT July 1, 1961, to June 30, 1962

Associated Church Press Award of Merit: At its annual meeting held in New York City in April, the Associated Church Press presented an award of merit to World Call. The 1962 award was given "for signal achievement in Christian journalism through excellence in the treatment of denominational program."

Circulation: World Call's net paid circulation as of June 30, 1962, stood at 75,427. This means that the story of the Disciples of Christ and of the universal church is being received in over 75,000 homes every month by way of the pages of World Call. In addition, World Call sends copies to all missionaries, national staff, state secretaries, and the various agencies of Disciples of Christ.

Finances: Throughout the forty-three years of its history, World Call has paid its way on the basis of income received from subscriptions and advertising. Although the seven sponsoring agencies have committed themselves to underwrite any deficit that should occur, such an appeal has never been necessary.

Receipts from subscriptions and advertising for the year ending June 30, 1962, were $163,122.29. The cash balance on June 30 was $13,148.28. Receipts and disbursements of World Call are made through the treasury of The United Christian Missionary Society and are audited with the United Society's books. (See page 240 of this book for report.)

Every Home Plan: In order that local churches may get the greatest possible value, the Every Home Plan is offered at a saving of $1.00 on every subscription—the single rate being $2.50 and the E.H.P. rate, $1.50. One requirement is that a congregation have subscriptions equal to thirty per cent of its membership figure (as listed in the current Year Book). In some churches the E.H.P. subscriptions are included in the budget; in others the members are asked to pay half of the subscription cost. World Call will furnish without charge special envelopes that may be included in the church stewardship packet.

On June 30 there were 108 Every Home Plan churches. These account for 17,007 subscriptions.

Ten Per Cent Legion: The September issue of World Call lists those churches in which the subscriptions amount to at least 10% of the membership as listed in the current Year Book. The year closing June 30, 1962, showed 897 churches in this group known as Ten Per Cent Legion congregations. The previous year there were 714 churches that qualified. Of the 897, there were 138 that had 20% or more members (not families) subscribing.

DIRECTORY OF CAMPUS MINISTERS AND CAMPUS MINISTRY CONTACTS

This list is published for the convenience of our Home Church Secretaries for Students. These persons, working with the Membership Functional Departments, should send the names of students going to college to the proper persons listed as ministering in some way to Disciples of Christ. Home Church Secretaries for Students and pastors are encouraged to correspond or visit each center to acquaint the campus personnel with the student. Additional follow-up is possible during vacation periods, etc. For additional resource for the Home Church Secretary for Students, write the Joint Commission on Campus Christian Life, your State Committee of Campus Christian Life.

The list below does not include every possible contact on each campus. If we have not listed some campus where there is a religious program for Christian Church members, we would welcome such information for future listings. If you should find no listing for a campus simply check the city and state listing of churches for the closest Christian Church. We are sure that the pastor would welcome information from you.

The letters in parentheses designate the position of the person listed. (CM) Person serving full-time as campus minister. (I-D) Interdenominational Center Personnel. (CPLN) College Chaplain. (ME) Minister of Christian Education, Director of Christian Education, or Associate Minister. (LA) Person employed part-time to lead student activities. (M) Minister of local church. (FAC) Administrative and faculty personnel. *Indicates appropriation is sent from Joint Commission on Campus Christian Life, #Indicates support through the State Unified Promotion Budget.

DISCIPLES AND THE NATIONAL COUNCIL

The National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA has a membership of 33 denominations and communions with a total constituency of 38 million. Membership by the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) is through the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). Members to the Assembly and General Board are elected by the International Convention. We have an allocation of 32 members to the Assembly and 8 members to the General Board. Representation is maintained through agencies reporting to the International Convention on the various divisions as follows: Division of World Mission; Division of Home Missions; Division of Christian Education; Division of Christian Life and Work. Financial support of the National Council is through direct contributions from local congregations and appropriations from cognate bodies to the various divisional programs.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST REPRESENTATIVES SERVING THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

475 Riverside Drive
New York 27, N. Y.
Riverside 9-4887

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

WHAT IS THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES?

“The World Council of Churches is a fellowship of churches which confess the Lord Jesus Christ as God and Saviour according to the Scriptures and therefore seek to fulfill together their common calling to the glory of the one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.” (Basis of the World Council of Churches)

The World Council of Churches, whose central office is located in Geneva, Switzerland, is now represented in 80 countries and is the organizational expression of the spiritual unity of 201 Christian communions. It was officially founded in 1948 at Amsterdam.

Its fellowship includes Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox churches. Christ prayed four times for one thing; that all who believed in Him might be ONE. The World Council was founded in obedience to that command. It is not a “superchurch” and has no jurisdiction over the church bodies associated with it. This unity recognizes differences but provides a fellowship with which diversity and unity can be recognized.

The World Council provides a means by which assistance can be given to victims of war, catastrophe or world disturbance. It also provides an institute for the training of new Christian leaders. Its departments include youth, women and laymen. Its Assemblies are held every six years.

DISCIPLES AND THE WORLD COUNCIL

Membership in the World Council of Churches by the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) is through the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). The Convention voted to become a member of the World Council at the Denver Assembly in 1938 while the Council was still in process of formation. We were the first American Church to vote membership after the provisional charter had been opened. Representation to the official organization of the World Council is through members elected by the International Convention. We have representatives at the Assemblies, on the Central Committee, and on various other functional committees. Our financial support is by direct contributions from local congregations upon the basis of a suggested quota.

MINISTERS' DIRECTORY

Although this Ministers' Directory is the most complete and accurate list of ministers among the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), it is not published as an official list. It consists of names and addresses compiled by the Year Book office with the assistance of state, area and provincial organizations of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

Resolution No. 40 of the 1962 Assembly of the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) which states the principles and procedures regarding the listing of ministers in the Year Book states that such listing "should be open and inviting to responsible persons." It also states that "ministers listed in the Year Book should demonstrate a sense of responsibility for and commitment to the International Convention and its reporting agencies."

Every effort has been made to compile an accurate list. Names of persons for whom addresses were not available have been omitted. Primary responsibility for listing ministers in all classifications is lodged with the state or area office or with the state or area body the Year Book Publication Committee has entrusted with this task.

An enlarged set of symbols has been used in classifying ministers by fields of service for the 1962 edition. More categories of ministerial service have been included to make the directory still more useful. In most cases, classifications were designated by state, area or provincial offices of the Disciples.

Corrections were made in this directory through November 1, 1962, but it is assumed information about some ministerial changes was not available at that deadline.

Note: The Committee on Military and Veterans Services will forward only first-class mail addressed to chaplains at the addresses given below.

Statistical Reports

Primarily for the Fiscal Year, July 1, 1961—June 30, 1962

Congregations listed in these statistical reports are, according to the best information available to the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), affiliated with the brotherhood of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ). All of the congregations listed for the first time in this edition, designated by the "NC" or "FL" symbols, have requested to be included in the Year Book.

Ministers are listed with the congregations they were serving when the Year Book went to press. They were not necessarily serving these congregations during the fiscal year covered by most of the statistical reports, July 1, 1961—June 30, 1962.

Information was gathered from congregations, which annually are asked to submit reports for Year Book purposes, and various church agencies and institutions to which Christian Churches make contributions.

Congregations are listed without regard to the racial composition of their memberships.

EXPLANATION OF OFFERINGS COLUMNS:

Unified Promotion.—Offerings credited to Church Budget, Church School, Christian Women's Fellowship and Youth Groups apply on the operational budgets of all the causes supported through Unified Promotion.

Unified Promotion, Capital and Designated Offerings.—These are monies not subject to the percentage distribution for operational budgets of the agencies cooperating in Unified Promotion. Included are capital for new churches, camps, office buildings, dormitories and other similar projects in capital programs for the Decade of Decision, the 1960's. Designated funds are not subject to division.

Support to Ecumenical Councils.—Totals of contributions from Christian Churches reported by local, state, national and world councils of churches are reported in this column. Congregation-by-congregation lists of gifts to the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and the World Council of Churches, respectively, are given on pages 329 and 337. Contributions to local and state councils of churches are listed at the end of the statistical table for each state.

Total Dollars for Brotherhood-Related Causes.—Contributions to all world outreach causes of the Christian Churches, including the ecumenical councils, are totaled in this column. This total includes the preceding eight columns plus support of city organizations of the Disciples, which is reported at the end of the statistical table for each state.

Percentage, Brotherhood-Related Causes.—This figure is the percentage of the congregations total contributions that is given to brotherhood-related causes. It does not represent ratio which is the figure used over the last two years but percentage.

Miscellaneous.—Contributions to local charities and miscellaneous causes for which credit is not given in the preceding columns.

Total Outreach.—Two columns, “Total Dollars for Brotherhood-Related Causes” and “Miscellaneous,” are totaled here.

Per Capita.—A congregation’s contributions per member for outreach causes and for all purposes are shown in the last two columns. They are obtained by dividing the congregation’s resident membership into the amount reported in the “Total Outreach” column and into the sum of the “Amount Contributed for Local Expenses” and “Total Outreach” columns.

GO EAST, YOUNG MAN!!

(With apologies to Horace Greeley)

In its 112 years on the Christian Higher Education scene, Hiram College has served every state in the union and most of the countries of the world.

The fact is, however, that most of our students come from Ohio (naturally), Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and the northeastern United States. We shall continue to serve these areas, but sincerely wish to include more of the superior students representing the heaviest of our Disciple population. Obviously, this large constituency is to the west and southwest. Thus, we hope to encourage students of excellence from these states to consider Hiram College. They will help balance the scales.

Scholarship assistance is always available to the superior student. The college grant of $400.00 for sons and daughters of Disciple ministers is an indication of the college's sincerity to provide for our own people. The academic program at Hiram provides the best in the liberal arts tradition and demands top-flight students from our Christian Churches.

SO, COME EAST, YOUNG MAN!!

Within the eye of God stands man — small and complex — searching for truth and wisdom.
He confronts the world and it touches him with fire and sword — with hope and love.
It is his challenge to reach beyond his fingertips — to look further than eyes can see.
An education can be his key — to wisdom, productive living,
tomorrow's door.

1963 ASSEMBLY, INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES
(Disciples of Christ)

"THE CHRISTIAN"

NEW MEMBERS—To acquaint new members with a total view of the Brotherhood, there's nothing more sensible than THE CHRISTIAN with its crisp, concise, up-to-date presentation of Disciple news.

DEVOTIONALS AND MEDITATIONS—For private meditations or group worship, the article "A Faith to Live By" offers excellent aid.

SPECIAL STUDY GROUPS—For more detailed discussion, "Letters to the Editor" and "A Chat with Chet" make stimulating conversational pivot points.

CHURCH LIBRARY—The Librarian can use articles and features clipped from THE CHRISTIAN in special church promotions and emphases, and use the book review page as a handy, intelligent guide for ordering better books for the church.

Serving Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)

SUNDAY CHURCH SCHOOL CLASSES—As supplementary materials for class discussion, use "Where the Scriptures Speak . . ." and "Meaning for Today."

SHUT-INS—Especially appreciate receiving a copy of THE CHRISTIAN regularly. While providing wholesome and enjoyable reading, it makes them feel more a part of their local church and the Brotherhood as well.

"THE PASTOR'S FRIEND"—The wise pastor is a regular reader of THE CHRISTIAN. He knows that it's a reliable source of information and inspiration to help him do a more competent job in serving his ministry.

CHURCH EXPANSION THROUGH PARTNERSHIP

These men represent a portion of the team responsible for Church Extension services. They're the professionals—the men who last year made 835 field visits to provide the following services to Christian Churches:

- 407 General Consultations
- 121 Architectural Consultations
- 72 Fund-Raising Campaigns
- 199 Loans
- 127 Certificate-Loan Programs

The balance of the team is made up of a vitally important group—the thousands of individuals, churches and organizations who back up the field staff and all Church Extension services with their savings and investment dollars—currently over $15,000,000.
